Preface

The Riverdale Hymn Book is an attempt to present a limited selection of hymns suited to present day needs, warm with the Spirit of Christian devotion, and expressive of the praises and aspirations of the Communion of Saints.

The first place has been given to the objective hymns, those that lead thought and emotion away from self, up to God and his Christ, and out toward the service of our brother men; and while hymns of more personal tone have not been neglected, the purpose has been the inclusion of those that are uplifting and the avoidance of those that are enervating and depressing.

As far as possible the hymns are presented in their original text. In a number of instances the original text has been used where an altered one has been customary; and wherever a hymn is the work of more than one person the fact is noted.

In the choice of music, the needs of the average congregation have been held in mind. Customary association of hymns with particular tunes has been preserved wherever the music appeared at all worthy. But there has been a constant endeavor to choose musical settings worthy of the hymns and truly voicing their spirit.

We have preferred tunes suitable for unison singing, and tunes have sometimes been set in lower keys so that all the voices in the congregation might sing the melody, leaving the harmony to the organ or choir.

If such tunes as Old Hundredth or St. Anne—and in general the older Psalm tunes and Chorales, should be sung in slower time than is customary, with due regard to the pauses at the end of the lines, there would be a great gain in resonance and effectiveness. We have for this reason made freer use of the pause mark (^) than has lately been common.

The great hymns—the classics belonging to all time—together with those hymns of lesser note whose worth has been proved by the common use which has made them familiar, form the basis of the selection; but ancient as well as modern fields have yielded much that is new in both hymns and music. A goodly number, both of hymns and tunes appear for the first time in this country. The newer hymns will be found rich in poetic and devotional quality, and the newer music simple, dignified and melodious.

To the friends who have been our wise and cordial helpers in our work, we express our thanks.

We record our obligations to the various American Hymnals new and old: to the Hymnal of the Scottish Presbyterian Churches; the Canadian Presbyterian Book of Praise; the Hymns Ancient and Modern; the English Hymnal; the Oxford Hymn Book; and the British Wesleyan Methodist Hymn Book.

D., Oxon, Sir Walter Parratt, Mr. Robert Quail, Professor H. E. Wooldridge, and the Messrs. Hughes and Son for permission to use tunes composed or owned by them.

We are indebted to the Century Company, and also to the Editors of "Hymns of the Kingdom of God," for courtesies extended. To Miss E. C. Tilley, organist at the Riverdale Presbyterian Church we are especially indebted for valuable assistance in the preparation of the music.

We have tried to communicate with all owners of copyrighted hymns or tunes. Occasionally it has been difficult to find addresses or to trace ownership. If for such reasons, or through inadvertence any rights have been overlooked we crave forgiveness.

NOTE.—The dates appended to the names of authors and composers are, when obtainable, those of the year in which the hymn was written or the tune composed. Frequently it has been possible to give date of publication only: and occasionally hymns were not published until after the author's death. When two dates are found they are those of the original form of the hymn and of the author's own revision given in the book. When the precise date of hymn or tune is uncertain, the letter c. (circa) is appended to the date, or else the years of the author's or composer's birth and death are given e. g. 1811-1887, except when the author or composer is still living, e. g. 1819—, or when the year of death only is known, e. g. d. 1620. When more than one person has had a hand in the making of a hymn, the fact is usually noted by the words "and others."

Ⓔ ye holy and humble men of heart,

The Call to Worship

THE LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him.

Honor and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker.

For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

God is a spirit: and they that worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.

The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

We have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

The Call to Worship

The Ten Commandments

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage:

I Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

II Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

IV Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

VI Thou shalt not kill.

VII Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII Thou shalt not steal.

IX Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

HEAR also the words of our Lord Jesus, how he saith:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Morning

MORNING HYMN L. M.

François H. Barthélemon, c. 1780

1 A-wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run: Shake off dull sloth, and joy - ful rise To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice. A - men.

Part I

Redeem thy mis-spent time that's past,
Live this day as if 'twere thy last;
Improve thy talent with due care;
For the great Day thyself prepare.

In all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear;
Think how all-seeing God thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.

By influence of the light Divine
Let thy own light in good works shine;
Reflect all heaven's propitious rays
In ardent love and cheerful praise.

Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praise to the eternal King.

Part II

Glory to thee, who safe hast kept
And hast refreshed me whilst I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.

Heaven is, dear Lord, where'er thou art,
O never then from me depart,
For to my soul 'tis hell to be
But for one moment without thee.

Lord, I my vows to thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew,
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.

Direct, control, suggest, this day
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise him, all creatures here below,
Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

MORNING 79. 61.

W. H. Monk, 1823-1889

1 Christ, whose glo - ry fills the skies, Christ, the true, the on - ly Light,

Sun of Right-eous-ness, a - rise, Tri - umph o'er the shades of night;

Day-spring from on high, be near; Day-star, in my heart ap - pear. A - men.

Dark and cheerless is the morn
 Unaccompanied by thee;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till thy mercy's beams I see;
 Till they inward light impart,
 Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.

Visit then this soul of mine;
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief,
 Fill me, Radiancy Divine;
 Scatter all my unbelief;
 More and more thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day.

WAREHAM L. M.

William Knapp, 1738

1 O splen - dor of God's glo - ry bright, O thou that bring - est light from light, O Light of light, light's liv - ing spring, O Day, all days il - lum - in - ing. A - men.

O thou true Sun, on us thy glance
Let fall in royal radiance;
The Spirit's sanctifying beam
Upon our earthly senses stream.

To guide whate'er we nobly do,
With love all envy to subdue,
To make ill fortune turn to fair
And give us grace our wrongs to bear.

The Father too our prayers implore,
Father of glory evermore,
The Father of all grace and might,
To banish sin from our delight;

Rejoicing may this day go hence,
Like virgin dawn our innocence,
Like fiery noon our faith appear,
Nor know the gloom of twilight drear.

Morn in her rosy car is borne;
Let Him come forth our perfect morn,
The Word in God the Father one,
The Father perfect in the Son.

ST. PETER C. M.

Alexander R. Reinagle, 1826

1 O God, be-fore thy sun's bright beams All night's dark shadows fly; So on the soul thy mer-cy gleams, And doubts and ter-rors die. A-men.

So freshly falls thy heaven-sent grace
As morning's gladdening breath;
Gives light to all to seek thy face,
And guides in life and death.

O holy light! O light of God!
O light unseen below,
Which fills the courts of thine abode,
Which there the blest shall know!

Swift comes the hour when none can toil,
Short is the rugged way:
Teach us our lamps to fill with oil,
Whilst it is called to-day.

Then we shall see that glorious light
Which to the saints is given,
So sweet, so fair, so passing bright,
The eternal morn of heaven.

O Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
O Holy One in Three,
Grant us, with all thy glorious host,
To share that morn with thee.

HAYDN 8. 4. 7. 8. 4. 7.

Arr. from Joseph Haydn, 1732-1809

1 Come, my soul, thou must be wak-ing! Now is break-ing O'er the earth an - oth - er day: Come, to him who made this splen-dor, See thou ren-der All thy fee - ble strength can pay. A - men.

Pray that he may prosper ever
Each endeavor,
When thine aim is good and true;
But that he may ever thwart thee,
And convert thee,
When thou evil wouldst pursue.

Think that he thy ways beholdeth;
He unfoldeth
Every fault that lurks within;
Every stain of shame glossed over
Can discover,
And discern each deed of sin.

Mayest thou on life's last morrow,
Free from sorrow,
Pass away in slumber sweet;
And, released from death's dark sadness,
Rise in gladness,
That far brighter Sun to greet.

Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,
But his Spirit's voice obey;
Thou with him shalt dwell, beholding
Light enfolding
All things in unclouded day.

Wilt thou not visit me?
The morning calls on me with cheering tone,
And every hill and tree
Has but one voice, the voice of thee alone.

Come, for I need thy love
More than the flower the dew, or grass the rain;
Come, like thy holy Dove,
And, swift-descending, bid me live again.

Yes, thou wilt visit me;
Nor plant nor tree thine eye delights so well,
As when, from sin set free,
Man's spirit comes with thine in peace to dwell.

To thee, whose word, the fount of light unsealing,
When hill and dale in thickest darkness lay,
Awoke bright rays across the dim earth stealing,
And bade the even and morn complete the day.

Look from the tower of heaven, and send to cheer us
Thy light and truth, to guide us onward still;
Still let thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
And lead us safely to thy holy hill.

In vain to labor, unless thou be with him,
Man goeth forth through all the weary day;
In vain his strife, in vain his toil unceasing,
Unless thy staff bring comfort on his way.

Thou, who hast made the north and south, watch o'er us;
Thou, in whose Name the lonely ones rejoice,
Still let thy cloudy pillar glide before us,
Still let us listen for thy warning voice.

So, when that morn of endless light is waking,
 And shades of evil from its splendors flee,
 Safe may we rise, the earth's dark breast forsaking,
 Through all the long bright day to dwell with thee.

1 When morn-ing gilds the skies, My heart a - wak - ing cries May

Je - sus Christ be praised: A - like at work and pray'r To Je - sus I re - pair; May Je - sus Christ be praised. A-men.

To thee my God above
I cry with glowing love,
May Jesus Christ be praised;
The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised;
Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
May Jesus Christ be praised;

The powers of darkness fear
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

To God the Word on high
The hosts of angels cry,
May Jesus Christ be praised;
Let air and earth and sky,
From depth to height reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

Be this while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
May Jesus Christ be praised;
Be this the eternal song
Through all the ages long,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

His compassions fail not, they are new every morning.—Lamentations iii; 22, 23

New mercies, each returning day,
 Hover around us while we pray;
 New perils past, new sins forgiven,
 New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

If, on our daily course, our mind
 Be set to hallow all we find,
 New treasures still, of countless price,
 God will provide for sacrifice.

The trivial round, the common task,
 Will furnish all we ought to ask;
 Room to deny ourselves, a road
 To bring us daily nearer God.

Only, O Lord, in thy dear love,
 Fit us for perfect rest above,
 And help us, this and every day,
 To live more nearly as we pray.

CANONBURY L. M.

Arr. fr. Robert Schumann, 1839

1 My God, how end-less is thy love! Thy gifts are ev-ery evening new; And morning mer-cies from a-bove Gen-tly dis-till like ear-ly dew. A-men.

Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great Guardian of my sleeping hours:
Thy sovereign word restores the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

I yield my powers to thy command,
To thee I consecrate my days;
Perpetual blessings from thy hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

1 The sun is sink-ing fast, The day-light dies; Let love a-wake, and pay Her even-ing sac-ri-fice. A-men.

As Christ, upon the cross
In death reclined,
Into his Father's hands
His parting soul resigned;

So now herself my soul
Would wholly give
Into his sacred charge,
In whom all spirits live;

So now beneath his eye
Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast,

Save that his will be done,
Whate'er betide;
Dead to herself, and dead
In him to all beside.

Thus would I live; yet now
Not I, but he
In all his power and love
Henceforth alive in me.

One sacred Trinity,
One Lord Divine;
Myself for ever his,
And he for ever mine!

 All praise of holy songs,
 O Son of God, Lifegiver;
 Thee, therefore, O Most High,

 Let heart and conscience stainless be,
 That we may live henceforth for thee:

We would not be by care opprest,
 But in thy love and wisdom rest;
 Give what thou seest to be best:

While we of every sin repent,
 Let our remaining years be spent
 In holiness and sweet content:

And when the end of life is near,
 May we, unshamed and void of fear,
 Wait for the Judgment to appear:

r All praise to thee, my God, this night, For all the blessings of the light; Keep me, O keep me, King of kings, Be-neath thine own Al-might-y wings. A-men.

Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done,
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
Teach me to die, that so I may Rise glorious at the awful day.

O may my soul on thee repose,
And with sweet sleep mine eyelids close,
Sleep that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise him, all creatures here below,
Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The toils of day are over:
I raise the hymn to thee,
And ask that free from peril
The hours of fear may be.
O Jesus, keep me in thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night.

Lighten mine eyes, O Saviour,
Or sleep in death shall I,
And he, my wakeful tempter,

"He could not make their darkness light,
Nor guard them through the hours of night."

Be thou my soul's Preserver,
O God, for thou dost know
How many are the perils
Through which I have to go.
Lover of men, O hear my call,
And guard and save me from them all.

1 The shad-ows of the even-ing hours Fall from the darkening sky; Up - on the frag-rance of the flowers The dews of even-ing lie: Be fore thy throne, O Lord of heaven, We kneel at close of day; Look on thy chil-dren from on high, And hear us while we pray. A-men.

The sorrows of thy servants, Lord,
O do not thou despise,
But let the incense of our prayers
Before thy mercy rise.
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows from our souls.

Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy
That one by one depart.

Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine;
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things Divine.

Let peace, O Lord, thy peace, O God,
Upon our souls descend;
From midnight fears and perils, thou
Our trembling hearts defend:
Give us a respite from our toil,
Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long day we labor, Lord,
O give us now repose.

My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.

Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.

If some poor wandering child of thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.

Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.

Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take;
Till in the ocean of thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

Our life is but an autumn sun,
Its glorious noon how quickly past;
Lead us, O Christ, our life-work done,
Safe home at last.

O by thy soul-inspiring grace
Uplift our hearts to realms on high;
Help us to look to that bright place
Beyond the sky;—

Where light, and life, and joy, and peace
In undivided empire reign,
And thronging angels never cease
Their deathless strain;—

Where saints are clothed in spotless white,
And evening shadows never fall,
Where thou, eternal Light of light,
Art Lord of all.

r Now God be with us, for the night is clos - ing: The light and

Let evil thoughts and spirits flee before us;
Till morning cometh, watch, O Master, o'er us;
In soul and body thou from harm defend us,
Thine angels send us.

Let holy thoughts be ours when sleep o'ertakes us;
Our earliest thoughts be thine when morning wakes us;
All day serve thee, in all that we are doing
Thy praise pursuing.

As thy beloved, soothe the sick and weeping,
And bid the prisoner lose his griefs in sleeping;
Widows and orphans, we to thee commend them,
Do thou befriend them.

We have no refuge, none on earth to aid us,
Save thee, O Father, who thine own hast made us;
But thy dear presence will not leave them lonely,
Who seek thee only.

Father, thy Name be praised, thy kingdom given,
Thy will be done on earth as 'tis in heaven;
Keep us in life, forgive our sins, deliver
Us now and ever.

Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end;
 Onward to darkness and to death we tend:
 O Conqueror of the grave, be thou our Guide,
 Be thou our Light in death's dark eventide;
 Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
 No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.

Thou, who in darkness walking didst appear
 Upon the waves, and thy disciples cheer,
 Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms assail,
 And earthly hopes and human succors fail;
 When all is dark, may we behold thee nigh
 And hear thy voice, "Fear not, for it is I!"

The weary world is mouldering to decay:
 Its glories wane, its pageants fade away:
 In that last sunset, when the stars shall fail,
 May we arise, awakened by thy call,
 With thee, O Lord, for ever to abide
 In that blest day which has no eventide.

EVENTIDE 10. 10. 10. 10.

First Tune

W. H. Monk, 1861

1 A - bide with me: fast falls the e - ven - tide; The darkness deep - ens;

Lord, with me a - bide: When oth - er help - ers fail, and comforts flee,

Help of the help - less, O a - bide with me. A - men.

Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent.—Luke xxiv : 29

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see:
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

Not a brief glance I beg, a passing word;
But, as thou dwell'st with thy disciples, Lord,
Familiar, condescending, patient, free,
Come, not to sojourn, but abide with me.

Come not in terrors, as the King of kings,
But kind and good, with healing in thy wings,
Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea;
Come, Friend of sinners, thus abide with me.

ORISONS 10. 10. 10. 10.

Second Tune

S. S. Wesley, 1810-1876

1 A - bide with me: fast falls the e - ven - tide; The dark - ness deep - ens; Lord, with me a - bide: When oth - er help - ers fail, and com - forts flee, Help of the help - less, O a - bide with me. A - men.

I need thy presence every passing hour;
 What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
 Who like thyself my guide and stay can be?
 Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.

I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless;
 Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness:
 Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
 I triumph still if thou abide with me.

Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes,
 Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
 Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee:
 In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

PAX DEI 10s. 4 l.

J. B. Dykes, 1868

I Go down, great sun, in - to thy gold - en west,

The day is done, the hours of la - bor past;

The night's dark shad - ows deep - en all a - round;

The day is o - ver; rest has come at last. A-men.

And so, our life to even-tide draws nigh,
 Our days of change their course have almost run;
 And soon the storms of winter will be past,
 And then comes summer, and the unsetting sun.

And in that holier world of joy and peace,
 Our sun shall rise upon a land so blest,
 That none in this poor world have words to tell
 How great the joy of that pure heavenly rest.

GREENLAND 7. 6. 7. 6. D.

Arr. from Michael Haydn, 1737-1806

O day of rest and glad - ness, O day of joy and light, O balm of care and sad - ness, Most beau - ti - ful, most bright; On thee the high and low - ly, Through a - ges joined in tune, Sing

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, To the great God Tri - une. A - men.

 On thee, at the creation,
 The light first had its birth;
 On thee, for our salvation,
 Christ rose from depths of earth,
 On thee our Lord, victorious,
 The Spirit sent from heaven;
 And thus on thee, most glorious,
 A triple light was given.

 Thou art a port protected
 From storms that round us rise:
 A garden intersected
 With streams of Paradise;
 Thou art a cooling fountain
 In life's dry, dreary sand;
 From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
 We view our promised land.

 To-day on weary nations
 The heavenly manna falls:
 To holy convocations
 The silver trumpet calls,
 Where gospel light is glowing
 With pure and radiant beams,
 And living water flowing
 With soul-refreshing streams.

 New graces ever gaining
 From this our day of rest,
 We reach the rest remaining
 To spirits of the blest.
 To Holy Ghost be praises,
 To Father, and to Son;
 The Church her voice upraises
 To thee, blest Three in One.

Psalm xcii

Sweet is the day of sacred rest;
 No mortal care shall seize my breast;
 O may my heart in tune be found,
 Like David's harp of solemn sound.

My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
 And bless his works, and bless his word;
 Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
 How deep thy counsels, how divine!

But I shall share a glorious part
 When grace hath well refined my heart,
 And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
 Like holy oil to cheer my head.

Then shall I see, and hear, and know,
 All I desired or wished below;
 And every power find sweet employ
 In that eternal world of joy.

Lord, we would bring for offering,
 Though marred with earthly soil,
 A week of earnest labor,
 Of steady, faithful toil;
 Fair fruits of self-denial,
 Of strong, deep love to thee,
 Fostered by thine own Spirit
 In our humility.

And we would bring our burden
 Of sinful thought and deed,
 In Thy pure presence kneeling,
 From bondage to be freed;

Our hearts' most bitter sorrow
 For all thy work undone,—
 So many talents wasted,
 So few bright laurels won.

O Lord, forgive and strengthen:
 May we for evermore
 Upon thy peaceful Sabbath
 Thy blessèd name adore;
 Until in joy and gladness
 We reach that home at last,
 Where life's short week of sorrow
 And sin and strife is past.

Psalm lxxiv

Happy birds that sing and fly
Round thy altars, O Most High;
Happier souls that find a rest
In a heavenly Father's breast;
Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.

Happy souls, their praises flow
Even in this vale of woe;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies;

On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach thy throne at length,
At thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

Lord, be mine this prize to win,
Guide me through a world of sin,
Keep me by thy saving grace,
Give me at thy side a place;
Sun and shield alike thou art,
Guide and guard my erring heart.
Grace and glory flow from thee;
Shower, O shower them, Lord, on me.

Ye saints, who toil below,
 Adore your heavenly King,
 And onward as ye go
 Some joyful anthem sing;
 Take what he gives
 And praise him still,

 Triumph in God above:
 And with a well-tuned heart
 Sing thou the songs of love!

Here, gracious God, do thou
 For evermore draw nigh;
 Accept each faithful vow,
 And mark each suppliant sigh;
 In copious shower on all who pray,
 Each holy day, thy blessings pour.

Here may we gain from heaven
 The grace which we implore;
 And may that grace, once given,

 The sweetness of thy saving name.

Here may we prove the power of prayer
 To strengthen faith, and sweeten care,
 To teach our faint desires to rise,
 And bring all heaven before our eyes.

Lord, we are few, but thou art near;
 Nor short thine arm, nor deaf thine ear:
 O rend the heavens, come quickly down,
 And make a thousand hearts thine own.

ST. MATTHIAS 8. 8. 8. 8. 8.

William H. Monk, 1861

I Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go; Thy word in - to our minds in - stil; And make our luke-warm hearts to glow With low - ly love and fer - vent will. Thro' life's long day and death's dark night, O gen - tle Je - sus, be our Light. A - men.

The day is done, its hours have run,
And thou hast taken count of all;
The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.
*Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our Light.*

Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release;
And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.

Do more than pardon; give us joy,
Sweet fear and sober liberty,
And loving hearts without alloy,
That only long to be like thee.

Labor is sweet, for thou hast toiled,
And care is light, for thou hast cared;
Let not our works with self be soiled,
Nor in unsimple ways ensnared.

For all we love, the poor, the sad,
The sinful,— unto thee we call;
O let thy mercy make us glad;
Thou art our Jesus and our All.

We thank thee that thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night,

As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.

The sun that bids us rest, is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
And hour by hour fresh lips are making
Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

So be it, Lord; thy throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away,
But stand, and rule, and grow forever
Till all thy creatures own thy sway.

Within all shadows standest thou:
Give deeper calm than night can bring,
Give sweeter songs than life can sing.

Life's tumult we must meet again,
We cannot at the shrine remain;
But in the spirit's secret cell
May hymn and prayer for ever dwell.

The hope of heaven's eternal days
Absorbs not all the heart
That gives thee glory, love, and praise,

And round us, when we speak thy Name,
There spreads a heaven of light.

O wondrous peace, in thought to dwell
On excellence Divine;
To know that nought in man can tell
How fair thy beauties shine.

O thou, above all blessing blest,
O'er thanks exalted far,
Thy very greatness is a rest
To weaklings as we are;

For when we feel the praise of thee
A task beyond our powers,
We say, "A perfect God is He,
And He is fully ours."

 Turn thou for us its darkness into light;
 From harm and danger keep thy children free,
 For dark and light are both alike to thee.

Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life,
 Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife,
 Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
 Call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace.

Ezekiel's Revelation to

Round the Lord in glory seated,
Cherubim and Seraphim
Filled his temple, and repeated
Each to each the alternate hymn:

"Lord, thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fullness stored;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord."

Heaven is still with glory ringing,
Earth takes up the angels' cry,
"Holy, Holy, Holy," singing,
"Lord of hosts, the Lord most high."

With his seraph train before him,
With his holy Church below,
Thus conspire we to adore him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow:

"Lord, thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fullness stored;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord."

Rev. iv: 8-11

Holy, Holy, Holy! All the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, Holy, Holy! Though the darkness hide thee,
Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see,
Only thou art holy: there is none beside thee
Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy Name, in earth and sky and sea:
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

 Continually do cry:—

O Holy, Holy, Holy Lord,
 Whom heavenly hosts obey,
 The world is with the glory filled
 Of thy majestic ray.

The apostles' glorious company,
 And prophets crowned with light,
 With all the martyrs' noble host,
 Thy constant praise recite.

The holy church throughout the world,
 O Lord, confesses thee,
 That thou Eternal Father art,
 Of boundless majesty;

Thy honored, true, and only Son;
 And Holy Ghost, the Spring
 Of never-ceasing joy: O Christ,
 Of glory thou art King.

THE OLD 100th L. M.

Earliest form, Genevan Psalter, 1551

Slow

1. All peo - ple that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheer - ful voice; Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell, Come ye be - fore him and re - joice. A - men.

The 100th Psalm

The Lord ye know is God indeed;
 Without our aid he did us make;
 We are his folk, he doth us feed;
 And for his sheep he doth us take.

O enter then his gates with praise,
 Approach with joy his courts unto;
 Praise, laud, and bless his Name always,
 For it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good,
 His mercy is for ever sure;
 His truth at all times firmly stood,
 And shall from age to age endure.

His sovereign power, without our aid,

Made us of clay, and formed us men;

And when like wandering sheep we strayed,

He brought us to his fold again.

We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,

High as the heavens our voices raise;

And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,

Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.

We are his people, we his care,

Our souls, and all our mortal frame;

What lasting honors shall we rear,

Almighty Maker, to thy Name?

Wide as the world is thy command,

Vast as eternity thy love;

Firm as a rock thy truth must stand,

When rolling years shall cease to move.

Watts and Wesley, 1719

Psalm cxvii

From all that dwell below the skies

Let the Creator's praise arise:

Let the Redeemer's Name be sung

Through every land, by every tongue.

Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;

Eternal truth attends thy word:

Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore

Till suns shall rise and set no more.

And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

The earth, with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty, thy power hath founded of old,
Hath established it fast by a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail:
Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend. 4

WATFORD 8. 8. 6. 8. 8. 6.

E. P. Horner, 1901

1 Lord God! by whom all change is wrought, By whom new things to birth are brought, In whom no change is known: What-e'er thou dost, what-e'er thou art, Thy

Ancient of days! we dwell in thee:
 Out of thine own eternity
 Our peace and joy are wrought:
 We rest in our eternal God,
 And make secure and sweet abode
 With thee who changest not.

Ps. xc. 1-2

Each steadfast promise we possess:
 Thine everlasting truth we bless,
 Thine everlasting love:
 Th' unfailing helper close we clasp,
 The everlasting arms we grasp,
 Nor from the refuge move.

To thee we rise, in thee we rest:
 We stay at home, we go in quest,
 Still thou art our abode:
 The rapture swells, the wonder grows
 As full on us new life still flows,
 From our unchanging God.

To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone;

Psalm xc

Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

Our God, our Help in ages past;
Our Hope for years to come;
Be thou our Guard while troubles last,
And our eternal Home.

Isaac Watts, 1719

Lift to Jehovah, wintry main,
Your grand white hands in prayer,
Still summer seas, in dulcet strain
Murmur hosannas there;
Storm, lightning, thunder, hail and snow,
Wild winds that keep his word,
With mountains and all hills below,
Unite to bless the Lord.

His Name, ye forests wave along;
Whisper it every flower;
Birds, beasts, and insects swell the song
That tells his love and power;

Psalm cxlviii

And round the wide world let it roll
Whilst man shall lead it on.
Join every ransomed human soul,
In glorious unison.

Come, aged man! Come little child!
Youth, maiden, peasant, king;
To God in Jesus reconciled
Your loyal tribute bring.
The All Creating Deity
Maker of earth and heaven,
The great redeeming majesty
To him, the praise be given.

The King, eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God,—1 Tim. 1: 17

Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
 Nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might;
 Thy justice like mountains high soaring above
 Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all life thou givest— to both great and small;
 In all life thou livest, the true life of all;
 We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,

1 O God, my strength and for - ti - tude, Of and de - fence In my ne - ces - si - ty. A - men.

From Psalm xviii Old Version

I, when beset with pain and grief,
Did pray to God for grace;
And he forthwith did hear my plaint,
Out of his holy place.

And from above the Lord sent down
To fetch me from below,
And pluckt me out of waters great
That would me overflow.

The Lord descended from above,
And bowed the heavens high,
And underneath his feet he cast
The darkness of the sky.

For thou dost save the simple folk
In trouble when they lie,
And dost bring down the countenance
Of him that looketh high.

On cherub and on cherubim
Full royally he rode,
And on the wings of all the winds
Came flying all abroad.

Unspotted are the ways of God,
His word is purely tried;
He is a sure defense to such
As in his faith abide.

James Turlé, 1843

1 My God, how won - der - ful thou art, Thy maj - es - ty how bright! How

The Eternal Father

How dread are thine eternal years,
O Everlasting Lord,
By prostrate spirits, day and night,
Incessantly adored!

O how I fear thee, living God,
With deepest, tenderest fears;
And worship thee with trembling hope,
And penitential tears.

Yet I may love thee too, O Lord,
Almighty as thou art;
For thou hast stooped to ask of me
The love of my poor heart.

No earthly father loves like thee,
No mother half so mild
Bears and forbears, as thou hast done
With me, thy sinful child.

Father of Jesus, love's Reward!
What rapture will it be,
Prostrate before thy throne to lie,
And gaze and gaze on thee.

Wm. Gardiner's "Sacred Melodies," 1815
Ascribed to Beethoven

1 The Lord is King! lift up thy voice, O earth; and all ye heavens re-joice: From world to world the joy shall ring, "The Lord Om-ni-po-tent is King!" A-men.

The Lord is King! who then shall dare
Resist his will, distrust his care,
Or murmur at his wise decrees,
Or doubt his royal promises?

The Lord is King! Child of the dust,
The Judge of all the earth is just;
Holy and true are all his ways:
Let every creature speak his praise.

O when his wisdom can mistake,
His might decay, his love forsake,
Then may his children cease to sing,
"The Lord Omnipotent is King!"

Alike pervaded by his eye,
All parts of his dominion lie;
This world of ours, and worlds unseen,
And thin the boundary between.

One Lord, one empire, all secures;
He reigns, and life and death are yours:
Through earth and heaven one song shall ring,
"The Lord Omnipotent is King!"

The God who reigns on high
The great archangels sing;
And, "Holy Holy, Holy," cry,
"Almighty King!
Who was, and is, the same,
And evermore shall be;
Jehovah, Father, Great I AM!
We worship thee."

The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high;
"Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!"
They ever cry;
Hail, Abraham's God and mine!

 To whom be praise for evermore.*

 For strength to those who on him wait,
 His truth to prove, his will to do,
 Praise ye our God, for he is great,
 Trust in his name, for it is true:

 For joys untold that from above
 Cheer those who love his blest employ,
 Sing to our God, for he is love,
 Exalt his name, for it is joy:

 For life below with all its bliss,
 And for that life, more pure and high,
 That nobler life which after this
 Shall ever shine, and never die:
*Sing to the Lord of heaven and earth,
 Whom angels serve and saints adore,
 The Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
 To whom be praise for evermore.*

1 Praise to the Lord, the Al-might-y, the King of cre - a - tion! O my soul praise Him, for he is thy health and sal - va - tion, All ye who hear, Brothers and sis - ters draw near, Praise him in glad ad - o - ra - - tion! A - men.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Shelters thee under his wings, yea, so gently sustaineth:
Hast thou not seen
How thy entreaties have been Granted in what he ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work, and defend thee;
Surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend thee:
Ponder anew
What the Almighty can do,
If with his love he befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord, who, when tempests their warfare are waging,
Who, when the elements madly around thee are raging,
Biddeth them cease,
Turneth their fury to peace,
Whirlwinds and waters assuaging.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath come now with praises before him!
Let the amen
Sound from his people again:
Gladly for aye we adore him.

Psalm ciii

Praise him for his grace and favor
 To our fathers in distress;
 Praise him still the same for ever,
 Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
 Praise him! Praise him!
 Glorious in his faithfulness.

Father-like, he tends and spares us;
 Well our feeble frame he knows;
 In his hands he gently bears us,
 Rescues us from all our foes.
 Praise him! Praise him!
 Widely as his mercy flows.

Angels help us to adore him;
 Ye behold him face to face;
 Sun and moon, bow down before him;
 Dwellers all in time and space.
 Praise him! Praise him!
 Praise with us the God of grace.

Psalm ciii

High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.

His power subdues our sins,
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.

The pity of the Lord
To those that fear his Name,
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.

Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

But thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

 On sunny hills that lie,
 Or grasses in the meadows
 That blossom but to die;

O thou, who canst not slumber,

 Teach us aright to number
 Our years before they fail;

Psalm 2c

 There Alleluias be.

Enlighten with faith's light my heart,
 In flame it with love's fire;
 Then shall I sing and bear a part

I shall, I fear, be dark and cold,
 With all my fire and light;
 Yet when thou dost accept their gold,
 Lord, treasure up my mite.

How great a being, Lord, is thine,

God is love.—1 John iv: 16

Thy word is love; in lines of gold
 There mercy prints its trace;
 In nature we thy steps behold,
 The gospel shows thy face.

Thy ways are love; though they transcend
 Our feeble range of sight,
 They wind, through darkness, to their end
 In everlasting light.

Thy thoughts are love; and Jesus is
 The living voice they find:
 His love lights up the vast abyss
 Of the eternal Mind.

Thy chastisements are love; more deep
 They stamp the seal divine,
 And by a sweet compulsion keep
 Our spirits nearer thine.

Thy heaven is the abode of Love:
 O blessed Lord, that we May there, when time's deep shades remove,
 Be gathered home to thee:

There with thy resting saints to fall
 Adoring round thy throne;
 Where all shall love thee, Lord, and all
 Shall in thy love be one.

HYFRYDOL 8s. 7s. 8l.

Melody by R. H. Prichard, 1811-87

1 Lord, with glow - ing heart I'd praise thee, For the bliss thy love be - stows,

For the pard - 'ning grace that saves me, And the peace that from it flows;

Help, O God, my weak en - deav - or, This dull soul to rap - ture raise;

Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
From the paths of death away:
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:
Low before thy footstool kneeling,
Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless:
Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth thy praise.

And seek to throne thee far in distant skies!
Take part with me against this self that dares
Assume the burden of these sins and cares!

Day's Psalter, 1592 Har. by E. J. Hopkins

1 Lord, thou hast search'd and seen me thro'; Thine eye commands with piercing view My

Psalm cxxxix

My thoughts, before they are my own,
 Are to my God distinctly known;
 He knows the words I mean to speak,
 Ere from my opening lips they break.

Within thy circling power I stand;
 On every side I find thy hand:
 Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
 I am surrounded still with God.

Amazing knowledge, vast and great!
 What large extent, what lofty height!
 My soul, with all the powers I boast,
 Is in the boundless prospect lost.

O may these thoughts possess my breast,
 Where'er I rove, where'er I rest:
 Nor let my weaker passions dare
 Consent to sin, for God is there.

O love of God, how deep and great!
Far deeper than man's deepest hate;
Self-fed, self-kindled like the light,
Changeless, eternal, infinite.

O wide-embracing, wondrous love!
We read thee in the sky above,
We read thee in the earth below,
In seas that swell, and streams that flow.

O heavenly love, how precious still,
In days of weariness and ill,
In nights of pain and helplessness,
To heal, to comfort, and to bless!

We read thee best in him who came
To bear for us the cross of shame;
Sent by the Father from on high,
Our life to live, our death to die.

We read thy power to bless and save,
E'en in the darkness of the grave;
Still more in resurrection light,
We read the fulness of thy might.

O love of God, our shield and stay
Through all the perils of our way!
Eternal love, in thee we rest,
For ever safe, for ever blest.

SURREY 8. 8. 8. 8. 8.

will I love, till sa - cred fire Fill my whole soul with pure de-sire. A - men.

In darkness willingly I strayed;
 I sought thee, yet from thee I roved;
 For wide my wandering thoughts were spread;
 Thy creatures more than thee I loved;
 And now, if more at length I see,
 'Tis through thy light, and comes from thee.

Uphold me in the doubtful race,
 Nor suffer me again to stray;
 Strengthen my feet, with steady pace
 Still to press forward in thy way;
 My soul and flesh, O Lord of might,
 Fill, satiate with thy heavenly light.

Thee will I love, my Joy, my Crown;
 Thee will I love, my Lord, my God;
 Thee will I love, beneath thy frown
 Or smile, thy sceptre or thy rod.
 What though my flesh and heart decay?
 Thee shall I love in endless day.

He comes, the prisoners to release
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.

He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure;
And with the treasures of His grace
To enrich the humble poor.

Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim;
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy beloved Name.

Luke ii: 13-14

Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel-sounds
The blessed angels sing.

And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow,—

Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

For lo, the days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing.

DIX 7s. 6 l.

Arr. from Conrad Koehler, 1838

1 As with glad-ness men of old Did the guid-ing star be-hold;
As with joy they hail'd its light, Lead-ing on-ward, beam-ing bright;
So, most gra-cious Lord, may we Ev-er-more be led to thee. A-men.

Matthew ii

As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore,
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek thy mercy-seat.

As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare,
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee, our heavenly King.

Holy Jesus, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds thy glory hide.

In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
Thou its Sun which goes not down;
There for ever may we sing
Alleluias to our King.

 So God imparts to human hearts
 The blessings of his heaven.

No ear may hear his coming,
 But in this world of sin,
 Where meek souls will receive him still,
 The dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem,
 Descend to us, we pray;
 Cast out our sin, and enter in,
 Be born in us to-day.
 We hear the Christmas angels
 The great glad tidings tell;
 O come to us, abide with us,
 Our Lord Emmanuel.

EPHRATAH 8. 6. 8. 6. 7. 6. 8. 6. Second Tune

Uzziah C. Burnap, 1895

For Christ is born of Mary;
 And gathered all above,
 While mortals sleep, the angels keep
 Their watch of wondering love.
 O morning stars, together
 Proclaim the holy birth;
 And praises sing to God the King,
 And peace to men on earth.

How silently, how silently,
 The wondrous gift is given!
 So God imparts to human hearts
 The blessings of his heaven.

No ear may hear his coming,
 But in this world of sin,
 Where meek souls will receive him still,
 The dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem,
 Descend to us, we pray;
 Cast out our sin, and enter in,
 Be born in us to-day.
 We hear the Christmas angels
 The great glad tidings tell;
 O come to us, abide with us,
 Our Lord Emmanuel.

God, should take Our mor - tal form for mor - tals' sake! A - men.

He sent no angel to our race
Of higher or of lower place,
But wore the robe of human frame,
And he himself to this world came.

For us temptations sharp he knew,
For us the tempter overthrew.

For us baptized, for us he bore
His holy fast, and hungered sore,

For us to wicked men betrayed,
Scourged, mocked, in crown of thorns
arrayed;

For us he bore the cross's death,
For us at length gave up his breath.

For us he rose from death again,
For us he went on high to reign,
For us he sent his spirit here
To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.

How passing thought and fantasy,
That God, the Son of God, should take
Our mortal form for mortals' sake!

And lo, thy touch brought life and health,
Gave speech, and strength, and sight;
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
Owned thee, the Lord of light:
And now, O Lord, be near to bless,

In crowded street, by restless couch,
As by Gennesareth's shore.

Though Love and Might no longer heal
By touch, or word, or look;
Though they who do thy work must read
Thy laws in nature's book;

Matthew viii : 1-17

Yet come to heal the sick man's soul,
Come, cleanse the leprous taint;
Give joy and peace where all is strife,
And strength where all is faint.

Be thou our great Deliverer still,
Thou Lord of life and death;
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless
With thine almighty breath.
To hands that work and eyes that see
Give wisdom's heavenly lore,
That whole and sick, and weak and strong,
May praise thee evermore.

We know and feel that thou art here.

O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel:
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved thee well,
And some have lost the love they had;

And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin;
And they who fain would serve thee best
Are conscious most of wrong within.

O Saviour Christ, thou too art Man,
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide.

Thy touch has still its ancient power;
No word from thee can fruitless fall:
Hear in this solemn evening hour,
And in thy mercy heal us all.

"Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean."—Matt. viii: 2-3

Came the man of solitude,
Shunned by all the multitude,
And with all his heart's accord
Worshipped low before the Lord.

"If thou wilt!" the leper cried;
"Be thou clean!" the Lord replied,
Faith enough to come and crave;
Power enough to stand and save.

Jesus quick put forth his hand,
Token of a sweet command,
Overjoyed the leper's soul,
For the Lord hath touched him whole.

O thou Healer, still the same!
Speak to me thy mighty name,
While for joy I worship thee,
Like the man of Galilee.

Touch me, Lord, destroy my sin;
Touch me, Jesus, make me clean;

John xiv: 6

My Light thou art; without thy glorious sight
 My eyes are darkened with perpetual night:
 My God, thou art my Way, my Life, my Light.

Thou art my Way; I wander, if thou fly:
 Thou art my Light; if hid, how blind am I?
 Thou art my Life; if thou withdraw, I die.

Disclose thy sunbeams; close thy wings and stay;
 See, see how I am blind, and dead, and stray,

Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at his feet,
Mark that miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete:
"It is finished!"—hear the cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

Early hasten to the tomb
Where they laid his breathless clay:
All is solitude and gloom;
Who hath taken him away?
Christ is risen! he meets our eyes.
Saviour, teach us so to rise.

I O thou, th' E-ter - nal Son of God, The Lamb for sin - ners slain; We wor-ship, while thy head is bowed In ag - o - ny and pain. A - men.

None tread with thee the holy place;
 Thou sufferest alone;
 Thine is the perfect sacrifice
 Which only can atone.

Thou Great High Priest, thy glory-robcs
 To-day are laid aside;
 And human sorrows, Son of Man,
 Thy Godhead seem to hide.

The cross is sharp, but in thy woe
 This is the lightest part;
 Our sin it is which pierces thee,
 And breaks thy sacred heart.

Who love thee most, at thy dear cross,
 Will truest, Lord, abide;
 Make thou that cross our only hope,
 O Jesus crucified.

PASSION CHORALE 7. 6. 81.

Hans Leo Hassler, 1601:
Harmonized by J. S. Bach, 1729

Slow

I O sa-cred Head, now wound-ed, With grief and shame weighed down; Now scorn-ful - ly sur - round - ed With thorns, thine on - ly crown: O sa - cred Head, what glo - ry, What bliss till now was thine! Yet, though de-spised and go - ry, I joy to call thee mine. A-men.

O noblest brow and dearest,
In other days the world
All feared when thou appearedst;
What shame on thee is hurled!
How art thou pale with anguish,
With sore abuse and scorn;
How does that visage languish
Which once was bright as morn!

What thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners' gain:
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But thine the deadly pain.

To the Suffering Face of Jesus Christ

Lo, here I fall, my Saviour,
'Tis I deserve thy place:
Look on me with thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me thy grace.

What language shall I borrow
To thank thee, dearest Friend,
For this thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end!
O make me thine for ever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never Outlive my love to thee.

OUSELEY 7s. 6 l.

F. A. G. Ouseley, 1869

1 Throned up - on the aw - ful tree, King of grief, I watch with thee:

Dark-ness veils thine anguished face, None its lines of woe can trace,

None can tell what pangs unknown Hold thee si - lent and a - lone. A-men.

My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

Silent through those three dread hours,
 Wrestling with the evil powers,
 Left alone with human sin,
 Gloom around thee and within,
 Till th' appointed time is nigh,
 Till the Lamb of God may die.

Hark that cry that peals aloud
 Upward through the whelming cloud!
 Thou, the Father's only Son,
 Thou, his own Anointed One,
 Thou dost ask him—can it be?
 "Why hast thou forsaken Me?"

Lord, should fear and anguish roll
 Darkly o'er my sinful soul,
 Thou, who once wast thus bereft
 That thine own might ne'er be left—
 Teach me by that bitter cry
 In the gloom to know thee nigh.

O COME AND MOURN L. M.

From Beethoven Op. 2, No. 2, arr. L. B. L.

Slow

O come and mourn with me a - while; See, Ma - ry calls us to her side; O come and let us mourn with her: Je - sus, our Love, is cru - ci - fied. A - men.

Have we no tears to shed for him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah, look how patiently he hangs:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.

Seven times he spoke, seven words of love;
And all three hours his silence cried
For mercy on the souls of men:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.

O break, O break, hard heart of mine;
Thy weak self-love and guilty pride
His Pilate and his Judas were:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.

A broken heart, a fount of tears,
Ask, and they will not be denied;
A broken heart love's cradle is:
Jesus, our love is crucified.

O Love of God! O sin of Man!
In this dread act your strength is tried;
And victory remains with Love:
For he, our Love, is crucified.

ST. CROSS L. M.

J. B. Dykes, 1861

1 Lord Je - sus, when we stand a - far, And gaze up - on thy ho - ly cross, In love of thee, and scorn of self, O may we count the world as loss! A - men.

When we behold thy bleeding wounds,
 And the rough way that thou hast trod,
 Make us to hate the load of sin
 That lay so heavy on our God.

O holy Lord, uplifted high,
 With outstretched arms, in mortal woe
 Embracing in thy wondrous love
 The sinful world that lies below;

Give us an ever-living faith
 To gaze beyond the things we see:
 And in the mystery of thy death
 Draw us and all men unto thee.

CARLISLE S. M.

C. Lockhart, 1745-1815

1 O per - fect life of love! All, all is fin - ished now; All that he left his throne a - bove To do for us be - low. A - men.

No work is left undone
Of all the Father willed;
His toil, his sorrows, one by one,
The Scripture have fulfilled.

No pain that we can share
But he has felt its smart;
All forms of human grief and care
Have pierced that tender heart.

And on his thorn-crowned head,
And on his sinless soul,
Our sins in all their guilt were laid
That he might make us whole.

In perfect love he dies;
For me he dies, for me:
O all-atoning Sacrifice,
I cling by faith to thee.

In every time of need,
Before the judgment-throne,
Thy work, O Lamb of God, I'll plead,
Thy merits, not my own.

Yet work, O Lord, in me,
As thou for me hast wrought;
And let my love the answer be
To grace thy love has brought.

1 At the Cross her sta-tion keep-ing, Stood the mournful Moth- er weep-ing,

Close to Je - sus at the last. Thro' her soul of joy be - reav - ed, Bowed with an-guish deep-ly griev-ed, Now at length the sword hath pass'd A-men.

 Who on Christ's dear Mother gazing,
 In her trouble so amazing,
 Born of woman, would not weep?
 Who on Christ's dear Mother thinking,
 Such a cup of sorrow drinking,
 Would not share her sorrow deep?

 For his people's sins, in anguish,
 There she saw the victim languish,
 Bleed in torments, bleed and die:
 Saw the Lord's Anointed taken;
 Saw her Child in death forsaken;
 Heard his last expiring cry.

 In the Passion of my Maker,
 By my sinful soul partaker,
 May I bear with her my part;
 Of his Passion bear the token,
 In a spirit bowed and broken
 Bear his death within my heart.

 Jesus, may thy Cross defend me,
 And thy saving death befriend me,
 Cherished by thy deathless grace:
 When to dust my dust returneth,
 Grant a soul that to thee yearneth,
 In thy Paradise a place.

see The prom-ised glo - ry of the far - off years! A - men.

"Verily I say unto thee, To-day shall thou be with me in Paradise"

No kingly sign declares that glory now,
 No ray of hope lights up that awful hour;
 A thorny crown surrounds the bleeding brow,
 The hands are stretched in weakness, not in power.

Hark! through the gloom the dying Saviour saith,
 "Thou too shalt rest in Paradise to-day;"
 O words of love to answer words of faith!
 O words of hope for those that live to pray!

Lord, when with dying lips my prayer is said,
 Grant that in faith thy kingdom I may see;
 And, thinking on thy Cross and bleeding head,
 May breathe my parting words, "Remember me."

Remember me, but not my shame or sin;
 Thy cleansing Blood hath washed them all away;
 Thy precious death for me did pardon win;
 Thy Blood redeemed me in that awful day.

Remember me; and, ere I pass away,
 Speak thou th' assuring word that sets us free,
 And make thy promise to my heart, "To-day
 Thou too shalt rest in Paradise with me."

1 Peter iv : 1

Thine own disciple to the Jews has sold thee;
With friendship's kiss and loyal word he came:
How oft of faithful love my lips have told thee,
While thou hast seen my falsehood and my shame.

With taunts and scoffs they mock what seems thy weakness,
With blows and outrage adding pain to pain:
Thou art unmoved and steadfast in thy meekness;
When I am wronged how quickly I complain.

My Lord, my Saviour, when I see thee wearing
Upon thy bleeding brow the crown of thorn,
Shall I for pleasure live, or shrink from bearing
Whate'er my lot may be of pain or scorn?

O Victim of thy love! O pangs most healing!
O saving death! O wounds that I adore!
shame most glorious! Christ, before thee kneeling,
I pray thee keep me thine for evermore.

First Tune

German, 1745

1 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing, Which before the cross I spend;

Life and health and peace possessing, From the sinner's dying Friend. Amen.

Truly blessed is this station
Low before his cross to lie,
While I see divine compassion
Pleading in his languid eye.

Constant still in faith abiding
Life deriving from his death.

Love and grief my heart dividing
With my tears his feet I'll bathe,

Fix our hearts and eyes on thee,
Till we taste thy full salvation
And unveiled thy glories see.

All fiery pangs on battlefields,
 On fever beds where sick men toss,

But more than pains that racked him then
 Was the deep longing thirst divine
 That thirsted for the souls of men:
 Dear Lord! and one was mine.

O Love most patient, give me grace;
 Make all my soul athirst for thee:
 That parched dry lip, that fading face,
 That thirst, were all for me.

1 "Welcome, hap-py morn-ing!" age to age shall say: Hell to-day is vanquished; heav'n is won to-day. Lo! the Dead is liv-ing,

God for-ev-er-more! Him their true Cre-a-tor, all his works a-

Earth with joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
 All good gifts returned with her returning King:
 Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
 Speak his sorrows ended, hail his triumph now.
 Hell to-day is vanquished; heaven is won to-day.

Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
 Hours and passing moments praise thee in their flight;
 Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea,
 Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to thee.
 "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.

 Jesus lives! henceforth is death
 But the gate of life immortal;
 This shall calm our trembling breath,
 When we pass its gloomy portal.
 Alleluia!

 Jesus lives! our hearts know well
 Naught from us his love shall sever;
 Life, nor death, nor powers of hell
 Tear us from his keeping ever.
 Alleluia!

 Jesus lives! for us he died;
 Then, alone to Jesus living,
 Pure in heart may we abide,
 Glory to our Saviour giving.
 Alleluia!

 Jesus lives! to him the throne
 Over all the world is given:
 May we go where he has gone,
 Rest and reign with him in heaven.

 Thou, of life the Author, death didst undergo,
 Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
 Come, then, True and Faithful, now fulfil thy word,
 'Tis thine own third morning: rise, O buried Lord.
 "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.

 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain;
 All that now is fallen raise to life again;
 Show thy face in brightness, bid the nations see;
 Bring again our daylight: day returns with thee.
 Hell to-day is vanquished; heaven is won to-day.

1 Come, ye faith-ful, raise the strain Of tri-umph-ant glad-ness:

God hath brought his Is-ra-el In-to joy from sad-ness;

Loosed from Pha-raoh's bit-ter yoke Ja-cob's sons and daugh-ters;

Led them with un-moist-ened foot Through the Red Sea wa-ters. A-men.

 'Tis the spring of souls to-day:
 Christ hath burst his prison,
 And from three days' sleep in death
 As a sun hath risen;
 All the winter of our sins,
 Long and dark, is flying
 From his light, to whom we give Laud and praise undying.

 Now the Queen of seasons, bright
 With the day of splendor,
 With the royal feast of feasts,
 Comes its joy to render;

Comes to glad Jerusalem,
 Who with true affection
 Welcomes in unwearied strains
 Jesus' resurrection.

 Neither might the gates of death,
 Nor the tomb's dark portal,
 Nor the watchers, nor the seal,
 Hold thee as a mortal:
 But to-day amidst the Twelve
 Thou didst stand, bestowing
 That thy peace, which evermore
 Passeth human knowing.

From the furrows of the grave.

Christ is risen; we are risen.
Shed upon us heavenly grace,
Rain and dew and gleams of glory
From the brightness of thy face;

That we, Lord, with hearts in heaven,
Here on earth may fruitful be,
And by angel-hands be gathered,
And be ever safe with thee.

Now first to souls who thus awake
Seems earth a Fatherland:

The fears of death and of the grave
Are whelmed beneath the sea,
And every heart, now light and brave,
May face the things to be.

Now let the mourner grieve no more,
Though his beloved sleep,
A happier meeting shall restore
Their light to eyes that weep.

Now every heart each noble deed
With new resolve may dare,
A glorious harvest shall the seed
In brighter regions bear.

He who for men their Surety stood,
And poured on earth his precious blood,
Pursues in heaven his mighty plan,
The Saviour and the Friend of man.

Hebrews iv: 14-16

Though now ascended up on high,
He bends on earth a brother's eye;
Partaker of the human name,
He knows the frailty of our frame.

Our Fellow-sufferer yet retains
A fellow-feeling of our pains,
And still remembers in the skies
His tears, his agonies, and cries.

In every pang that rends the heart
The Man of Sorrows had a part;
He sympathizes with our grief,
And to the sufferer sends relief.

With boldness, therefore, at the throne
Let us make all our sorrows known,
And ask the aids of heavenly power
To help us in the evil hour.

Hebrews vii: 25 ix: 24

Without the people stood,
 While unseen and alone
 With incense and with blood
 He did for them atone.

So we without abide
 A few short passing years,
 While Christ who for us died
 Before our God appears.

Before his Father there
 His sacrifice he pleads,
 And with unceasing prayer
 For us he intercedes.

Praise His Name

AZMON C. M.

Arr. from Carl G. Gläser, 1828, by Lowell Mason, 1839

I O for a thou-sand tongues to sing My great Re-deem-er's praise, The glo-ries of my God and King, The tri-umphs of his grace! A - men.

My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad,
The honors of thy name.

Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

He breaks the power of canceled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean;
His blood availed for me.

He speaks, and, listening to his voice,
New life the dead receive;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice;
The humble poor believe.

Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come;
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

MILES' LANE C. M.

First Tune

W. Shrubsole, 1779

I All hail the pow'r of Je - sus' name! Let an - gels pros-trate fall; Bring forth the roy - al di - a - dem, And crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him Lord of all. A - men.

Crown him, ye martyrs of your God
Who from his altar call;
Extol the Stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown him Lord of all.

3

Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail Him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

Hail him, the Heir of David's line,
Whom David, Lord did call;
The God incarnate! Man divine!
And crown him Lord of all!

5

Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

O that with yonder sacred throng
We at his feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

CORONATION C. M.

Second Tune

O. Holden, 1793

I All hail the pow'r of Je - sus' name! Let an - gels prostrate fall; Bring forth the roy - al di - a - dem, And crown him Lord of all; Bring forth the roy - al di - a - dem, And crown him Lord of all. A - men.

Crown him, ye martyrs of your God
Who from his altar call;
Extol the Stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown him Lord of all.

3

Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

4

Hail him the Heir of David's line,
Whom David, Lord did call;
The God incarnate! Man divine!
And crown him Lord of all!

5

Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

O that with yonder sacred throng
We at his feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

SCHÖNSTER HERR JESU 5. 6. 8. 5. 5. 8.

German Melody, 1842
From an Old Folk Song

r Fair - est Lord Je - sus, Ru - ler of all na - ture, O thou of God and man the Son; Thee will I cher - ish, Thee will I hon - or, Thou, my soul's Glo - ry, Joy, and Crown. A - men.

Another, and probably the original form of this melody will be found at No. 13

Fair are the meadows,
Fairer still the woodlands,
Robed in the blooming garb of spring:
Jesus is fairer,
Jesus is purer,
Who makes the woeful heart to sing,

Fair is the sunshine,
Fairer still the moonlight,
And all the twinkling, starry host:
Jesus shines brighter,
Jesus shines purer,
Than all the angels heaven can boast.

PRINCETHORPE 6. 5. 81.

W. Pitts, 1829—

1 At the Name of Je - sus Ev - ery knee shall bow, Ev - ery tongue con - fess him King of glo - ry now: 'Tis the Fa - ther's pleas - ure We should call him

Lord, Who from the be - gin - ning Was the might - y Word. A - men.

At his voice creation
Sprang at once to sight,
All the angel faces,
All the hosts of light,
Thrones and dominations,
Stars upon their way,
All the heavenly orders
In their great array.

Humbled for a season,
To receive a Name
From the lips of sinners
Unto whom he came,
Faithfully he bore it
Spotless to the last,
Brought it back victorious,
When from death he passed.

Phil. ii: 5-11

In your hearts enthroned him;
There let him subdue
All that is not holy,
All that is not true:
Crown him as your Captain
In temptation's hour:
Let his will enfold you
In its light and power.

Brothers, this Lord Jesus
Shall return again,
With his Father's glory,
With his angel train;
For all wreaths of empire
Meet upon his brow,
And our hearts confess him
King of glory now.

Voices in Unison

Melody from "Piae Cantiones," Theoderici Petri Nylandensis, 1582

1 Of the Father's love be - got - ten, Ere the worlds be - gan to be, He is Al - pha and O - me - ga, He the source, the end -

- - ing he, Of the things that are, that have been, And that fu -

At his word the worlds were framèd;
He commanded; it was done:
Heaven and earth and depths of ocean
In their three fold order one:
All that grows beneath the shining
Of the moon and burning sun,
Evermore and evermore!

Now he shines, the long expected:
Let creation praise its Lord:
Evermore and evermore!

This is he whom seers in old time
Chanted with with one accord;
Whom the voices of the prophets
Promised in their faithful word;

O ye heights of heaven adore him!
Angel-hosts his praises sing!
All dominions bow before him
And extol our God and King:
Let no tongue on earth be silent
Every voice in concert sing
Evermore and evermore!

"Christ Jesus the Lamb worshipped by all the creation."—Rev. v: 11-13

 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
 "To be exalted thus:"
 "Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply,
 "For he was slain for us."

 Jesus is worthy to receive
 Honor and power Divine;
 And blessings, more than we can give,
 Be, Lord, for ever thine.

 Let all that dwell above the sky,
 And air, and earth, and seas,
 Conspire to lift thy glories high,
 And speak thine endless praise.

 The whole creation join in one,
 To bless the sacred Name
 Of him that sits upon the throne,
 And to adore the Lamb.

 Thee let old men, thee let young men,
 Thee let boys in chorus sing;
 Matrons, virgins, little maidens
 With glad voices answering;
 Let their guileless songs re-echo,
 And the heart its praises bring,
 Evermore and evermore!

 Christ! to thee with God the Father,
 And, O Holy Ghost, to thee!
 Hymn, and chant, and high thanksgiving,
 And unwearied praises be,
 Honor, glory, and dominion,
 And eternal victory,
 Evermore and evermore!

Prudentius 348-413:

Tr. J. M. Neale and H. W. Baker, 1861

DIADEMATA S. M. D.

G. J. Elvey, 1868

1 Crown him with ma - ny crowns, The Lamb up - on his throne; Hark, how the heaven-ly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own: A - wake, my soul, and sing Of him who died for thee, And hail him as thy match-less King Through all e - ter - ni - ty. A-men.

Rev. xix: 12-16

Crown him the Lord of love:
Behold his hands and side,
Rich wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye
At mysteries so bright.

Crown him the Lord of peace;
Whose power a sceptre sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
Absorbed in prayer and praise:

His reign shall know no end;
And round his pierced feet
Fair flowers of Paradise extend Their fragrance ever sweet.

Crown him the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time;
Creator of the rolling spheres
Ineffably sublime:
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
For thou hast died for me:
Thy praise shall never, never fail
Throughout eternity.

CORFE MULLEN 8. 7. 8. 7. 4. 7.

T. R. Matthews, 1826—

1 Look, ye saints; the sight is glo-rious: See the Man of Sor-rows, now;

From the fight re-tur-ned vic-to-rious, Ev-'ry knee to Him shall bow:

Crown him! Crown him! Crowns become the Vic-tor's brow. A-men.

"And he shall reign forever and ever."—Rev. xi: 15

Crown the Saviour, angels, crown him;
 Rich the trophies Jesus brings;
 In the seat of power enthrone him,
 While the vault of heaven rings:
 Crown him! Crown him!
 Crown the Saviour King of kings.

Sinners in derision crowned him,
 Mocking thus the Saviour's claim;
 Saints and angels crowd around him,
 Own his title, praise his Name:
 Crown him! Crown him!
 Spread abroad the Victor's fame.

Hark, those bursts of acclamation!
 Hark, those loud triumphant chords!
 Jesus takes the highest station;
 O what joy the sight affords:
 Crown him! Crown him!
 King of kings, and Lord of lords.

WORDSWORTH 7. 6. 81.

W. H. Monk, 1823-1889

O Sav - iour, pre - cious Sav - iour, Whom yet un - seen we love, O

Name of might and fa - vor, All oth - er names a - bove; We wor - ship thee, we bless thee, To thee a - lone we sing; We praise thee, and con - fess thee, Our ho - ly Lord and King. A - men.

O Bringer of salvation,
Who wondrously hast wrought,
Thyself the revelation
Of love beyond our thought;
We worship thee, we bless thee,
To thee alone we sing;
We praise thee, and confess thee
Our glorious Lord and King.

In thee all fulness dwelleth,
All grace and power Divine:
The glory that excelleth,
O Son of God, is thine;

We worship thee, we bless thee,
To thee alone we sing;
We praise thee, and confess thee
Our glorious Lord and King.

O grant the consummation
Of this our song above
In endless adoration,
And everlasting love;
Then shall we praise and bless thee
Where perfect praises ring,
And evermore confess thee
Our Saviour and our King.

LYONS 10. 10. 11. 11.

Arr. fr. J. Michael Haydn, 1737-1806

1 Ye serv-ants of God, your Mas-ter pro-claim, And pub-lish a - broad his won-der-ful name; The name all vic-to-rious, of Je-sus ex - tol; His king-dom is glo-rious, and rules o-ver all. A - men.

God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
 And still he is nigh— his presence we have.
 The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
 Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.

Salvation to God, who sits on the throne!
 Let all cry aloud, and honor the Son.
 The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
 Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore, and give him his right,
 All glory and power, and wisdom and might,
 All honor and blessing, with angels above,
 And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

GOTTLAND 7. 6. 81.

From Lindemann's Koral Bok: (Swedish)

1 Hail to the Lord's A - noint - ed, Great Da - vid's great - er Son! Hail, in the time ap - point - ed, His reign on earth be - gun! He

He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth;
And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
Spring in his path to birth;
Before him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go,
And righteousness, in fountains,
From hill to valley flow.

Kings shall fall down before him,
And gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore him,
His praise all people sing;
For he shall have dominion
O'er river, sea, and shore,
Far as the eagle's pinion
Or dove's light wing can soar.

Psalm lxxii

For him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end:
The mountain dews shall nourish
A seed in weakness sown,
Whose fruit shall spread and flourish,
And shake like Lebanon.

O'er every foe victorious
He on his throne shall rest,
From age to age more glorious,
All blessing and all-blest:
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove,
His Name shall stand for ever,—
That Name to us is Love.

KENSINGTON 10s. 4 l.

W. D. Maclagan, 1826 1910

I O thou great Friend of all the sons of men,

Who once ap - peared in hum - blest guise be - low

Sin to re - buke, to break the cap - tive's chain,

To call thy breth - ren forth from want or woe, A - men.

Thee would I sing: thy truth is still the light
 Which guides the nations groping on their way,
 Stumbling and falling in disastrous night,
 Yet hoping ever for the perfect day.

Yes: thou art still the Life: thou art the Way
 The holiest know—light, life, and way to heaven;
 And they who dearest hope and deepest pray
 Toil by the Truth, Life, Way, that thou hast given.

GWALCHMAI 7. 4. 81.

J. D. Jones, 1827-70

r King of glo - ry, King of peace, I will love thee;

And that love may nev - er cease, I will move thee.

Thou hast grant - ed my re - quest, Thou hast heard me:

Thou didst note my work - ing breast, Thou hast spared me. A - men.

Wherefore with my utmost art
I will sing thee,
And the cream of all my heart
I will bring thee.
Though my sins against me cried,
Thou didst clear me;
And alone, when they replied,
Thou didst hear me.

Seven whole days, not one in seven,
I will praise thee;
In my heart, though not in heaven,
I can raise thee.
Small it is, in this poor sort
To enrol thee:
E'en eternity's too short
To extol thee.

"Thy saints proclaim thee King: and in their hearts thy title is engraven with a pen dipped in the fountain of eternal love."—Wm. Couper

Come, blessèd Lord, bid every shore
And answering island sing
The praises of thy royal Name,
And own thee as their King.

Bid the whole earth, responsive now
To the bright world above,
Break forth in rapturous strains of joy
In memory of thy love.

Lord, Lord, thy fair creation groans,
The air, the earth, the sea,
In unison with all our hearts,
And calls aloud for thee.

Come, then, with all thy quickening power,
With one awakening smile,
And bid the serpent's trail no more
Thy beauteous realms defile.

Thine was the cross, with all its fruits
Of grace and peace Divine:
Be thine the crown of glory now,
The palm of victory thine.

O quickly come, dread Judge of all; For, aw-ful though thine ad-vent be,
All shadows from the truth will fall, And falsehood die, in sight of thee:
O quickly come; for doubt and fear Like clouds dissolve when thou art near. A-men.

*Surely I come quickly, Amen.
Even so, come Lord Jesus.—Rev. xxi: 20*

O quickly come, great King of all;
Reign all around us, and within;
Let sin no more our souls enthrall,
Let pain and sorrow die with sin:
O quickly come; for thou alone
Canst make thy scattered people one.

O quickly come, true Life of all;
For death is mighty all around;
On every home his shadows fall,
On every heart his mark is found:
O quickly come; for grief and pain
Can never cloud thy glorious reign.

O quickly come, sure Light of all;
For gloomy night broods o'er our way;
And weakly souls begin to fall
With weary watching for the day:
O quickly come; for round thy throne
No eye is blind, no night is known.

ST. THOMAS 8. 7. 8. 7. 4. 7.

Samuel Webbe's Collection, 1792

1 Lo! he comes, with clouds de-scend-ing, Once for fa-vored sin - ners slain;

Thousand thousand saints at - tend-ing Swell the tri-umph of his train:

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! God ap - pears on earth to reign. A-men.

Every eye shall now behold him
Robed in dreadful majesty;
Those who set at naught and sold him,
Pierced, and nailed him to the Tree,
Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see.

Every island, sea, and mountain,
Heaven and earth, shall flee away;
All who hate him must, confounded,
Hear the trump proclaim the day;
Come to judgment!
Come to judgment, come away!

Revelation i: 7

Now Redemption, long expected
See in solemn pomp appear!
All his saints, by man rejected,
Now shall meet him in the air:
Alleluia!
See the day of God appear!

Yea, Amen! let all adore thee,
High on thine eternal throne:
Saviour, take the power and glory:
Claim the kingdom for thine own:
O come quickly;
Alleluia! come, Lord, come.

CRÜGER 7. 6. 81.

Adapted by W. H. Monk from J. Crüger, 1598-1662

I Re-joice, all ye be-liev-ers, And let your lights ap-pear, The eve-ning is ad-vanc-ing, And dark-er night is near: The Bridegroom is a-ris-ing, And soon he draw-eth nigh; Up, pray, and watch, and wres-tle: At midnight comes the cry. A-men.

Matthew xxv: 1-13

See that your lamps are burning;
 Replenish them with oil;
 And wait for your salvation,
 The end of earthly toil.
 The watchers on the mountain
 Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
 Go meet him as he cometh,
 With alleluias clear.

Ye saints, who here in patience
 Your cross and sufferings bore,
 Shall live and reign for ever
 When sorrow is no more:

Around the throne of glory
 The Lamb ye shall behold,
 In triumph cast before Him
 Your diadems of gold.

Our Hope and Expectation,
 O Jesus, now appear;
 Arise, thou Sun so longed for,
 O'er this benighted sphere.
 With hearts and hands uplifted,
 We plead, O Lord, to see
 The day of earth's redemption
 That brings us unto thee.

Invocation

TALLIS ORDINAL C. M.

T. Tallis, 1520-1585

1 Come, Ho - ly Spir - it, heav'n-ly Dove, With all thy quick'ning pow'rs; Kin - dle a flame of sa - cred love, In these cold hearts of ours. A - men.

Look how we grovel here below,
 Fond of these trifling toys;
 Our souls can neither fly nor go
 To reach eternal joys.

In vain we tune our formal songs,
 In vain we strive to rise;
 Hosannas languish on our tongues,
 And our devotion dies.

Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
 At this poor dying rate?
 Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
 And thine to us so great!

Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
 With all thy quickening powers;
 Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
 And that shall kindle ours.

SOUTHWELL C. M.

Herbert S. Irons, 1861

1 Our God, our God, thou shin-est here, Thine own this lat - ter day; To us thy ra-diant steps ap-pear: We watch thy glo-rious way. A-men.

Not only olden ages felt
The presence of the Lord;
Not only with the fathers dwelt
Thy Spirit and thy Word.

Doth not he still thy Church extend,
And waiting souls inspire?

Doth not the Spirit still descend
And bring the heavenly fire?

Come, Holy Ghost, in us arise;
Be this thy mighty hour;
And make thy willing people wise
To know thy day of power.

Pour down thy fire in us to glow,
Thy might in us to dwell;
Again thy works of wonder show,
Thy blessèd secrets tell!

Bear us aloft, more glad, more strong,
On thy celestial wing,
And grant us grace to look and long
For our returning King.

He draweth near, he standeth by,
He fills our eyes, our ears;
Come King of grace! thy people cry,
And bring the glorious years.

T. H. Gill 1860

The Author's title for this hymn is "The Glory of the Latter Days." The title is accompanied by the following quotation from Milton. "The power of thy grace is not passed away with the primitive times, as fond and faithless men imagine, but thy kingdom is now at hand and thou standest at the door."

PENTECOST 8. 8. 6.

B. Luard Selby

1 To thee, O Com- fort - er Di - vine, For all thy grace and pow'r be - nign, Sing we Al - le - lu - ia! A - men.

To thee, whose faithful love had place
In God's great covenant of grace,
Sing we Alleluia!

John xvi: 7-11

To thee, whose faithful power doth heal
Enlighten, sanctify, and seal,
Sing we Alleluia!

To thee, whose faithful voice doth win
The wandering from the ways of sin,
Sing we Alleluia!

To thee, whose faithful truth is shown
By every promise made our own,
Sing we Alleluia!

To thee, our Teacher and our Friend,
Our faithful Leader to the end,
Sing we Alleluia!

To thee, by Jesus Christ sent down,
Of all his gifts the sum and crown,
Sing we Alleluia!

8

To thee, who art with God the Son
And God the Father ever One,
Sing we Alleluia!

ST. SAVIOUR C. M.

F. G. Baker, 1840-1872

1 The glo - ry of the spring how sweet! The new-born life how glad! What joy the hap - py earth to greet, In new, bright rai-ment clad! A - men.

"Thou sendest forth thy Spirit, they are created; and Thou renewest the face of the earth."

Divine Renewer, thee I bless;
I greet thy going forth;
I love thee in the loveliness
Of thy renewed earth.

But O these wonders of thy grace,
These nobler works of thine,
These marvels sweeter far to trace,
These new births more divine,

This new-born glow of faith so strong,
This bloom of love so fair,
This new-born ecstasy of song
And fragrancy of prayer!

Creator Spirit, work in me
These wonders sweet of thine;
Divine Renewer, graciously
Renew this heart of mine.

MORECAMBE 10s. 41.

Frederick C. Atkinson, c. 1870

1 Spir - it of God, de - scend up - on my heart; Wean it from earth; through all its puls - es move; Stoop to my weak - ness, might - y as thou art,

And make me love thee as I ought to love. A - men.

I ask no dream, no prophet-ecstasies;
 No sudden rending of the veil of clay;
 No angel-visitant, no opening skies;
 But take the dimness of my soul away.

Hast thou not bid us love thee, God and King?
 All, all thine own, soul, heart, and strength, and mind;
 I see thy cross—there teach my heart to cling:
 O let me seek thee, and O let me find.

Teach me to feel that thou art always nigh;
 Teach me the struggles of the soul to bear,
 To check the rising doubt, the rebel sigh;
 Teach me the patience of unanswered prayer.

Teach me to love thee as thine angels love,
 One holy passion filling all my frame;
 The baptism of the heaven-descended Dove,
 My heart an altar, and thy love the flame.

BRAUN 6. 6. 4. 6. 6. 6. 4.

Johann G. Braun, 1675

1 Come, Ho - ly Ghost, in love Shed on us from a - bove

Thine own bright ray: Di - vine - ly good thou art; Thy sa - cred gifts im-part To glad-den each sad heart: O come to - day. A - men.

Come, tenderest Friend and best,
Our most delightful Guest,
With soothing power:
Rest, which the weary know;
Shade, 'mid the noontide glow;
Peace, when deep griefs o'erflow,—
Cheer us this hour.

Veni Sanctus Spiritus

Come, Light serene, and still
Our inmost bosoms fill;
Dwell in each breast:
We know no dawn but thine;
Send forth thy beams Divine
On our dark souls to shine,
And make us blest.

Exalt our low desires;
Extinguish passion's fires;
Heal every wound:
Our stubborn spirits henn,
Our icy coldness end,
Our devious steps attend,
While heavenward bound.

Come, all the faithful bless:
Let all who Christ confess
His praise employ;
Give virtue's rich reward;
Victorious death accord,
And, with our glorious Lord,
Eternal joy.

WOOLMER'S L. M.

Frederick A. G. Ouseley, 1825-1889

1 Come, O Cre - a - tor Spir - it, come, And make within our hearts thy home: To us thy grace ce - les - tial give, Who of thy breath-ing move and live. A-men.

Veni Creator Spiritus

O Comforter, that name is thine,
Of God most high the gift divine:
The well of life, the fire of love,
Our soul's anointing from above.

Thou dost appear in sevenfold dower
The gift of God's almighty power:
The Father's promise making rich
With saving truth our mortal speech.

Our senses with thy light inflame:
Our hearts to heavenly love reclaim:
Our bodies poor infirmity
With strength perpetual fortify.

Our earthly foes afar repel,
Give us henceforth in peace to dwell;
And so to us, with thee for guide,
No ill shall come, no harm betide.

May we by thee the Father learn,
And know the Son, and thee discern,
Who art of both; and so adore
In perfect faith for evermore.

1 Our blest Re-deem-er, ere he breathed His ten-der last fare-well, A

Acts ii: 2-4

He came in tongues of living flame,
 To teach, convince, subdue,
 All-powerful as the wind he came,
 As viewless, too.

He came sweet influence to impart,
 A gracious, willing Guest,
 While he can find one humble heart
 Wherein to rest.

And his that gentle voice we hear,
 Soft as the breath of even,
 That checks each thought, that calms each fear,
 And speaks of heaven.

And every virtue we possess,
 And every victory won,
 And every thought of holiness,
 Are his alone.

Spirit of purity and grace,
 Our weakness, pitying, see:
 O make our hearts thy dwelling-place,
 And worthier thee.

1 Come down, O Love di - vine, Seek thou this soul of mine, And vis - it it with

O let it freely burn,
Till earthly passions turn
To dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
And let thy glorious light
Shine ever on my sight,
And clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity
Mine outward vesture be,
And lowliness become mine inner clothing;
True lowliness of heart,
Which takes the humbler part,
And o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so, the yearning strong,
With which the soul will long,
Shall far outpass the power of human telling;
For none can guess its grace,
Till he become the place
Wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

1 Corinthians xii

Faith, that mountains could remove,
Tongues of earth or heaven above,
Knowledge, all things, empty prove,
Without heavenly love.

Love is kind, and suffers long;
Love is meek, and thinks no wrong;
Love than death itself more strong;
Therefore, give us love.

Prophecy will fade away,
Melting in the light of day;
Love will ever with us stay;
Therefore, give us love.

Faith will vanish into sight;
Hope be emptied in delight;
Love in heaven will shine more bright;
Therefore, give us love.

Faith and hope and love we see,
Joining hand in hand, agree;
But the greatest of the three,
And the best, is love.

From the overshadowing
Of thy gold and silver wing,
Shed on us who to thee sing
Holy, heavenly love.

We are sinful—cleanse us Lord;
Sick and faint, thy strength afford;
Lost, until by thee restored,
Comforter Divine.

3

Like the dew thy peace distil;
Guide, subdue our wayward will,
Things of Christ unfolding still,
Comforter Divine.

4

Gentle, awful, holy Guest
Make thy temple in each breast;
There thy presence be confessed,
Comforter Divine.

5

With us, for us, intercede,
And with voiceless groanings plead
Our unutterable need,
Comforter Divine.

6

In us, "Abba, Father," cry,
Earnest of the bliss on high,
Seal of immortality,
Comforter Divine.

7

Search for us the depths of God;
Upwards by the starry road,
Bear us to thy high abode,
Comforter Divine.

 Grant us thy illumination!
 Rest upon this congregation!

The Church from her dear Master
 Received the gift Divine,
 And still that light she lifteth
 O'er all the earth to shine.
 It is the golden casket,
 Where gems of truth are stored;
 It is the heaven-drawn picture
 Of Christ, the living Word.

It floateth like a banner
 Before God's host unfurled;
 It shineth like a beacon
 Above the darkling world.

It is the chart and compass
 That o'er life's surging sea,
 'Mid mists and rocks and quicksands,
 Still guides, O Christ, to thee.

O make thy Church, dear Saviour,
 A lamp of purest gold,
 To bear before the nations
 Thy true light, as of old.
 O teach thy wandering pilgrims
 By this their path to trace,
 Till, clouds and darkness ended,
 They see thee face to face.

1 Lamp of our feet, where-by we trace Our path when wont to stray; Stream from the fount of heav'n-ly grace, Brook by the traveller's way. A-men.

Bread of our souls, whereon we feed;
 True manna from on high;
 Our guide and chart, wherein we read
 Of realms beyond the sky;

Pillar of fire, through watches dark,
 Or radiant cloud by day;
 When waves would whelm our tossing bark,
 Our anchor and our stay;

Word of the ever-living God,
 Will of his glorious Son:—
 Without thee how could earth be trod,
 Or heaven itself be won?

Yet to unfold thy hidden worth,
 Thy mysteries to reveal,
 That Spirit which first gave thee forth
 Thy volume must unseal.

And we, if we aright would learn
 The wisdom it imparts,
 Must to its heavenly teaching turn
 With simple, childlike hearts.

John H. Cornell, 1872

1 Christ in his word draws near; Hush, moaning voice of fear, He bids thee cease; With songs sin - cere and sweet Let us a - rise, and meet

Him who comes forth to greet Our souls with peace. A-men.

Rising above thy care,
Meet him as in the air,
O weary heart:
Put on joy's sacred dress;
Lo, as he comes to bless,
Quite from thy weariness
Set free thou art.

For works of love and praise
He brings thee summer days,
Warm days and bright;
Winter is past and gone,
Now he, salvation's Sun,
Shineth on every one
With mercy's light.

From the bright sky above
Clad in his robes of love,
'Tis he, our Lord!
Dim earth itself grows clear,
As his light draweth near:
O let us hush and hear
His holy word.

One holy Church, one army strong,
 One steadfast high intent,
 One working band, one harvest-song,
 One King Omnipotent!

How purely hath thy speech come down
 From man's primeval youth;
 How grandly hath thine empire grown
 Of freedom, love, and truth!

How gleam thy watchfires through the night
 With never-fainting ray!
 How rise thy towers, serene and bright,
 To meet the dawning day!

In vain the surge's angry shock,
 In vain the drifting sands:
 Unharmed upon th' eternal Rock
 Th' eternal city stands.

ST. THOMAS S. M.

I love thy king - dom, Lord, The house of thine a - bode, The Church our blest Re - deem-er saved With his own pre-cious blood. A - men.

I love thy Church, O God:
Her walls before thee stand
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thy hand.

For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end.

Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

Jesus, thou Friend Divine,
Our Saviour and our King,
Thy hand from every snare and foe
Shall great deliverance bring.

6

"The Holy Catholic Church: the communion of saints"

Elect from every nation,
 Yet one o'er all the earth,
 Her charter of salvation
 One Lord, one faith, one birth;
 One holy Name she blesses,
 Partakes one holy food,
 And to one hope she presses,
 With every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder
 Men see her sore oppressed,
 By schisms rent asunder,
 By heresies distressed,
 Yet saints their watch are keeping,
 Their cry goes up, "How long?"
 And soon the night of weeping
 Shall be the morn of song.

'Mid toil and tribulation,
 And tumult of her war,
 She waits the consummation
 Of peace for evermore;
 Till with the vision glorious
 Her longing eyes are blest,
 And the great Church victorious
 Shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth hath union
 With God the Three in One,
 And mystic sweet communion
 With those whose rest is won:
 O happy ones and holy!
 Lord, give us grace that we,
 Like them the meek and lowly,
 On high may dwell with thee.

ST. ANNE C. M.

William Croft, 1708

1 O where are kings and em - pires now Of pray - ing yet, A thou - sand years the same. A - men.

We mark her goodly battlements
And her foundations strong;
We hear within the solemn voice
Of her unending song.

For not like kingdoms of the world
Thy holy Church, O God;
Though earthquake shocks are threatening her
And tempests are abroad,

Unshaken as eternal hills,
Immovable she stands;
A mountain that shall fill the earth,
A house not made by hands.

See, the streams of living waters,
 Springing from eternal love,
 Well supply thy sons and daughters,

 Grace, which, like the Lord, the Giver,
 Never fails from age to age.

Round each habitation hovering,
 See the cloud and fire appear,

 Light by night, and shade by day,
 Safe they feed upon the manna
 Which he gives them when thy pray.

Now upon thy heart it lies,
What our hearts so dearly treasure;
Heavenward lead our burdened sighs,
Pour thy blessing without measure;
Write the name we now have given,
Write it in the book of heaven.

Here would I feed upon the bread of God,
 Here drink with thee the royal wine of heaven;
 Here would I lay aside each earthly load,

This is the hour of banquet and of song;
 This is the heavenly table spread for me:
 Here let me feast, and feasting, still prolong
 The brief, bright hour of fellowship with thee.

Too soon we rise: the symbols disappear;
 The feast, though not the love is past and gone:
 The bread and wine remove, but thou art here,
 Nearer than ever, still my Shield and Sun.

Feast after feast thus comes, and passes by;
 Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above,
 Giving sweet foretaste of the festal joy,
 The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.

Matt. xv: 27

I am not worthy to be thought thy child,
Nor sit the last and lowest at thy board;
Too long a wanderer and too oft beguiled,
I only ask one reconciling word.

One word from thee, my Lord, one smile, one look,
And I could face the cold, rough world again;
And with that treasure in my heart could brook
The wrath of devils and the scorn of men.

And is not mercy thy prerogative—
Free mercy, boundless, fathomless, Divine?
Me, Lord, the chief of sinners, me forgive,
And thine the greater glory, only thine.

I hear thy voice; thou bid'st me come and rest;
I come, I kneel, I clasp thy piercèd feet;
Thou bid'st me take my place, a welcome guest
Among thy saints, and of thy banquet eat.

My praise can only breathe itself in prayer,
My prayer can only lose itself in thee;
Dwell thou for ever in my heart, and there,
Lord, let me sup with thee; sup thou with me.

The streams of his dread agony,
His life-blood shed for us, we see;
The wine shall tell the mystery
Until he come.

And thus that dark betrayal night
With the last advent we unite
By one blest chain of loving rite
Until he come:

Until the trump of God be heard,
Until the ancient graves be stirred,
And, with the great commanding word,
The Lord shall come.

When to the cross I turn mine eyes,
 And rest on Calvary,
 O Lamb of God, my Sacrifice,
 I must remember thee;

Remember thee, and all thy pains,
 And all thy love to me:
 Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
 Will I remember thee.

SONG 67 C. M.

Orlando Gibbons, 1583-1625

1 Praise to the Ho-liest in the height, And in the depth be praise; In all his words most won-der-ful, Most sure in all his ways. A-men.

O loving wisdom of our God!
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.

O wisest love! that flesh and blood,
Which did in Adam fail,
Should strive afresh against their foe,
Should strive and should prevail;

And that a higher gift than grace
Should flesh and blood refine,
God's presence, and his very Self
And essence all-Divine.

O generous love! that he, who smote
In Man for man the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo;

And in the garden secretly,
And on the cross on high,
Should teach his brethren, and inspire
To suffer and to die.

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise;
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.

TRENTHAM S. M.

Robert Jackson, 1842—

1 Thy love to me, O God, Not mine, O Lord, to thee, Can rid me of this dark un - rest, And set my spir - it free. A - men.

1 John iv: 10

Thy grace alone, O God,
 To me can pardon speak;
 Thy power alone, O Son of God,
 Can this sore bondage break.

I bless the Christ of God;
 I rest on love Divine;
 And, with unfaltering lip and heart,
 I call this Saviour mine.

His cross dispels each doubt;
 I bury in his tomb
 Each thought of unbelief and fear,
 Each lingering shade of gloom.

I praise the God of grace;
 I trust his truth and might;
 He calls me his, I call him mine,
 My God, my joy, my light.

'Tis he who saveth me,
 And freely pardon gives;
 I love because he loveth me,
 I live because he lives.

My life with him is hid,
 My death has passed away,
 My clouds have melted into light,
 My midnight into day.

ST. BRIDE S. M.

Samuel Howard, 1762

Not all the blood of beasts On Jew-ish al-tars slain, Could give the guilt-y conscience peace, Or wash a-way the stain: A-men.

*Christ our Sacrifice.—Hebrews ix: 11-14
Galatians iii: 13*

But Christ, the heavenly Lamb,
Takes all our sins away,
A sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.

My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of thine,
While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.

My soul looks back to see
The burdens thou didst bear,
When hanging on the cursèd tree,
And knows her guilt was there.

Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing his bleeding love.

MAN OF SORROWS 7. 7. 7. 8.

P. P. Bliss

1 "Man of Sor-rows," what a name For the Son of God, who came,

Ru-ined sin-ners to re-claim! Hal-le-lu-jah, what a Sav-iour! A - men.

Bearing shame and scoffing rude,
 In my place condemned he stood;
 Sealed my pardon with his blood;
 Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

Guilty, vile, and helpless, we;
 Spotless Lamb of God was he:
 "Full atonement!" can it be?
 Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

Lifted up was he to die,
 "It is finished," was his cry,
 Now in heaven exalted high:
 Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

When he comes, our glorious King,
 All his ransomed home to bring,
 Then anew this song we'll sing;
 Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

STUTTGART 8. 7. 41.

Psalmodia Sacra, Gotha, 1715

1 There's a wide-ness in God's mer - cy, Like the wide-ness of the sea;

There's a kindness in his jus-tice, Which is more than lib - er - ty. A - men. °

There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgment given.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.

There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Saviour,
There is healing in his blood.

If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would all be sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

BERA L. M.

J. E. Gould, 1849

1 Be - hold! a Strang - er's at the door; He gen - tly knocks, has knocked be - fore; Has wait - ed long, is wait - ing still: You treat no oth - er friend so ill. A - men.

Revelation iii: 20

But will he prove a friend indeed?
He will, the very Friend you need;
The Man of Nazareth, 'tis He,
With garments dyed at Calvary.

O lovely attitude! He stands
With melting heart and laden hands;
O matchless kindness! and he shows
This matchless kindness to his foes.

Rise, touched with gratitude Divine;
Turn out his enemy and thine,
That soul-destroying monster, sin,
And let the heavenly Stranger in.

Admit him ere his anger burn;
His feet, departed, ne'er return:
Admit him, or the hour's at hand
When at his door denied you'll stand.

Sovereign of souls! Thou Prince of Peace!
O may thy gentle reign increase!
Throw wide the door each willing mind
And be his empire all mankind!

SONG 13 7s. 4 l.

Orlando Gibbons, 1583-1625

r Hark, my soul, it is the Lord! 'Tis thy Sav-iour, hear his word;

Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee, "Say, poor sin-ner, lov'st thou me? A-men.

John xxi : 15-17

"I delivered thee when bound,
And, when bleeding, healed thy wound;
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.

"Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
Yet will I remember thee.

"Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above,
Deeper than the depths beneath,
Free and faithful, strong as death.

"Thou shalt see my glory soon,
When the work of grace is done;
Partner of my throne shalt be:
Say, poor sinner, lovest thou me?"

Lord, it is my chief complaint,
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love thee and adore;
O for grace to love thee more!

ST. EDITH 7. 6. 8. 1.

J. H. Knecht, 1799, and Edward Husband, 1871

r O Je - sus, thou art stand - ing Out - side the fast - closed door, In low - ly pa - tience wait - ing To pass the thresh - old o'er: Shame on us, Chris - tian broth - ers, His name and sign who bear, O shame, thrice shame up - on us, To keep him stand - ing there! A - men.

O Jesus, thou art knocking;
And lo, that hand is scarred,
And thorns thy brow encircle,
And tears thy face have marred:
O love that passeth knowledge,
So patiently to wait!
O sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

Revelation iii: 20

O Jesus, thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,
"I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat me so?"
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door;
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us nevermore.

COME UNTO ME 7. 6. 81.

J. B. Dykes, 1875

1 "Come un - to me, ye wea - ry, And I will give you rest." O bless - ed voice of Je - sus Which comes to hearts op - pressed! It tells of ben - e - dic - tion, Of par - don, grace and peace, Of joy that hath no end - ing, Of love which can - not cease. A - men.

"Come unto me, dear children,
And I will give you light."
O loving voice of Jesus
Which comes to cheer the night!
Our hearts were filled with sadness,
And we had lost our way;
But morning brings us gladness,
And songs the break of day.

"Come unto me ye fainting,
And I will give you life."
O peaceful voice of Jesus
Which comes to end our strife!

The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long;
But thou hast made us mighty,
And stronger than the strong.

"And whosoever cometh
I will not cast him out."
O patient love of Jesus
Which drives away our doubt;
Which calls us, very sinners,
Unworthy though we be
Of love so free and boundless,
To come, dear Lord, to thee.

ANTWERP I. M.

W. Smallwood, 1876

God call - ing yet! shall I not hear? Earth's pleas - ures shall I still hold dear? Shall life's swift pass - ing years all fly, And still my soul in slum - bers lie? A - men.

To-day if ye will hear his voice—Ps. xciv: 7-8

God calling yet! shall I not rise?
Can I his loving voice despise,
And basely his kind care repay?
He calls me still; can I delay?

God calling yet! and shall he knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare his Spirit grieve?

God calling yet! and shall I give
No heed, but still in bondage live?
I wait, but he does not forsake;
He calls me still; my heart, awake!

God calling yet! I cannot stay;
My heart I yield without delay;
Vain world, farewell, from thee I part;
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

1 "Take up thy cross," the Sav - iour said, "If thou wouldst my dis - ci - ple be; Take up thy cross with will - ing heart, And hum - bly fol - low aft - er me." A - men.

Matthew xvi : 24-25

Take up thy cross; let not its weight
 Fill thy weak soul with vain alarm;
 His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
 And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

Take up thy cross; nor heed the shame,
 And let thy foolish pride be still;
 Thy Lord refused not e'en to die
 Upon a cross, on Calvary's hill.

Take up thy cross, and follow Christ,
 Nor think till death to lay it down;
 For only he who bears the cross
 May hope to wear the glorious crown.

AYNARD 8. 8. 8. 8. 4. 6.

T. Booth: arr. L. B. L.

Contempt and pangs and haunting fears—Too late for hope, too late for ease, Too late for rising from the dead: Too late, too late to bend my knees, Or bow my head, Or weep, or ask for tears. Amen.

Hark! One I hear who calls to me;
 "Give me thy thorn, and grief, and scorn,
 Give me thy ruin and regret,
 Press on thro' darkness toward the morn:
 One loves thee yet:
 Have I forgotten thee?"

Lord, who art thou? Lord is it thou,
 My Lord and God, Lord Jesus Christ?
 How said I that I sat alone
 And desolate and unsufficed?
 Surely a stone
 Would raise thy praises now.

STEPHANOS 8. 5. 8. 3.

First Tune

H. W. Baker, 1868

r Art thou wea - ry, art thou lan - guid, Art thou sore dis - trest?

"Come to Me," saith One, "and, com - ing, Be at rest!" A - men.

Hath he marks to lead me to him,
If he be my Guide?
"In his feet and hands are wound-prints,
And his side."

Is there diadem as Monarch
That his brow adorns?
"Yea, a crown, in very surety,
But of thorns."

If I find him, if I follow,
What his guerdon here?
"Many a sorrow; many a labor,
Many a tear."

If I still hold closely to him,
What hath he at last?
"Sorrow vanquished, labor ended, Jordan past."

If I ask him to receive me,
Will he say me nay?
"Not till earth, and not till heaven Pass away."

Finding, following, keeping, struggling,
Is he sure to bless?
"Saints, apostles, prophets, martyrs, Answer, 'Yes.'"

GOWER'S LITANY 7. 7. 7. 6.

John H. Gower, 1891

1 Fa - ther, hear thy children's call; Hum-bly at thy feet we fall,

Prod - i - gals, con-fess-ing all: We beseech thee, hear us. A - men.

Copyright by John H. Gower

Christ, beneath thy cross we blame
All our life of sin and shame,
Penitent, we breathe thy name:
We beseech thee, hear us.

5

We thy call have disobeyed,
Into paths of sin have strayed,
And repentance have delayed:
We beseech thee, hear us.

3

Holy Spirit, grieved and tried,
Oft forgotten and defied,
Now we mourn our stubborn pride:
We beseech thee, hear us.

6

Sick, we come to thee for cure,
Guilty, seek thy mercy sure,
Evil, long to be made pure:
We beseech thee, hear us.

4

Love that caused us first to be,
Love that bled upon the tree,
Love that draws us lovingly:
We beseech thee, hear us.

Blind, we pray that we may see,
Bound, we pray to be made free,
Stained, we pray for sanctity:
We beseech thee, hear us.

8

Thou who hear'st each contrite sigh,
Bidding sinful souls draw nigh,
Willing not that one should die,
We beseech thee, hear us.

9

By the love that bids thee spare,
By the heaven thou dost prepare,
By thy promises to prayer,
We beseech thee, hear us.

Luke xxii: 41-44

I walk the earth with lightsome step,
Smile at the sunshine, breathe the air,
Do my own will, nor ever heed
Gethsemane and thy long prayer.

Shall it be always thus, O Lord?
Wilt thou not work this hour in me
The grace thy passion merited,
Hatred of self, and love of thee!

Ever when tempted, make me see,
Beneath the olives' moon-pierced shade,
My Lord, alone, outstretched, and bruised,
And bleeding, on the earth he made;

And make me feel it was my sin,
As though no other sins there were,
That was to him who bears the world
A load that he could scarcely bear.

CHISWICK C. M.

1 Approach, my soul, the mercy-seat Where Je - sus an - swers prayer; There hum-bly fall be - fore his feet, For none can per - ish there. A-men.

Thy promise is my only plea;
 With this I venture nigh:
 Thou callest burdened souls to thee,
 And such, O Lord, am I.

Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
 By Satan sorely pressed,
 By war without, and fears within,
 I come to thee for rest.

Be thou my Shield and Hiding-place,
 That, sheltered near thy side,
 I may my fierce accuser face,
 And tell him, Thou hast died.

O wondrous love! to bleed and die,
 To bear the cross and shame,
 That guilty sinners, such as I,
 Might plead thy gracious name.

ST. RAPHAEL 8. 7. 8. 7. 4. 7.

E. J. Hopkins, 1862

1 Je - sus, Lord of life and glo - ry, Bend from heav'n thy gra-cious ear;

While our wait - ing souls a - dore thee, Friend of help - less sin - ners, hear:

By thy mer - cy, O de - liv - er us, good Lord. A - men.

 From the depths of nature's blindness,
 From the hardening power of sin,
 From all malice and unkindness,
 From the pride that lurks within,
 By thy mercy,
 O deliver us, good Lord.

3
 When temptation sorely presses,
 In the day of Satan's power,
 In our times of deep distresses,
 In each dark and trying hour,
 By thy mercy,
 O deliver us, good Lord.

 When the world around is smiling,
 In the time of wealth and ease,
 Earthly joys our hearts beguiling,

In the day of health and peace,
 By thy mercy,
 O deliver us, good Lord.

 In the weary hours of sickness,
 In the times of grief and pain,
 When we feel our mortal weakness,
 When the creature's help is vain,
 By thy mercy,
 O deliver us, good Lord.

6
 In the solemn hour of dying,
 In the awful judgment day,
 May our souls on thee relying,
 Find thee still our Rock and Stay:
 By thy mercy,
 O deliver us, good Lord.

ST. PHILIP 7s. 31.

W. H. Monk, 1861

Lord, in this thy mer - cy's day, Ere it pass for aye a - way, On our knees we fall and pray. A - men.

Holy Jesus, grant us tears,
 Fill us with heart-searching fears,
 Ere that awful doom appears.

Lord, on us thy Spirit pour,
 Kneeling lowly at the door,
 Ere it close for evermore.

By thy night of agony,
 By thy supplicating cry,
 By thy willingness to die;

5

By thy tears of bitter woe
 For Jerusalem below,
 Let us not thy love forgo.

Grant us 'neath thy wings a place,
 Lest we lose this day of grace,
 Ere we shall behold thy face.

RAMOTH 7s. 8 l.

J. B. Calkin, 1867

1 Depth of mer - cy! can there be Mer - cy still re - served for me?

Can my God his wrath for - bear, Me, the chief of sin - ners spare?

I have long with - stood his grace, Long pro - voked him to his face;

Would not hear - en to his calls, Grieved him by a thou - sand falls. A - men.

Kindled his relentings are:
 Me he now delights to spare,
 Cries, how shall I give thee up?
 Lets the lifted thunder drop.
 Whence to me this wondrous love?
 Ask my Advocate above:
 See the cause in Jesus' face
 Now before the throne of grace.

There for me the Saviour stands
 Shows his wounds and spreads his hands!
 God is love: I know, I feel:
 Jesus weeps! but loves me still!
 Jesus! answer from above,
 Is not all thy nature love?
 Bow thine ear, in mercy bow,
 Pardon and accept me now.

ERSKINE 8. 8. 8. 6.

W. H. Gladstone, 1840-1891

1 For-sak-en once, and thrice denied, The ris-en Lord gave par-don free, Stood once a - gain at Pe - ter's side, And asked him, "Lov'st thou me?" A - men.

John xxi: 15-17

How many times with faithless word
 Have we denied his holy name,
 How oft forsaken our dear Lord,
 And shrunk when trial came!

But Peter, when the cock crew clear,
 Went out, and wept his broken faith;
 Strong as a rock through strife and fear,
 He served his Lord till death.

How oft his cowardice of heart
 We have without his love sincere,
 The sin without the sorrow's smart,
 The shame without the tear!

O oft forsaken, oft denied,
 Forgive our shame, wash out our sin;
 Look on us from thy Father's side
 And let that sweet look win.

Hear when we call thee from the deep,
 Still walk beside us on the shore,
 Give hands to work, and eyes to weep,
 And hearts to love thee more.

JUST AS I AM 8. 8. 8. 6.

First Tune

Joseph Barnby, 1893

1 Just as I am, with-out one plea But that thy blood was shed for me,

And that thou bidd'st me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come. A - men.

Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.

3

Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

4

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,

"Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."

Yea, all I need in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

5

Just as I am! thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

6

Just as I am! thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down;
Now, to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

trust - ing - ly Bend I the knee: Sin hath gone o - ver me,

Yet is this still my plea, Je - sus hath died. A - men.

Lord, I confess to thee
 Sadly my sin;
 All I am tell I thee,
 All I have been:
 Purge thou my sin away,
 Wash thou my soul this day;
 Lord, make me clean.

Faithful and just art thou,
 Forgiving all;
 Loving and kind art thou
 When poor ones call:
 Lord, let the cleansing blood,
 Blood of the Lamb of God,
 Pass o'er my soul.

Then all is peace and light
 This soul within,
 Thus shall I walk with thee,
 The loved Unseen;
 Leaning on thee, my God,
 Guided along the road,
 Nothing between.

Jesus, open me the gate
Which the sinner entered,
Who, in his last dying state,
Wholly on thee ventured;
Thou, whose wounds are ever pleading,
And thy passion interceding,
From my misery let me rise
To a home in Paradise.

Jesus, crowned with thorns for me,
Scourged for my transgression,
Witnessing, in agony
That thy good confession;

Jesus, clad in purple raiment,
For my evil making payment,
Let not all thy woe and pain,
Let not Calvary, be in vain.

When I reach death's bitter sea,
And its waves roll higher,
Help the more forsaking me,
As the storm draws nigher:

Hosea vi : 1-3

His voice commands the tempest forth,
And stills the stormy wave;
And, though his arm be strong to smite,
'Tis also strong to save.

Long hath the night of sorrow reigned;
The dawn shall bring us light:
God shall appear, and we shall rise
With gladness in his sight.

Our hearts, if God we seek to know,
Shall know him, and rejoice;
His coming like the morn shall be,
Like morning songs his voice.

As dew upon the tender herb,
Diffusing fragrance round,
As showers that usher in the spring,
And cheer the thirsty ground;

So shall his presence bless our souls,
And shed a joyful light;
That hallowed morn shall chase away
The sorrows of the night.

On whom my hopes of heaven depend!
No; when I blush, be this my shame,
That I no more revere his Name.

Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may
When I've no guilt to wash away,
No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save.

Till then I boast a Saviour slain;
And O may this my glory be,
That Christ is not ashamed of me.

Let the wa - ter and the blood, From thy riv - en side which flowed,

Be of sin the doub - le cure, Cleanse me from its guilt and power. A - men.

Nothing in my hand I bring,
 Simply to thy cross I cling;
 Naked, come to thee for dress,
 Helpless, look to thee for grace;
 Foul, I to the fountain fly;
 Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

While I draw this fleeting breath,
 When my eyelids close in death,
 When I soar to worlds unknown,
 See thee on thy judgment throne,
 Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
 Let me hide myself in thee.

Naked, come to thee for dress,
Helpless, look to thee for grace;
Foul, I to the fountain fly;
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyelids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See thee on thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee.

German Melody, c. 1738

1 We know thee who thou art, Lord Je - sus, Ma - ry's Son: We know the yearn-ings of thy heart To end thy work be - gun. A-men.

That sacred fount of grace,
 'Mid all the bliss of heaven,
 Has joy whene'er we seek thy face,
 And kneel to be forgiven.

Brought home from ways perverse,
 At peace thine arms within,
 We pray thee, shield us from the curse
 Of falling back to sin.

We dare not ask to live
 Henceforth from trials free;
 But O when next they tempt us, give
 More strength to cling to thee.

We know thee who thou art,
 Our own redeeming Lord;
 Be thou by will, and mind, and heart,
 Accepted, loved, adored.

Melody from Ravenscroft's Psalter, 1621

r My God, ac - cept my heart this day, And make it al - ways thine, That I from thee no more may stray, No more from thee de - cline. A - men.

Before the cross of him who died,
Behold, I prostrate fall;
Let every sin be crucified,
And Christ be all in all.

Anoint me with thy heavenly grace
And seal me for thine own;
That I may see thy glorious face,
And worship near thy throne.

Let every thought, and work, and word,
To thee be ever given;
Then life shall be thy service, Lord,
And death the gate of heaven!

Mark ix: 24

Lord, I believe; but gloomy fears
 Sometimes bedim my sight;
 I look to thee with prayers and tears,
 And cry for strength and light.

Lord, I believe; but thou dost know
 My faith is cold and weak;
 Pity my frailty, and bestow
 The confidence I seek.

Yes, I believe; and only thou
 Canst give my soul relief:
 Lord, to thy truth my spirit bow;
 Help thou mine unbelief.

VOX DILECTI C. M. D.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Behold, I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down and drink, and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's Light;
Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright."
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In him my Star, my Sun;
And in that light of life I'll walk,
Till travelling days are done.

Thou didst reach forth thy hand and mine enfold;
 I walked and sank not on the storm-vexed sea,—
 'Twas not so much that I on thee took hold,
 As thou, dear Lord, on me.

I find, I walk, I love, but, O the whole
 Of love is but my answer, Lord, to thee;
 For thou wert long beforehand with my soul,
 Always thou lovedst me.

1 Thou didst leave thy throne And thy king - ly crown When thou found no room For thy ho - ly na - tiv - i - ty: O come to my heart, Lord Je - sus, There is room in my heart for thee. A - men.

The ties and slurs are to be used as the syllables require

Heaven's arches rang
When the angels sang,
Proclaiming thy royal degree;
But of lowly birth
Didst thou come to earth,
And in great humility:
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for thee.

The foxes found rest,
And the birds their nest,
In the shade of the forest tree;
But thy couch was the sod,
O thou Son of God,
In the deserts of Galilee:
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for thee.

4

Thou camest, O Lord,
With the living word
That should set thy people free;
But with mocking scorn,
And with crown of thorn,
They bore thee to Calvary:
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
Thy cross is my only plea.

When heaven's arches shall ring,
And her choirs shall sing,
At thy coming to victory,
Let thy voice call me home,
Saying, "Yet there is room,
There is room at my side for thee."
And my heart, shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
When thou comest and callest for me.

BEHOLD THE LAMB 4. 6. 6. 4. 8. 8. 4.

Rev. v: 6-14

'Behold the Lamb!'
Into the sacred flood
Of thy most precious blood
My soul I cast;
Wash me and make me pure and clean,
Uphold me through life's changeful scene
Till all be past.

3

'Behold the Lamb!'
All hail! Eternal Word!
Thou universal Lord,
Purge out our leaven:
Clothe us with godliness and good,
Feed us with thy celestial food,
Manna from heaven!

4

'Behold the Lamb!'
Archangels,—fold your wings,—
Seraphs hush all the strings
Of million lyres:
The Victim veiled on earth in love—
Unveiled, enthroned, adored above
All heaven admires!

5

'Behold the Lamb!'
Worthy is he alone
Upon the iris throne
Of God above.
One with the Ancient of all Days
One with the Paraclete in praise,
All light, all love.

ELLESDIE 8. 7. 81.

Arr. from Mozart by H. P. Main

1 Je - sus, I my cross have tak-en, All to leave and fol - low thee;

Des - ti - tute, de - spised, for - sak-en, Thou, from hence, my all shalt be:

Per - ish ev - ery fond am - bi - tion, All I've sought, or hoped, or known:

Yet how rich is my con-di-tion, God and heaven are still my own. A-men.

Matt. xvi : 24

Man may trouble and distress me,
 'Twill but drive me to thy breast;
 Life with trials hard may press me,
 Heaven will bring me sweeter rest:
 O 'tis not in grief to harm me
 While thy love is left to me,
 O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
 Were that joy unmixed with thee.

Take, my soul, thy full salvation,
 Rise o'er sin and fear and care;
 Joy to find in every station
 Something still to do or bear;

Think what Spirit dwells within thee,
 What a Father's smile is thine,
 What a Saviour died to win thee:
 Child of heaven, shouldst thou repine?

Haste, then, on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith, and winged by prayer;
 Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
 God's own hand shall guide thee there.
 Soon shall close thy earthly mission;
 Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days;
 Hope soon change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

Trust in the Lord

BENTLEY 7. 6. 81.

John Hullah, 1867

1 Some-times a light sur - pris - es The Chris-tian while he sings; It is the Lord, who ris - es With heal - ing in his wings: When com-forts are de - clin - ing, He grants the soul a - gain A sea - son of clear shin - ing, To cheer it af - ter rain. A - men.

In holy contemplation
 We sweetly then pursue
 The theme of God's salvation,
 And find it ever new;
 Set free from present sorrow
 We cheerfully can say,
 Let the unknown to-morrow
 Bring with it what it may.

It can bring with it nothing
 But he will bear us through;
 Who gives the lilies clothing
 Will clothe his people too:

Beneath the spreading heavens
 No creature not is fed;
 And he who feeds the ravens
 Will give his children bread.

Though vine nor fig-tree neither
 Their wonted fruit shall bear,
 Though all the field should wither,
 Nor flocks nor herds be there;
 Yet God the same abiding,
 His praise shall tune my voice,
 For, while in him confiding,
 I cannot but rejoice.

PORTUGUESE HYMN 11s. 4 l.

Unknown : probably 18th Century

1 How firm a foun-da-tion, ye saints of the Lord, Is laid for your faith in his excellent word ! What more can he say than to you he hath said, To you who for ref-uge to Je-sus have fled? To you who for ref-uge to Je-sus have fled? Amen.

This tune may be found with simpler harmony at No. 84

"Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed;
I, I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

"When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of woe shall not thee overflow;
For I will be with thee thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

"When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply,
The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.

"The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to his foes;
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no, never, no, never forsake."

ST. FLAVIAN C. M.

Daye's Psalter, 1562

I O thou in all thy might so far, In all thy love so near, Be - yond the range of sun and star, And yet be - side us here: A - men.

What heart can comprehend thy name,
Or searching find thee out,
Who art within, a quickening flame,
A presence round about?

Yet though I know thee but in part,
I ask not, Lord, for more;
Enough for me to know thou art,
To love thee, and adore.

And dearer than all things I know
Is childlike faith to me,
That makes the darkest way I go
An open path to thee.

NEWICK 10. 4. 10. 4.

C. Powell

The first system of music consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are: "I do not ask, O Lord, that life may be A pleas-ant road; I". The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the melody.

The second system of music continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "do not ask that thou wouldst take from me Aught of its load. A-men." The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord.

I do not ask that flowers should always spring
 Beneath my feet;
 I know too well the poison and the sting
 Of things too sweet.

3

For one thing only, Lord, dear Lord, I plead:
 Lead me aright,
 Though strength should falter and though heart should bleed,
 Through peace to light.

I do not ask, O Lord, that thou shouldst shed
 Full radiance here;
 Give but a ray of peace, that I may tread
 Without a fear.

I do not ask my cross to understand,
 My way to see;
 Better in darkness just to feel thy hand,
 And follow thee.

Joy is like restless day; but peace divine
 Like quiet night:
 Lead me, O Lord, till perfect day shall shine,
 Through peace to light.

1 'Twixt gleams of joy and clouds of doubt Our feel - ings come and go; Our mood of feel - ing, form of thought, Is con-stant for a day; But thou, O Lord, thou changest not: The same thou art al - way. A-men.

I grasp thy strength, make it mine own,
My heart with peace is blest;
I lose my hold, and then comes down
Darkness, and cold unrest.
Let me no more my comfort draw
From my frail hold of thee,
In this alone rejoice with awe—
Thy mighty grasp of me.

Out of that weak, unquiet drift
That comes but to depart,
To that pure heaven my spirit lift
Where thou unchanging art.

Lay hold of me with thy strong grasp,
Let thy almighty arm
In its embrace my weakness clasp,
And I shall fear no harm.

Thy purpose of eternal good
Let me but surely know;
On this I'll lean—let changing mood
And feeling come or go—
Glad when thy sunshine fills my soul,
Not lorn when clouds o'er-cast,
Since thou within thy sure control
Of love dost hold me fast.

2

Psalm xlv

Let mountains from their seats be hurled
Down to the deep, and buried there,
Convulsions shake the solid world,
Our faith shall never yield to fear.

Loud may the troubled ocean roar;
In sacred peace our souls abide,
While every nation, every shore,
Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.

There is a stream whose gentle flow
Supplies the city of our God;
Life, love, and joy, still gliding through,
And watering our divine abode.

That sacred stream, thy holy word,
Our grief allays, our fear controls;
Sweet peace thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls.

Zion enjoys her monarch's love,
Secure against a threatening hour;
Nor can her firm foundations move,
Built on his truth, and armed with power.

ST. PAUL C. M.

Genesis xxviii: 16-22

Our vows, our prayers, we now present
 Before thy throne of grace;
 God of our fathers, be the God
 Of their succeeding race.

3

Through each perplexing path of life
 Our wandering footsteps guide;
 Give us each day our daily bread,
 And raiment fit provide.

O spread thy covering wings around
 Till all our wanderings cease,
 And at our Father's loved abode
 Our souls arrive in peace.

Such blessings from thy gracious hand
 Our humble prayers implore;
 And thou shalt be our chosen God,
 And portion evermore.

SONG 67 C. M.

Orlando Gibbons, 1583-1625

1 God moves in a mys - te - rious way His won - ders to per - form; He plants his foot-steps in the sea, And rides up - on the storm. A - men.

Light shining out of darkness

Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.

Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own Interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

MOCCAS S. M.

A. R. Reinagle, 1799-1877

I Com - mit thou all thy griefs And ways in - to his hands, To his sure truth and ten - der care, Who earth and heav'n commands. A-men.

Part I Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in him and he shall bring it to pass.—Psalm xxxvii : 5

Who points the clouds their course,
Whom winds and seas obey,
He shall direct thy wandering feet,
He shall prepare thy way.

3

Thou on the Lord rely;
So safe shalt thou go on;
Fix on his work thy steadfast eye,
So shall thy work be done.

No profit canst thou gain
By self-consuming care;
To him commend thy cause, his ear
Attends the softest prayer.

5

Thy everlasting truth,
Father, thy ceaseless love
Sees all thy children's wants, and knows
What best for each will prove.

Thou everywhere hast sway,
And all things serve thy might;
Thy every act pure blessing is,
Thy path unsullied light.

F. NEWLAND S. M.

H. J. Gauntlett, 1837

1 Give to the winds thy fears; Hope, and be un - dis - mayed; God hears thy sighs, and counts thy tears; God shall lift up thy head. A - men.

Part II

Through waves and clouds and storms
 He gently clears thy way;
 Wait thou his time, so shall this night
 Soon end in joyous day.

Still heavy is thy heart?
 Still sink thy spirits down?
 Cast off the weight, let fear depart,
 And every care be gone.

What though thou rulest not?
 Yet heaven, and earth, and hell
 Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne
 And ruleth all things well.

Far, far above thy thought
 His counsel shall appear,
 When fully he the work hath wrought
 That caused thy needless fear.

Leave to his sovereign sway
 To choose and to command;
 So shalt thou wondering own, his way
 How wise, how strong his hand.

SARRATT L. M.

G. C. E. Ryley 1904

1 We sing the praise of him who died, Of him who died up - on the cross; The sin - ner's hope let men de - ride, For this we count the world but loss. A - men.

Inscribed upon the cross we see
 In shining letters, "God is Love;"
 He bears our sins upon the tree;
 He brings us mercy from above.

The Cross! it takes our guilt away;
 It holds the fainting spirit up;
 It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
 And sweetens every bitter cup.

It makes the coward spirit brave,
 And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
 It takes its terror from the grave,
 And gilds the bed of death with light;

The balm of life, the cure of woe,
 The measure and the pledge of love,
 The sinners' refuge here below,
 The angels' theme in heaven above.

RATHBUN 8. 7. 41.

Ithamar Conkey, 1851

1 In the cross of Christ I glo - ry, Tow - 'ring o'er the wrecks 'of time; All the light of sa - cred sto - ry Gath - ers round its head sub - lime. A - men.

When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me:
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds more lustre to the day.

Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

5

In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

PAX TECUM 10s. 21.

First Tune

G. T. Caldbeck, 1877

1 Peace, per - fect peace, in this dark world of sin? The blood of Je - sus whis - pers peace with - in. A - men.

Peace, perfect peace, by thronging duties pressed?
To do the will of Jesus, this is rest.

Isaiah xxvi: 5

Peace, perfect peace, with sorrows surging round?
On Jesus' bosom naught but calm is found.

Peace, perfect peace, with loved ones far away?
In Jesus' keeping we are safe, and they.

Peace, perfect peace, our future all unknown?
Jesus we know, and he is on the throne.

Peace, perfect peace, death shadowing us and ours?
Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.

It is enough: earth's struggles soon shall cease,
And Jesus call us to heaven's perfect peace.

Psalm lv : 22

He sustains thee by his hand,
 He enables thee to stand;
 Those whom Jesus once hath loved
 From his grace are never moved.

Human counsels come to naught;
 That shall stand which God hath wrought;
 His compassion, love, and power
 Are the same for evermore.

4

Heaven and earth may pass away,
 God's free grace shall not decay;
 He hath promised to fulfil
 All the pleasure of his will.

5

Jesus, Guardian of thy flock,
 Be thyself our constant Rock;
 Make us, by thy powerful hand,
 Strong as Zion's mountain stand.

OLIVET 6. 6. 4. 6. 6. 6. 4.

Lowell Mason, 1832

My faith looks up to thee, Thou Lamb of Cal - va - ry,

Sav - iour Di - vine: Now hear me while I pray, Take all my guilt a - way, O let me from this day Be whol - ly thine. A - men.

May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.

While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Saviour, then, in love,
Fear and distrust remove;
O bear me safe above,
A ransomed soul.

Psalm cxxi

Thy foot he'll not let slide, nor will
 He slumber that thee keeps.
 Behold, he that keeps Israel,
 He slumbers not, nor sleeps.

3

The Lord thee keeps, the Lord thy shade
 On thy right hand doth stay:
 The moon by night thee shall not smite,
 Nor yet the sun by day.

4

The Lord shall keep thy soul; he shall Preserve thee from all ill.
 Henceforth thy going out and in God keep forever will.

1 Your harps, ye trem- bling saints, Down from the wil- lows take; Loud to the praise of love di- vine Bid ev - 'ry string a - wake. A-men.

Though in a foreign land,
 We are not far from home;
 And nearer to our house above
 We every moment come.

His grace will to the end
 Stronger and brighter shine;
 Nor present things, nor things to come,
 Shall quench the spark divine.

When we in darkness walk,
 Nor feel the heavenly flame,
 Then is the time to trust our God,
 And rest upon his Name.

Soon shall our doubts and fears
 Subside at his control;
 His loving-kindness shall break through
 The midnight of the soul.

Blest is the man, O God,
 That stays himself on thee:
 Who wait for thy salvation, Lord,
 Shall thy salvation see.

MAGDALEN COLLEGE 8. 8. 6. 61.

William Hayes, 1706-1777

O Lord, how hap - py should we be If we could cast our care on thee, If we from self could rest; And feel at heart that One a - bove, In per - fect wis - dom, per - fect love, Is work - ing for the best. A - men.

Could we but kneel, and cast our load,
E'en while we pray, upon our God,
Then rise with lightened cheer;
Sure that the Father, who is nigh
To still the famished raven's cry,
Will hear in that we fear.

We cannot trust him as we should;
So chafes weak nature's restless mood
To cast its peace away;
But birds and flowerets round us preach,
All, all the present evil teach
Sufficient for the day.

Lord, make these faithless hearts of ours
Such lessons learn from birds and flowers;
Make them from self to cease,
Leave all things to a Father's will,
And taste, before him lying still,
E'en in affliction, peace.

1 When I sur - vey life's var - ied scene, A - mid the dark - est hours,

Sweet rays of com - fort shine between, And thorns are mixed with flowers. A - men.

Lord teach me to adore thy hand,
 From whence my comforts flow,
 And let me in this desert land
 A glimpse of Canaan know.

And O whate'er of earthly bliss
 Thy sovereign will denies,
 Accepted at Thy throne of grace,
 Let this petition rise:

4

Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
 From every murmur free;
 The blessings of thy grace impart,
 And make me live to thee.

Let the sweet hope that thou art mine
 My path of life attend;
 Thy presence through my journey shine,
 And crown its happy end!

MARY MAGDALENE 6. 5. 81.

J. B. Dykes, 1862

Luke xxii : 51-52

Then, upon thine altar
 Freely offered up,
 Though the flesh may falter,
 Faith shall drink the cup.

When in dust and ashes
 To the grave I sink,
 While heaven's glory flashes
 O'er the shelving brink,
 On thy truth relying
 Through that mortal strife,
 Lord, receive me, dying,
 To eternal life.

 That mercy I adore.

In each event of life, how clear
 Thy ruling hand I see;
 Each blessing to my soul more dear
 Because conferred by thee.

In every joy that crowns my days,
 In every pain I bear,
 My heart shall find delight in praise,
 Or seek relief in prayer.

When gladness wings my favored hour,
 Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
 Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
 My soul shall meet thy will.

My lifted eye, without a tear,
 The lowering storm shall see;
 My steadfast heart shall know no fear;
 That heart will rest on thee.

DALEHURST C. M.

Arthur Cottman, 1872

1 Calm me, my God, and keep me calm, Soft rest-ing on thy breast; Soothe me with ho - ly hymn and psalm, And bid my spir - it rest. A - men.

Calm me, my God, and keep me calm;
 Let thine outstretchèd wing
 Be like the shade of Elim's palm,
 Beside her desert spring.

Yes, keep me calm, though loud and rude
 The sounds my ear that greet;
 Calm in the closet's solitude,
 Calm in the bustling street;

4

Calm in the hour of buoyant health,
 Calm in my hour of pain;
 Calm in my poverty or wealth,
 Calm in my loss or gain.

5

Calm as the ray of sun or star
 Which storms assail in vain,
 Moving unruffled through earth's war,
 Th' eternal calm to gain.

GREEN HILL C. M.

A. L. Peace, 1885

Psalm xci

The least and feeblest there may bide,
Uninjured and unawed;
While thousands fall on every side,
He rests secure in God.

He feeds in pastures large and fair,
Of love and truth divine:
O child of God, O glory's heir,
How rich a lot is thine!

4

A hand almighty to defend,
An ear for every call,
And honored life, a peaceful end,
And heaven to crown it all!

1 O thou, whose bounty fills my cup With ev-'ry blessing meet! I give thee thanks for ev-'ry drop, The bit-ter and the sweet. A-men.

I praise thee for the desert road,
And for the river-side;
For all thy goodness hath bestowed,
And all thy grace denied.

I thank thee for each smile and frown,
And for the gain and loss;
I praise thee for the future crown,
And for the present cross.

I thank thee for the wing of love,
Which stirred my worldly nest;
And for the stormy clouds which drove
The flutterer to thy breast.

I bless thee for the glad increase,
And for the waning joy;
And for this strange, this settled peace,
Which nothing can destroy.

WENTWORTH 8. 4. 6L.

F. C. Maker, 1876

1 My God, I thank thee, who hast made The earth so bright, So full of splen - dor and of joy, Beau - ty and light; So ma - ny glo - rious things are here, No - ble and right. A - men.

I thank thee, too, that thou hast made
Joy to abound;
So many gentle thoughts and deeds
Circling us round;
That in the darkest spot of earth
Some love is found.

I thank thee more that all our joy
Is touched with pain,
That shadows fall on brightest hours,
That thorns remain;
So that earth's bliss may be our guide,
And not our chain.

I thank thee, Lord, that thou hast kept
The best in store;
We have enough, yet not too much
To long for more:
A yearning for a deeper peace
Not known before.

I thank thee, Lord, that here our souls,
Though amply blest,
Can never find, although they seek,
A perfect rest;
Nor ever shall, until they lean
On Jesus' breast.

HOLLINGSIDE 7s. 8l.

First Tune

J. B. Dykes, 1861

1 Je - sus, lov - er of my soul, Let me to thy bos - om fly,

While the near - er wa - ters roll, While the tem - pest still is high :

Hide me, O my Sav - iour hide, Till the storm of life be past;

Safe in - to the ha - ven guide, O re - ceive my soul at last. A - men.

Other refuge have I none;
 Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
 Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
 Still support and comfort me.
 All my trust on thee is stayed,
 All my help from thee I bring;
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of thy wing.

3

Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
 More than all in thee I find:
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

Just and holy is thy name;
 I am all unrighteousness;
 False and full of sin I am,
 Thou art full of truth and grace.

Plenteous grace with thee is found,
 Grace to cover all my sin;
 Let the healing streams abound;
 Make and keep me pure within.
 Thou of life the fountain art,
 Freely let me take of thee;
 Spring thou up within my heart,
 Rise to all eternity.

'Twi'x me and the peaceful rest,
Then, while leaning on thy breast,
May I hear thee say to me,
"Fear not, I will pilot thee."

First Tune

1 Lead, kind-ly Light, a-mid th'en-cir-cling gloom, Lead thou me on: Keep thou my feet; I do not ask to see

The dis-tant scene,—one step e-nough for me. A-men.

Lead thou me on;
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

So long thy power hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

care too slight To wake thy sym - pa - thy. A - men.

Thou who hast trod the thorny road
 Wilt share each small distress,
 The love which bore the greater load
 Will not refuse the less.

There is no secret sigh we breathe
 But meets thine ear divine;
 And every cross grows light beneath
 The shadow, Lord, of thine.

Life's ills without, sin's strife within,
 The heart would over flow,
 But for that love which died for sin,
 That love which wept with woe.

 And trembling faith is changed to fear,
 The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
 Shall softly tell us; Thou art near.

 O Love divine, for ever dear;
 Content to suffer while we know,
 Living and dying, Thou art near.

CAERSALEM 8. 7. 61.

Welsh Hymn Melody

1 Guide me, O thou great Je - ho - vah, Pil-grim thro' this bar - ren land;

I am weak, but thou art might-y, Hold me with thy pow'r - ful hand:

Bread of heav-en, Bread of heav-en, Feed me till I want no more. A-men.

Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

3

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of deaths and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

NEUMARK 9. 8. 9. 8. 8. 8.

Georg Neumark, 1657

I If thou but suf-fer God to guide thee, And hope in him thro' all thy ways, He'll give thee strength, whate'er be-tide thee, And bear thee through the e-vil days: Who trust's in God's un-chang-ing love Builds on the rock that naught can move. A-men.

What can these anxious cares avail thee,
 These never-ceasing moans and sighs?
 What can it help, if thou bewail thee
 O'er each dark moment as it flies?
 Our cross and trials do but press
 The heavier for our bitterness.

Only be still, and wait his leisure
 In cheerful hope, with heart content
 To take whate'er thy Father's pleasure
 And all-discerning love hath sent;
 Nor doubt our inmost wants are known
 To him who chose us for his own.

All are alike before the Highest;
 'Tis easy to our God, we know,
 To raise thee up though low thou liest,
 To make the rich man poor and low;
 True wonders still by him are wrought
 Who setteth up and brings to naught.

Sing, pray, and keep his ways unswerving,
 So do thine own part faithfully,
 And trust his word,—though undeserving,
 Thou yet shalt find it true for thee;
 God never yet forsook at need
 The soul that trusted him indeed.

WHITTIER 8. 6. 8. 8. 6.

F. C. Maker, 1876

1 Dear Lord and Fa-ther of man-kind, For-give our fev-'rish ways! Re - clothe us in our right - ful mind; In pur - er lives thy serv - ice find, In deep - er rev - 'rence, praise. A - men.

In simple trust like theirs who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word
Rise up and follow thee.

Where Jesus knelt to share with thee
The silence of eternity,
Interpreted by love!

With that deep hush subduing all
Our words and works that drown
The tender whisper of thy call,
As noiseless let thy blessing fall
As fell thy manna down.

O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
O calm of hills above,

5

Drop thy still dews of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease:
Take from our souls the strain and stress;
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of thy peace.

Breathe through the pulses of desire
Thy coolness and thy balm;
Let sense be dumb, its heats expire:
Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still small voice of calm!

DENNIS S. M.

While Providence supports,
 Let saints securely dwell;

Why should this anxious load
 Press down your weary mind?
 Hasten to your heavenly Father's throne,
 And sweet refreshment find.

His goodness stands approved,
 Down to the present day;
 I'll drop my burden at his feet,
 And bear a song away.

HEREFORD C. M. D.

H. J. Gauntlett, 1805-1876

I bow my fore-head to the dust, I veil mine eyes for shame, And urge, in trembling self - dis - trust, A prayer with-out a claim. No off - 'ring of mine own I have, Nor works my faith to prove; I can but give the gifts he gave, And plead his love for love. A-men.

I dimly guess, from blessings known,
Of greater out of sight;
And, with the chastened Psalmist, own
His judgments too are right.
And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed he will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise,
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And so beside the silent sea
I wait the muffled oar:
No harm from him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where his islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond his love and care.
And thou, O Lord, by whom are seen
Thy creatures as they be,
Forgive me if too close I lean
My human heart on thee.

REFUGE 10s. 41.

S. S. Wesley, 1810-1876

Lead us, O Fa-ther, in the paths of peace, With-out thy guid-ing hand we go a-stray, And doubts ap-pal, and sor-rows still in-crease:

Lead us through Christ, the true and liv-ing Way. A-men.

Lead us, O Father, in the paths of truth;
 Unhelped by thee, in error's maze we grope,
 While passion stains and folly dims our youth,
 And age comes on uncheered by faith and hope.

Lead us, O Father, in the paths of right;
 Blindly we stumble when we walk alone,
 Involved in shadows of a moral night;
 Only with thee we journey safely on.

Lead us, O Father, to thy heavenly rest,
 However rough and steep the path may be;
 Through joy or sorrow, as thou deemest best,
 Until our lives are perfected in thee.

SAVANNAH (or Herrnhut)

7s. 41.

J. Wesley's Foundery Collection, 1742

1 Come, my soul, thy suit pre-pare: Je-sus loves to an-swer pray'r;

He him-self has bid thee pray, Therefore will not say thee nay. A-men.

Thou art coming to a King,
Large petitions with thee bring;
For his grace and power are such,
None can ever ask too much.

3

With my burden I begin:
Lord, remove this load of sin;
Let thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.

Lord, I come to thee for rest,
Take possession of my breast;
There thy blood-bought right maintain,
And without a rival reign.

While I am a pilgrim here,
Let thy love my spirit cheer;
As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
Lead me to my journey's end.

COMMENDATIO 11. 10. 41.

J. B. Dykes, 1874

1 Fa-ther! in thy mys - ter - ious pres-ence kneel - ing, Fain would our souls feel all thy kind-ling love; For we are weak, and need some deep re - veal - ing Of trust, and strength, and calmness from a - bove. A - men.

Lord! we have wandered forth through doubt and sorrow,
 And thou hast made each step an onward one;
 And we will ever trust each unknown morrow;
 Thou wilt sustain us till its work is done.

In the heart's depths, a peace serene and holy Abides; and, when pain seems to have her will,
 Or we despair, oh! may that peace rise slowly,
 Stronger than agony, and we be still.

4

Now, Father! now in thy dear presence kneeling,
 Our spirits yearn to feel thy kindling love;
 Now make us strong; we need thy deep revealing
 Of trust, and strength, and calmness from above.

1 Prayer is the soul's sin-cere de - sire, Ut - tered or un - ex - pressed, The mo - tion of a hid - den fire That trembles in the breast. A - men.

Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye
When none but God is near.

Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice
Returning from his ways,
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, "Behold, he prays."

5

Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gates of death;
He enters heaven with prayer.

O thou, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer thyself hast trod;
Lord, teach us how to pray.

The Mercy-Seat.—Exodus xxv; 22

There is a place where Jesus sheds
 The oil of gladness on our heads,
 A place than all besides more sweet;
 It is the blood-stained mercy-seat.

There is a spot where spirits blend,
 Where friend holds fellowship with friend,
 Though sundered far; by faith they meet
 Around the common mercy-seat.

Ah, whither could we flee for aid,
 When tempted, desolate, dismayed,
 Or how the hosts of hell defeat,
 Had suffering saints no mercy-seat?

There, there on eagle wings we soar,
 And time and sense seem all no more,
 And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
 And glory crowns the mercy seat.

INTERCESSION NEW 7. 5. 81. With Refrain

W. H. Callcott, 1867:
Last 21. fr. Mendelssohn, 1846

1 When the weary, seeking rest, To thy goodness flee; When the heavy-la-den cast

All their load on thee; When the troubled, seeking peace, On thy name shall call;

When the sin-ner, seek-ing life, At thy feet shall fall: Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry In heav'n, thy dwelling - place on high. A-men.

When the worldling, sick at heart,
Lifts his soul above;
When the prodigal looks back
To his father's love;
When the proud man, from his pride,
Stoops to seek thy face;
When the burdened brings his guilt
To thy throne of grace:
*Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, thy dwelling-place on high.*

TROYTE, No. 1 (Chant) 8. 8. 8. 4.

A. H. D. Troyte, 1811-1857

1 My God and Father, while I stray Far from my home, on life's rough way,

O teach me from my heart to say, "Thy will be done!" A-men.

Though dark my path, and | sad my lot, |
Let me be still and | murmur not, |
Or breathe the prayer di- | vinely taught, |
"Thy | will be done!" |

Renew my will from | day to day, |
Blend it with thine, and | take away |
All that now makes it | hard to say, |
"Thy | will be done!" |

Let but my fainting | heart be blest |
With thy good Spirit | for its guest, |
My God, to thee I | leave the rest,— |
"Thy | will be done!" |

Then, when on earth I | breathe no more |
The prayer oft mixed with | tears before |
I'll sing upon a | happier shore, |
"Thy | will be done!" |

Charlotte Elliott, 1834

When the stranger asks a home,
All his toils to end;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor a friend;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the fervent knee;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to thee:
*Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, thy dwelling-place on high.*

When the man of toil and care
In the city crowd;
When the shepherd on the moor
Names the name of God;
When the learnèd and the high,
Tired of earthly fame,
Upon higher joys intent,
Name the blessèd name:
*Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, thy dwelling-place on high.*

 My joy, thy mercy sweet.

ADVENT C. M.

J. B. Calkin, 1872

Behold us, Lord, a little space From daily tasks set free, And met within thy holy place To rest a while with thee. Amen.

Around us rolls the ceaseless tide
Of business, toil, and care,
And scarcely can we turn aside
For one brief hour of prayer.

Yet these are not the only walls
Wherein thou mayest be sought;
On homeliest work thy blessing falls
In truth and patience wrought.

Thine is the loom, the forge, the mart,
The wealth of land and sea;
The worlds of science and of art,
Revealed and ruled by thee.

Then let us prove our heavenly birth
In all we do and know,
And claim the kingdom of the earth
For thee, and not thy foe.

Work shall be prayer, if all be wrought
As thou wouldst have it done;
And prayer, by thee inspired and taught,
Itself with work be one.

The trembling sacrifice we pour before thee;
What can we offer in thy presence holy,

For in thy sight, who every bosom viewest,
Cold are our warmest vows, and vain our truest;
Thoughts of a hurrying hour, our lips repeat them,
Our hearts forget them.

We see thy hand,—it leads us, it supports us;
We hear thy voice,—it counsels and it courts us;
And then we turn away,—and still thy kindness
Forgives our blindness.

The seeds of holiness; and bid them blossom
In fragrance and in beauty bright and vernal,
And spring eternal!

I Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy bet- ter por- tion trace;

Rise from tran- si- to- ry things T'wards heav'n, thy na- tive place.

Sun and moon and stars de- cay, Time shall soon this earth re- move;

Rise, my soul, and haste a- way To seats pre- pared a- bove. A- men.

The Pilgrim's Song

Rivers to the ocean run,
 Nor stay in all their course;
 Fire ascending seeks the sun;
 Both speed them to their source:
 So my soul, derived from God,
 Pants to view his glorious face,
 Forward tends to his abode,
 To rest in his embrace.

Pilgrims fix not here their home;
 Strangers tarry but a night;
 When the last dear morn is come,
 They'll rise to joyful light.

Fly me riches, fly me cares,
 Whilst I that coast explore;
 Flattering world, with all thy snares,
 Solicit me no more.

Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
 Press onward to the prize;
 Soon our Saviour will return
 Triumphant in the skies:
 Yet a season, and you know
 Happy entrance will be given,
 All our sorrows left below,
 And earth exchanged for heaven.

J. S. Bach, 1685-1750

1 Blest are the pure in heart, For they shall see our God, The se - cret of the Lord is theirs, Their soul is Christ's a - bode. A - men.

Matthew v : 8

The Lord, who left the heavens
Our life and peace to bring,
To dwell in lowliness with men,
Their pattern and their king,—

And for his dwelling and his throne
Chooseth the pure in heart.

Still to the lowly soul
He doth himself impart,

Lord, we thy presence seek;
May ours this blessing be;
Give us a pure and lowly heart,
A temple meet for thee.

Psalm cxlii

For thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
O when shall I behold thy Face,
Thou Majesty Divine!

His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.

Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Trust God; and he'll employ

Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Hope still; and thou shalt sing
The praise of him who is thy God,
Thy health's eternal spring.

SHIPSTON 8. 7. 41.

English Traditional Melody

1 Come, thou Fount of ev-'ry bless-ing, Tune my heart to sing thy grace;

Streams of mer-cy, nev-er ceas-ing, Call for songs of loud-est praise. A-men.

Teach me some melodious sonnet,
 Sung by flaming tongues above;
 Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it,
 Mount of God's unchanging love!

Here I raise my Ebenezer;
 Hither by thy help, I'm come;
 And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
 Safely to arrive at home.

Jesus sought me when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God;
 He, to rescue me from danger,
 Interposed with precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor
 Daily I'm constrained to be!
 Let that grace now, like a fetter,
 Bind my wandering heart to thee.

Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
 Prone to leave the God I love;
 Here's my heart; O take and seal it,
 Seal it from thy courts above.

TOTTENHAM C. M.

H. W. Greatorex, 1825

I Walk in the light: so shalt thou know That fel-low-ship of love

His Spir-it on-ly can be-stow, Who reigns in light a-bove. Amen.

1 John i: 7

Walk in the light: and sin abhorred
 Shall ne'er defile again;
 The blood of Jesus Christ thy Lord
 Shall cleanse from every stain.

Walk in the light: and thou shalt find
 Thy heart made truly his
 Who dwells in cloudless light enshrined,
 In whom no darkness is.

Walk in the light: and thou shalt own
 Thy darkness passed away,
 Because that Light hath on thee shone
 In which is perfect day.

Walk in the light: and e'en the tomb
 No fearful shade shall wear;
 Glory shall chase away its gloom,
 For Christ hath conquered there.

6

Walk in the light: and thine shall be
 A path, though thorny, bright;
 For God, by grace, shall dwell in thee,
 And God himself is light.

TILTEY ABBEY C. M.

A. H. Brown, 1830—

I O for a clos - er walk with God, A calm and heaven-ly frame,

A light to shine up-on the road That leads me to the Lamb! A - men.

Where is the blessedness I knew
 When first I saw the Lord?
 Where is the soul-refreshing view
 Of Jesus and his word?

What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
 How sweet their memory still!
 But they have left an aching void
 The world can never fill.

4

Return, O Holy Dove; return,
 Sweet messenger of rest:
 I hate the sins that made thee mourn
 And drove thee from my breast.

The dearest idol I have known,
 Whate'er that idol be,
 Help me to tear it from thy throne,
 And worship only thee.

So shall my walk be close with God,
 Calm and serene my frame;
 So purer light shall mark the road
 That leads me to the Lamb.

We are of thee, the children of thy love,
The brothers of thy well-belovèd Son;
Descend, O Holy Spirit, like a dove,
Into our hearts, that we may be as one:
As one with thee, to whom we ever tend;
As one with him, our Brother and our

One with the grief that trembleth into prayer,
One in the power that makes the children free
To follow truth, and thus to follow thee.

We would be one in hatred of all wrong,
One in our love of all things sweet and fair,
One with the joy that breaketh into song,

O clothe us with thy heavenly armor, Lord,
Thy trusty shield, thy sword of love divine;
Our inspiration be thy constant word;
We ask no victories that are not thine;
Give or withhold, let pain or pleasure be;
Enough to know that we are serving thee.

Genesis xxviii: 10-13

There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven:
All that thou send'st to me
In mercy given:
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

Or if on joyful wing
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upwards I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

FORWARD 6. 5. 121.

Henry Smart, 1872

1 For-ward! be our watchword, Steps and voices joined; Seek the things be-fore us,

Not a look be-hind: Burns the fier-y pil-lar At our ar-my's head;

Who shall dream of shrinking, By Je-ho-vah led? Forward thro' the des-ert, Thro' the toil and fight; Jordan flows be-fore us, Zion beams with light. A-men.

 Forward, flock of Jesus,
 Salt of all the earth,
 Till each yearning purpose
 Spring to glorious birth;
 Sick, they ask for healing,
 Blind, they grope for day;
 Pour upon the nations
 Wisdom's loving ray.
 Forward, out of error,
 Leave behind the night;
 Forward through the darkness,
 Forward into light.

 Glories upon glories
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love him
 One day to be shared;
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;

Nor of these hath uttered
 Thought or speech a word;
 Forward, marching eastward,
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight.

4
 To the Father's glory
 Loudest anthems raise;
 To the Son and Spirit,
 Echo songs of praise;
 To the Lord Almighty,
 Blessed Three in One,
 Be by men and angels
 Endless honor done.
 Weak are earthly praises,
 Dull the songs of night;
 Forward into triumph,
 Forward into light!

BISHOP THORPE C. M.

Jeremiah Clark, 1670-1707

Lord, when I all things would possess, I crave but to be thine; O lowly is the loftiness Of these desires divine. Amen.

Each gift but helps my soul to learn
 How boundless is thy store;
 I go from strength to strength, and yearn
 For thee, my Helper, more.

How can my soul divinely soar,
 How keep the shining way,
 And not more tremblingly adore,
 And not more humbly pray!

The more I triumph in thy gifts,
 The more I wait on thee;
 The grace that mightily uplifts
 Most sweetly humbleth me.

The heaven where I would stand complete
 My lowly love shall see,
 And stronger grow the yearning sweet,
 My holy One! for thee.

KINGDOM C. M.

S. S. Wesley, 1872

1 Thy king-dom come! on bend-ed knee The pass-ing a-ges pray; And faith-ful souls have yearned to see On earth that king-dom's day. A-men.

But the slow watches of the night
 Not less to God belong;
 And for the everlasting right
 The silent stars are strong.

3

And lo, already on the hills
 The flags of dawn appear;
 Gird up your loins, ye prophet souls,
 Proclaim the day is near:

The day in whose clear-shining light
 All wrong shall stand revealed,
 When justice shall be throned in might,
 And every hurt be healed;

When knowledge, hand in hand with peace,
 Shall walk the earth abroad;—
 The day of perfect righteousness,
 The promised day of God.

THE OLD 124th 10s. 41.

Melody in the Genevan Psalter, 1551

1 "Lift up your hearts!" We lift them, Lord, to thee; Here at thy feet none oth-er may we see: "Lift up your hearts!" E'en so, with one accord, We lift them up, we lift them to the Lord. A-men.

Lamentations iii: 40-41

Above the level of the former years,
 The mire of sin, the slough of guilty fears,
 The mist of doubt, the blight of love's decay,
 O Lord of Light, lift all our hearts to-day!

Above the swamps of subterfuge and shame,
 The deeds, the thoughts, that honor may not name,
 The halting tongue that dares not tell the whole,
 O Lord of Truth, lift every Christian soul!

Lift every gift that thou thyself hast given;
 Low lies the best till lifted up to heaven:
 Low lie the bounding heart, the teeming brain,
 Till, sent from God, they mount to God again.

Then, as the trumpet-call, in after years,
 "Lift up your hearts!" rings pealing in our ears,
 Still shall those hearts respond, with full accord,
 "We lift them up, we lift them to the Lord!"

RAMSEY C. M.

T. B. Stephenson, 1839—

Philippians i : 21-24

If life be long, I will be glad
That I may long obey;
If short, yet why should I be sad
To end my toilsome day?

Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before;
He that unto God's kingdom comes
Must enter by this door.

Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet
Thy blessed face to see;
For if thy work on earth be sweet,
What will thy glory be!

My knowledge of that life is small,
The eye of faith is dim:
But it's enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with him.

ALBANO C. M.

Vincent Novello, 1781-1861

1 O ver - y God of ver - y God, And ver - y Light of Light, Whose feet this earth's dark val - ley trod, That so it might be bright; A-men.

Our hopes are weak, our fears are strong,
 Thick darkness blinds our eyes;
 Cold is the night, and O, we long
 That thou, our Sun, wouldst rise!

And even now, though dull and gray,
 The east is brightening fast,
 And kindling to the perfect day
 That never shall be past.

O guide us till our path is done,
 And we have reached the shore
 Where thou, our everlasting Sun,
 Art shining evermore.

We wait in faith, and turn our face
 To where the daylight springs,
 Till thou shalt come, our gloom to chase,
 With healing in thy wings.

To God the Father power and might Both now and ever be;
 To him that is the Light of Light
 And, Holy Ghost, to thee.

ROYAL FORT 8. 6. 8. 8. 6.

E. J. Orchard, in Bristol Tune Book

I E - ter - nal Light! E - ter - nal Light! How pure the soul must be, When placed with - in thy searching sight, It shrinks not, but, with calm de - light, Can live and look on thee. A - men.

The spirits that surround thy throne
May bear the burning bliss;
But that is surely theirs alone,
Since they have never, never known
A fallen world like this.

O how shall I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim,
Before the Ineffable appear,
And on my naked spirit bear
The uncreated beam?

There is a way for man to rise
To that sublime abode,—
An offering and a sacrifice,
A Holy Spirit's energies,
An Advocate with God.

These, these prepare us for the sight
Of holiness above:
The sons of ignorance and night
May dwell in the Eternal Light,
Through the Eternal Love.

JESU DOMINE 8s. 6 l.

Joseph Barnby, 1872

1 Thou hid-den love of God, whose height, Whose depth unfathomed no man knows:

I see from far thy beauteous light, In - ly I sigh for thy re - pose:

Slower.

My heart is pained, nor can it be At rest, till it find rest in thee. A - men.

'Tis mercy all that thou hast brought
 My mind to seek her peace in thee:
 Yet while I seek, but find thee not,
 No peace my wandering soul shall see:
 Oh, when shall all my wanderings end,
 And all my steps to thee-ward tend!

O Love, thy sovereign aid impart
 To save me from low-thoughted care;
 Chase this self-will through all my heart,
 Through all its latent mazes there;
 Make me thy duteous child, that I
 Ceaseless may "Abba, Father," cry.

Each moment draw from earth away
 My heart, that lowly waits thy call;
 Speak to my inmost soul, and say,
 "I am thy Love, thy God, thy All."
 To feel thy power, to hear thy voice
 To taste thy love, be all my choice.

STOBEL 6. 6. 4. 6. 6. 6. 4.

From Havergal's Old Church Psalmody, 1847

i Fa - ther, to thee we bow, Fa - ther of Christ art thou, Fa - ther of all. In thee we live and move; Thy fam - i - ly of love Is one—be - low, a - bove, Thou, all in all. A - men.

Thy rich and glorious grace
Gird all our struggling days
With holy power;
That so thy Spirit's might,
Filling our souls with light,
May lift to cloudless height
Each o'ercast hour.

In us may faith enshrine
Thy Christ—his cross our sign,
His love our root;
That power to apprehend
The love that knows no end
From strength to strength may tend
With holy fruit.

We with all saints would know
The utmost thou wouldst show
In Christ our Lord:
All lower longings stilled,
From him would we be filled
Full as thy grace hath willed,
Fulness of God.

To thee, who more canst bless
Than prayers or thoughts express
With powers divine,
Thy church in Christ doth raise
Her filial hymn of praise;
Through everlasting days
All glory thine.

*The Prayer of Paul
Ephesians iii: 14-21*

The ro-seate hues of ear - ly dawn, The brightness of the day, The O for the pearl - y gates of heaven! O for the gold - en floor!

O for the Sun of Righteousness That set-teth nev - er - more! A - men.

The highest hopes we cherish here,
 How fast they tire and faint;
 How many a spot defiles the robe
 That wraps an earthly saint:
 O for a heart that never sins,
 O for a soul washed white,
 O for a voice to praise our King,
 Nor weary day or night!

Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
 And grace to lead us higher;
 But there are perfectness and peace,
 Beyond our best desire:
 O by thy love and anguish, Lord,
 O by thy life laid down,
 O that we fall not from thy grace,
 Nor cast away our crown!

WARSAW 6. 6. 6. 8. 8.

Thomas Clark, 1775-1859

r Break, day of God, O break, Sweet light of heav'n-ly skies! I all for thee for-sake, And from my dead self rise; O Lamb of God, whose love is light, Shine on my soul and all is bright. A-men.

Break, day of God, O break!
 The night has lingered long;
 Our hearts with sighing wake,
 We weep for sin and wrong:
 O bright and morning Star draw near:
 O Sun of Righteousness, appear.

Break, day of God, O break!
 The earth with strife is worn;
 The hills with thunder shake,
 Hearts of the people mourn:
 Break day of God, sweet day of peace,
 And bid the shout of warriors cease!

Break, day of God, O break,
 Like to the days above!
 Let purity awake,
 And faith, and hope, and love:
 But lo! we see the brightening sky:
 The golden morn is drawing nigh.

ST. MARTIN'S NEW S. M. D.

Robert Cooke, 1768-1814

r "For - ev - er with the Lord!" A - men, so let it be: Life from the dead is in that word, 'Tis im - mor - tal - i - ty. Here in the bod - y pent, Ab - sent from him I roam; Yet night - ly pitch my mov - ing tent, A day's march near - er home. A - men.

My Father's house on high, —
Home of my soul how near,
At times, to faith's forseeing eye
Thy golden gates appear!
Ah! then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above.

Yet clouds will intervene
And all my prospect flies;
Like Noah's dove I flit between
Rough seas and stormy skies.
Anon the clouds dispart,
The winds and waters cease,
While sweetly o'er my gladdened heart
Expands the bow of peace.

Beneath its glowing arch,
Along the hallowed ground,
I see cherubic armies march,
A camp of fire around.

1 Thes. iv: 17

I hear at morn and even,
At noon and midnight hour,
The choral harmonies of heaven
Earth's Babel-tongues o'erpower.

5

Then, then I feel that he (Remembered or forgot)
The Lord is never far from me,
Though I perceive him not.
How can I meet his eyes?
Mine on the cross I cast
And own my life a Saviour's prize
Mercy from first to last.

6

So when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.
Knowing as I am known
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before the throne,
"Forever with the Lord!"

The Pilgrims of the Night

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing, Rest comes at length: though life be long
 "Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you and dreary, come;" The day must dawn, and darksome night
 And through the dark, its echoes sweetly be past;
 ringing, All journeys end in welcomes to the weary,
 The music of the gospel leads us home. And heaven, the heart's true home, will Angels of Jesus, angels of light, come at last.
 Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night!

Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing, Angels, sing on, your faithful watches keep -
 The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and ing;
 sea; Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
 And laden souls, by thousands meekly steal - Till morning's joy shall end the night of

 Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to And life's long shadows break in endless thee. love.

When the praise of heaven I hear,
Loud as thunders to the ear,
Loud as many waters' noise,
Sweet as harp's melodious voice, -
Then, Lord, shall I fully know,
Not till then, how much I owe.

Asleep in Jesus

REQUIESCAT 7. 7. 7. 7. 8. 8.

J. B. Dykes, 1875

Now the la-borer's task is o'er; Now the bat-tle day is past;

Now up-on the far-ther shore Lands the voy-a-ger at last. Fa-ther, in thy gracious keep-ing Leave we now thy serv-ant sleep-ing. A-men.

There the tears of earth are dried;
 There its hidden things are clear;
 There the work of life is tried
 By a juster Judge than here.
 Father, in thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

There the sinful souls, that turn
 To the cross their dying eyes,
 All the love of Christ shall learn
 At his feet in Paradise.
 Father, in thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

There no more the powers of hell
 Can prevail to mar their peace;
 Christ the Lord shall guard them well,
 He who died for their release.
 Father, in thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

"Earth to earth, and dust to dust,"
 Calmly now the words we say;
 Left behind, we wait in trust
 For the resurrection-day.
 Father, in thy gracious keeping
 Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

2
Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet;
With holy confidence to sing
That death hath lost his venom'd sting.

Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.

4 1 Thess. iv: 14
Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be;
Securely shall my ashes lie,
Waiting the summons from on high.

5
Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

Released from earthly toil and strife,
 With thee is hidden still their life;
 Thine are their thoughts, their work, their
 All thine, and yet most truly ours: [pow'rs;
 For well we know, where'er they be,
 Our dead are living unto thee.

Thy word is true, thy will is just;
 To thee we leave them, Lord, in trust;
 And bless thee for the love which gave
 Thy Son to fill a human grave,
 That none might fear that world to see
 Where all are living unto thee.

O Breather into man of breath,
 O Holder of the keys of death,
 O Giver of the life within,
 Save us from death, the death of sin;
 That body, soul, and spirit be Forever living unto thee.

LEICESTER C. M.

William Hurst, 1875

1 It sing-eth low in ev-'ry heart, We hear it each and all; A song of those who an-swer not, How-ev-er we may call. A-men.

They throng the silence of the breast;
 We see them as of yore,
 The kind, the true, the brave, the sweet,
 Who walk with us no more.

'Tis hard to take the burden up,
 When these have laid it down;
 They brightened all the joy of life,
 They softened every frown.

But, O 'tis good to think of them
 When we are troubled sore;
 Thanks be to God that such have been,
 Although they are no more!

More homelike seems the vast unknown
 Since they have entered there;
 To follow them were not so hard.
 Wherever they may fare.

They cannot be where God is not,
 On any sea or shore;
 Whate'er betides, thy love abides,
 Our God, for evermore.

1 When our heads are bowed with woe, When our bit - ter tears o'er-flow,

When we mourn the lost, the dear, Je - sus, Son of Ma - ry, hear. A-men.

Thou our throbbing flesh hast worn,
 Thou our mortal griefs hast borne,
 Thou hast shed the human tear;
 Jesus, son of Mary, hear.

3

When the solemn death-bell tolls
 For our own departing souls,
 When our final doom is near,
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

4

Thou hast bowed the dying head,
 Thou the blood of life hast shed,
 Thou hast filled a mortal bier;
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

5

When the heart is sad within
 With the thought of all its sin,
 When the spirit shrinks with fear,
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

6

Thou the shame, the grief, hast known,
 Though the sins were not thine own;
 Thou hast deigned their load to bear;
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

RUTHERFORD 7. 6. 7. 6. 7. 6. 7. 5.

Chrétien D'Urhan, 1834
Har. E. F. Rimbault, 1867

The sands of time are sink - ing, The dawn of heav - en breaks, The sum - mer morn I've sighed for, The fair, sweet morn a-wakes: O dark hath been the mid - night, But day-spring is at hand, And glo - ry, glo - ry dwell - eth In Em - man - uel's land. A-men.

O Christ, he is the Fountain,
The deep sweet well of love!
The streams on earth I've tasted
More deep I'll drink above:
There to an ocean fulness
His mercy doth expand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Emmanuel's land.

With mercy and with judgment
My web of time he wove,
And aye the dews of sorrow
Were lusted by his love:

I'll bless the hand that guided,
I'll bless the heart that planned,
When throned where glory dwelleth
In Emmanuel's land.

The bride eyes not her garment,
But her dear bridegroom's face;
I will not gaze at glory,
But on my King of grace;
Not at the crown he giveth,
But on his pierced hand:
The Lamb is all the glory
Of Emmanuel's land.

THE BLESSED HOME 6s. 8 l.

John Stainer, 1875

r There is a bless-ed home Be-yond this land of woe, Where tri - als nev - er come, Nor tears of sor - row flow; Where faith is lost in sight, And pa - tient hope is crowned, And ev - er - last - ing light Its glo - ry throws a - round. A - men.

There is a land of peace,
 Good angels know it well;
 Glad songs that never cease
 Within its portals swell;
 Around its glorious throne
 Ten thousand saints adore
 Christ, with the Father One,
 And Spirit, evermore.

O joy all joys beyond,
 To see the Lamb who died,
 And count each sacred wound
 In hands and feet, and side;

To give to him the praise
 Of every triumph won,
 And sing through endless days
 The great things he hath done.

4

Look up, ye saints of God,
 Nor fear to tread below
 The path your Saviour trod
 Of daily toil and woe:
 Wait but a little while
 In uncomplaining love,
 His own most gracious smile
 Shall welcome you above.

MATERNA C. M. D.

S. A. Ward, 1888

Je - ru - sa - lem, my hap - py home, When shall I come to thee? When shall my sor - rows have an end? Thy joys when shall I see? O hap - py har - bor of the saints! O sweet and pleas - ant soil! In thee no sor - row may be found, No grief, no care, no toil. A - men.

Part I

In thee no sickness may be seen,
 No hurt, no ache, no sore;
 In thee there is no dread of death,
 But life for evermore.
 No dampish mist is seen in thee,
 No cold nor darksome night;
 There every soul shines as the sun;
 There God himself gives light.

There lust and lucre cannot dwell;
 There envy bears no sway;
 There is no hunger, heat, nor cold,
 But pleasure every way.

Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
 God grant I once may see
 Thy endless joys, and of the same
 Partaker aye may be!

Thy walls are made of precious stones,
 Thy bulwarks diamonds square;
 Thy gates are of right orient pearl;
 Exceeding rich and rare;
 Thy houses are of ivory,
 Thy windows crystal clear;
 Thy tiles are made of beaten gold—
 O God that I were there!

REDHEAD No. 66 C. M.

Richard Redhead, 1859

1 Ah, my sweet home, Je - ru - sa - lem, Would God I were in thee! Would God my woes were at an end, Thy joys that I might see! A - men.

Part II

Thy saints are crowned with glory great;
They see God face to face;
They triumph still, they still rejoice:
Most happy is their case.

We that are here in banishment,
Continually do mourn;
Our joys scarce last the looking on,
Our sorrows still remain.

But there they live in such delight,
Such pleasure and such play,
As that to them a thousand years
Doth seem as yesterday.

Thy gardens and thy gallant walks
Continually are green; [flowers
There grow such sweet and pleasant
As nowhere else are seen.

Quite through the streets with silver sound
The flood of life doth flow,
Upon whose banks on every side
The wood of life doth grow.

There trees for evermore bear fruit,
And evermore do spring;
There evermore the angels sit,
And evermore do sing;

8

Jerusalem, my happy home,
Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end
Thy joys that I might see!

FATHERLAND G. 4. G. 4. G. 6. G. 4.

Arthur Sullivan, 1872

I'm but a stran-ger here, Heav'n is my home;

Earth is a des-ert drear, Heav'n is my home:

Dan-ger and sor-row stand Round me on ev-'ry hand;

Heav'n is my fa-ther-land, Heav'n is my home. A-men.

What though the tempest rage,
 Heaven is my home;
 Short is my pilgrimage,
 Heaven is my home:
 And time's wild wintry blast
 Soon shall be overpast;
 I shall reach home at last,
 Heaven is my home.

3

There, at my Saviour's side,
 Heaven is my home:
 I shall be glorified,
 Heaven is my home.

There are the good and blest,
 Those I love most and best;
 And there I too shall rest,
 Heaven is my home.

4

Therefore I murmur not,
 Heaven is my home;
 Whate'er my earthly lot,
 Heaven is my home:
 And I shall surely stand
 There at my Lord's right hand;
 Heaven is my fatherland,
 Heaven is my home.

CAREY'S L. M.

Henry Carey, 1723

1 O hap - py saints, who dwell in light, And walk with

Je - sus, clothed in white; Safe land - ed on that peace - ful shore, Where pil - grims meet to part no more. A - men.

Surrey, No. 79, is a six line arrangement of this tune

At thy right hand are pleasures forevermore.—Ps. xvi: 11

Released from sin, and toil, and grief,
Death was their gate to endless life;
An opened cage, to let them fly
And build their happy nest on high.

3

And now they range the heavenly plains;
And sing their hymns in melting strains;
And now their souls begin to prove
The heights and depths of Jesus' love.

He cheers them with eternal smile;
They sing hosannas all the while;
Or, overwhelmed with rapture sweet,
Sink down adoring at his feet.

Ah, Lord, with tardy steps I creep,
And sometimes sing, and sometimes weep;
Yet strip me of this house of clay,
And I will sing as loud as they.

CALCUTTA 7. 6. 81.

Melody by Reginald Heber, 1783-1826

The world is ver - y e - vil; The times are wax - ing late; Be sob - er and keep vig - il, The Judge is at the gate: The Judge that comes in mer - cy, The Judge that comes with might, To term - i - nate the e - vil, To di - a - dem the right. A - men.

Hora Novissima Part I

Arise, arise, good Christian,
 Let right to wrong succeed;
 Let penitential sorrow
 To heavenly gladness lead.
 Then glory yet unheard of Shall shed abroad its ray,
 Resolving all enigmas,
 An endless Sabbath-day;

The home of fadeless splendor,
 Of flowers that fear no thorn,
 Where they shall dwell as children
 Who here as exiles mourn;

The peace of all the faithful,
 The calm of all the blest,
 Inviolable, unvaried,
 Divinest, sweetest, best;

4

O happy, holy portion,
 Refection for the blest;
 True vision of true beauty,
 Sweet cure of all distress!
 Strive, man, to win that glory;
 Toil, man, to gain that light;
 Send hope before to grasp it,
 Till hope be lost in sight;

Bernard of Cluny, c. 1145:
 Tr. J. M. Neale, 1851

ST. ALPHEGE 7. 6. 41.

H. J. Gauntlett, 1853

1 Brief life is here our por - tion, Brief sor - row, short-lived care; The life that knows no end - ing, The tear-less life is there. A-men.

Hora Novissima Part II

O happy retribution,
Short toil, eternal rest,
For mortals and for sinners
A mansion with the blest!

There grief is turned to pleasure,
Such pleasure as below
No human voice can utter,
No human heart can know.

And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown.

And now we watch and struggle,
And now we live in hope,
And Sion in her anguish
With Babylon must cope.

But he whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see him
Shall have him for their own.

7

The morning shall awaken,
The shadows shall decay,
And each true-hearted servant
Shall shine as doth the day.

8

Yes, God, my King and Portion,
In fulness of his grace,
We then shall see for ever,
And worship face to face.

JERUSALEM 7. G. 81.

From Ave Maria by Arcadelt, 1540:
Adapted by Rimbault

r For thee, O dear, dear coun - try, Mine eyes their vig - ils keep; For ver - y love, be - hold - ing Thy hap - py name, they weep. The men - tion of thy glo - ry Is unc - tion to the breast, And med - i - cine in sick - ness, And love, and life, and rest. A-men.

Hora Novissima Part III

O one, O only mansion!
O Paradise of joy!
Where tears are ever banished,
And smiles have no alloy;
The Cross is all thy spendor,
The Crucified thy praise;
His laud and benediction
Thy ransomed people raise.

Thou hast no shore, fair ocean!
Thou hast no time, bright day!
Dear fountain of refreshment
To pilgrims far away!

Upon the Rock of Ages
They raise thy holy tower;
Thine is the victor's laurel,
And thine the golden dower.

4

O mine, my golden Sion!
O lovelier far than gold!
With laurel-girt battalions,
And safe victorious fold.
O fields that see no sorrow!
O state that fears no strife!
O princely bowers! O land of flowers!
O realm and home of life!

Bernard of Cluny, c. 1145

EWING 7. 6. 81.

Alexander Ewing, 1853

1 Je - ru - sa - lem the gold - en, With milk and hon - ey blest, Be - neath thy con - tem - pla - tion Sink heart and voice op - prest; I know not, O I know not, What so - cial joys are there; What ra - dian - cy of glo - ry! What bliss be - yond com - pare! A - men.

Hora Novissima Part IV

They stand, those halls of Sion,
 Conjubilant with song,
 And bright with many an angel,
 And all the martyr throng;
 The Prince is ever in them,
 The daylight is serene,
 The pastures of the blessed
 Are decked in glorious sheen.

3

There is the throne of David,
 And there, from care released,
 The song of them that triumph,
 The shout of them that feast;

And they who, with their Leader,
 Have conquered in the fight,
 For ever and for ever
 Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
 Shall I e'er see thy face?
 O sweet and blessed country,
 Shall I e'er win thy grace?
 Exult, O dust and ashes!
 The Lord shall be thy part:
 His only, his for ever,
 Thou shalt be, and thou art!

Ancient Plain Song

Voices in Unison

1 O what their joy and their glo - ry must be, Those end-less Sab-baths the blessed ones see! Crown for the val-iant, to wea-ry ones rest; God shall be all, and in all ev - er blest. A-men.

What are the monarch, his court, and his throne?
What are the peace and the joy that they own?
Tell us, ye blest ones, that in it have share,
If what ye feel ye can fully declare.

Truly "Jerusalem" name we that shore,
"Vision of peace," that brings joy evermore!
Wish and fulfilment can severed be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.

We, where no trouble distraction can bring,
Safely the anthems of Sion shall sing;
While for thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
Thy blessed people shall evermore raise.

There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one and no more;
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the angels and us shall belong.

Low before him with our praises we fall,
Of whom, and in whom, and through whom are all;
Of whom, the Father; and through whom, the Son;
In whom, the Spirit, with these ever One.

ALFORD 7. 6. 8. 6. 81.

J. B. Dykes, 1875

1 Ten thousand times ten thousand In sparkling rai-ment bright, The ar - mies of the ransomed saints Throng up the steeps of light: 'Tis fin - ished, all is fin - ished, Their fight with death and sin: Fling

o - pen wide the gold - en gates, And let the vic - tors in. A - men.

What rush of alleluias
 Fills all the earth and sky!
 What ringing of a thousand harps
 Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
 O day, for which creation
 And all its tribes were made;
 O joy, for all its former woes
 A thousand fold repaid!

O then what raptured greetings
 On Canaan's happy shore;
 What knitting severed friendships up,
 Where partings are no more!

Then eyes with joy shall sparkle,
 That brimmed with tears of late;
 Orphans no longer fatherless,
 Nor widows desolate.

4

Bring near thy great salvation,
 Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
 Fill up the roll of thine elect,
 Then take thy power, and reign:
 Appear, Desire of nations,
 Thine exiles long for home;
 Show in the heaven thy promised sign;
 Thou Prince and Saviour, come.

HOLY CROSS C. M.

Anon.

1 How sweet the name of Je - sus sounds In a be - liev - er's ear! It soothes his sor - rows, heals his wounds, And drives a - way his fear. A - men.

It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

Dear name! the rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place,
My never-failing treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace;

4

Jesus, my Shepherd, Brother, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.

6

Till then I would thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death.

ST. BERNARD C. M.

Arr. by J. Richardson, 1863;
From Melody in Tochter Sion, 1741

I Je - sus, these eyes have nev - er seen That ra - diant form of thine; The veil of sense hangs dark be - tween Thy bless - ed face and mine! A - men.

I see thee not, I hear thee not,
Yet art thou oft with me;
And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot
As where I meet with thee.

Like some bright dream that comes unsought,
When slumbers o'er me roll,
Thine image ever fills my thought,
And charms my ravished soul.

Yet though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone;
I love thee, dearest Lord,—and will,
Unseen, but not unknown.

When death these mortal eyes shall seal,
And still this throbbing heart,
The rending veil shall thee reveal,
All glorious as thou art.

ST. AGNES C. M.

J. B. Dykes, 1866

1 Je - sus, the ver - y thought of thee With sweet-ness fills my breast;

But sweeter far thy face to see, And in thy pres-ence rest. A - men.

Part I

Jesu Dulcis Memoria

Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
 Nor can the memory find,
 A sweeter sound than thy blest name,
 O Saviour of mankind.

O Hope of every contrite heart,
 O Joy of all the meek,
 To those who fall, how kind thou art!
 How good to those who seek!

But what to those who find? Ah, this
 Nor tongue nor pen can show:
 The love of Jesus, what it is None but his loved ones know.

Jesus, our only joy be thou,
 As thou our prize wilt be;
 Jesus, be thou our glory now,
 And through eternity.

Bernard of Clairvaux, 1091-1153:
 Tr. Edward Caswall, 1849

ST. PETER C. M.

A. R. Reinagle, 1826

I O Je - sus, King most won - der - ful, Thou Conquer - or re - nowned, Thou sweetness most in - ef - fa - ble, In whom all joys are found! A-men.

Part II

Jesu Dulcis Memoria

When once thou visitest the heart,
 Then truth begins to shine,
 Then earthly vanities depart,
 Then kindles love divine.

3

O Jesus, Light of all below,
 Thou Fount of life and fire,
 Surpassing all the joys we know,
 And all we can desire!

4

May every heart confess thy name,
 And ever thee adore;
 And seeking thee, itself inflame
 To seek thee more and more.

5

Thee may our tongues for ever bless,
 Thee may we love alone;
 And ever in our lives express
 The image of thine own.

Bernard of Clairvaux, 1091-1153:
 Tr. Edward Caswall, 1849

ST. MAGNUS (Nottingham) C. M.

Jeremiah Clark, 1669-1707

1 Ma - jes - tic sweetness sits enthroned Up - on the Sav - iour's brow; His head with ra - diant glo - ries crowned, His lips with grace o'erflow. A - men.

No mortal can with him compare,
 Among the sons of men;
 Fairer is he than all the fair
 That fill the heavenly train.

He saw me plunged in deep distress,
 He flew to my relief;
 For me he bore the shameful cross,
 And carried all my grief.

To him I owe my life and breath,
 And all the joys I have;
 He makes me triumph over death,
 And saves me from the grave.

To heaven, the place of his abode,
 He brings my weary feet;
 Shows me the glories of my God,
 And makes my joys complete.

6

Since from his bounty I receive
 Such proofs of love divine,
 Had I a thousand hearts to give,
 Lord, they should all be thine.

ST. DAVID C. M.

Psaln xxiii

My soul he doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Ev'n for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear none ill;
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnishèd
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

DOMINUS REGIT ME 8. 7. 41. First Tune

J. B. Dykes, 1868

1 The King of love my Shep-herd is, Whose goodness fail-eth nev - er; I noth - ing lack if I am his And he is mine for ev - er. A-men.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul he leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Thy rod and staff my comfort stiel,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Psalm xxiii

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

5
Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And O what transport of delight
From thy pure chalice floweth.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With thee, dear Lord, beside me;

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise
Within thy house forever.

ST. MARGARET 8. 8. 8. 8. 6.

A. L. Peace, 1885

I O love that wilt not let me go, I rest my wea - ry soul in thee; I give thee back the life I owe, That in thine o - cean depths its flow May rich - er, full - er be. A-men.

O light that followest all my way,
 I yield my flickering torch to thee;
 My heart restores its borrowed ray,
 That in thy sunshine's blaze its day
 May brighter, fairer be.

O joy that seekest me through pain,
 I cannot close my heart to thee;
 I trace the rainbow through the rain,
 And feel the promise is not vain
 That morn shall tearless be.

O cross that liftest up my head,
 I dare not ask to fly from thee;
 I lay in dust life's glory dead,
 And from the ground there blossoms red
 Life that shall endless be.

ALL FOR JESUS 8. 7. 41.

First Tune

John Stainer, 1840-1901

1 Love di - vine, all loves ex - cell - ing, Joy of heav'n, to earth come down; Fix in us thy hum - ble dwell - ing,

All thy faith - ful mer - cies crown: A - men.

Jesus, thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.

Let us all in thee inherit,
Let us find the promised rest:

4

Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more thy temples leave.

3

Breathe, O breathe thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast;

5

Finish, then, thy new creation;
Pure and spotless let us be:
Let us see thy great salvation
Perfectly restored in thee;

6

Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

BEECHER 8. 7. 81.

Second Tune

John Zundel, 1870

r Love di - vine, all loves ex - cell - ing, Joy of heav'n, to earth come down; Fix in us thy hum - ble dwell - ing,

All thy faith - ful mer - cies crown: Je - sus, thou art all com - pas - sion,

Pure, un - bound - ed love thou art; Vis - it us with SONG 20 S. M.

Orlando Gibbons, 1583-1625

I My Lord, my life, my love, To thee, to thee I call; I can - not live if thou remove: Thou art my joy, my all. A - men.

My only sun to cheer
 The darkness where I dwell;
 The best and only true delight
 My song hath found to tell.

To thee in very heaven
 The angels owe their bliss;
 To thee the saints, whom thou hast called
 Where perfect pleasure is.

And how shall man, thy child,
 Without thee happy be,
 Who hath no comfort nor desire
 In all the world but thee?

Return my love, my life,
 Thy grace hath won my heart;
 If thou forgive, if thou return,
 I will no more depart.

ERSKINE 8. 8. 8. 6.

W. H. Gladstone, 1840-1891

1 O ho - ly Sav-iour, Friend unseen, Since on thine arm thou bidd'st me lean, Help me, throughout life's varying scene, By faith to cling to thee. A - men.

Blest with this fellowship divine,
 Take what thou wilt, I'll ne'er repine;
 E'en as the branches to the vine,
 My soul would cling to thee.

Far from her home, fatigued, oppressed,
 Here she has found her place of rest,
 An exile still, yet not unblest
 While she can cling to thee.

What though the world deceitful prove,
 And earthly friends and joys remove,
 With patient, uncomplaining love
 Still would I cling to thee.

Though faith and hope may long be tried,
 I ask not, need not aught beside:
 How safe, how calm, how satisfied,
 The souls that cling to thee!

Blest is my lot, whate'er befall;
 What can disturb me, who appal,
 While as my strength, my rock, my all,
 Saviour, I cling to thee?

AMOR DEI 8. 8. 8. 6.

Bremen Gesangbuch, 170.

1 O Sav-iour, I have naught to plead, In earth be- neath or heav'n a- bove, But just my own ex- ceed-ing need And thy ex- ceed-ing love. A- men.

The need will soon be past and gone,
Exceeding great, but quickly o'er;
The love, unbought, is all thine own,
And lasts forever more.

Jane F. Crewdson, 1863

331 ST. CÆCILIA 6s. 4l.

L. G. Hayne, 1863

1 O love that casts out fear, O love that casts out sin, Tarry no more with- out, But come and dwell with- in! A- men.

True sunlight of the soul,
Surround us as we go;
So shall our way be safe,
Our feet no straying know.

3

Great love of God come in!
Well-spring of heavenly peace;

1 John iv: 17-18

Thou living water, come!
Spring up, and never cease.

Love of the living God,
Of Father and of Son;
Love of the Holy Ghost,
Fill thou each needy one.

Horatius Bonar, 1864

LAMBETH 8s. 6l.

S. Akeroyd, in "Divine Companion," 1722

Je - sus, my Lord, my God, my All, Hear me, blest Sav - iour, when I call; Hear me, and from thy dwell - ing - place Pour down the rich - es of thy grace: Je - sus, my Lord, I thee a - dore; O make me love thee more and more. A - men.

Jesus, too late I thee have sought;
 How can I love thee as I ought?
 And how extol thy matchless fame,
 The glorious beauty of thy name?
 Jesus, my Lord, I thee adore;
 O make me love thee more and more.

Jesus what didst thou find in me
 That thou hast dealt so lovingly?
 How great the joy that thou hast brought,
 So far exceeding hope or thought!
 Jesus, my Lord, I thee adore;
 O make me love thee more and more.

Jesus, of thee shall be my song;
 To thee my heart and soul belong:
 All that I have or am is thine;
 And thou, blest Saviour, thou art mine:
 Jesus, my Lord, I thee adore;
 O make me love thee more and more.

YOAKLEY L. M. 61.

William Yoakley, c. 1821

i Je - sus, thy bound - less love to me No thought can reach, no tongue de - clare; O knit my thank - ful heart to thee, And reign with - out a ri - val there: Thine whol - ly, thine a - lone, I am, Be thou a - lone my constant flame. A - men.

O grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but thy pure love alone;
O may thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown:
Strange fires far from my soul remove;
My every act, word, thought, be love.

O love, how cheering is thy ray!
All pain before thy presence flies:
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
Where'er thy healing beams arise.
O Jesus, nothing may I see,
Or hear, or feel, or think, but thee.

4
Still let thy love point out my way;
How wondrous things thy love hath
Still lead me, lest I go astray; [wrought]
Direct my work, inspire my thought;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

In suffering, be thy love my peace;
In weakness, be thy love my power;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
Jesus, in that important hour,
In death, as life, be thou my guide,
And save me, who for me hast died.

The Master's Service

HOPE L. M.

H. S. Irons, 1834-1905

I O Christ, our true and on - ly light, Il - lum - ine those who sit in night; Let those a - far now hear thy voice, And in thy fold with us re - jice. A - men.

And all who else have strayed from thee,
O gently seek; thy healing be
To every wounded conscience given;
And let them also share thy heaven.

O make the deaf to hear thy word;
And teach the dumb to speak, dear Lord,
Who dare not yet the faith avow
Though secretly they hold it now.

Shine on the darkened and the cold;
Recall the wanderers from thy fold;
Unite those now who walk apart;
Confirm the weak and doubting heart:

5

So they with us may evermore
Such grace with wondering thanks adore,
And endless praise to thee be given
By all the Church in earth and heaven.

Johann Heermann, 1630 :
Tr. Catherine Winkworth, 1858

MARYTON L. M.

H. P. Smith, 1874

I O Mas - ter, let me walk with thee. In low - ly paths of serv - ice free; Tell me thy se - cret, help me bear The strain of toil, the fret of care. A - men.

Help me the slow of heart to move
 By some clear winning word of love;
 Teach me the wayward feet to stay,
 And guide them in the homeward way.

Teach me thy patience; still with thee
 In closer, dearer company,
 In work that keeps faith sweet and strong,
 In trust that triumphs over wrong;

In hope that sends a shining ray
 Far down the future's broadening way;
 In peace that only thou canst give,
 With thee, O Master, let me live.

FAITHFULNESS L. M.

G. A. Macfarren, 1813-1887

1 Lord, speak to me, that I may speak In liv - ing ech - oes of thy tone; As thou hast sought, so let me seek Thy err - ing chil - dren lost and lone. A - men.

A worker's prayer

O lead me, Lord, that I may lead
The wandering and the wavering feet;
O feed me, Lord, that I may feed
Thy hungering ones with manna sweet.

4
O teach me, Lord, that I may teach
The precious things thou dost impart;
And wing my words that they may reach
The hidden depths of many a heart.

O strengthen me, that while I stand
Firm on the rock, and strong in thee,
I may stretch out a loving hand
To wrestlers with the troubled sea.

O give thine own sweet rest to me,
That I may speak with soothing power
A word in season, as from thee,
To weary ones in needful hour.

O fill me with thy fulness, Lord,
Until my very heart o'erflow
In kindling thought and glowing word,
Thy love to tell, thy praise to show.

O use me, Lord, use even me,
Just as thou wilt, and when, and where;
Until thy blessed face I see,
Thy rest, thy joy, thy glory share.

ANTWERP L. M.

W. Smallwood, 1876

I Go, la - bor on: spend, and be spent, Thy joy to do the Fa - ther's will; It is the way the Mas - ter went; Should not the serv - ant tread it still? A - men.

Go, labor on: 'tis not for naught;
 Thy earthly loss is heavenly gain;
 Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not;
 The Master praises:— what are men?

Thy willing heart to mark and cheer;
 No toil for him shall be in vain.

 Go, labor on: enough while here
 If he shall praise thee, if he deign

Go, labor on while it is day:
 The world's dark night is hastening on,
 Speed, speed thy work, cast sloth away;
 It is not thus that souls are won.

Toil on, faint not, keep watch and pray;
 Be wise the erring soul to win;
 Go forth into the world's highway,
 Compel the wanderer to come in.

Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice;
 For toil comes rest, for exile home;
 Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
 The midnight peal, "Behold, I come."

GALILEE 8. 7. 41.

First Tune

W. H. Jude, 1874

1 Je-sus calls us, o'er the tu-mult Of our life's wild rest-less sea; Day by day his sweet voice soundeth, Say-ing, "Christian, fol-low me;" A-men.

As of old Saint Andrew heard it
By the Galilean lake,
Turned from home and toil and kindred,
Leaving all for his dear sake.

In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still he calls, in cares and pleasures,
"Christian, love me more than these."

Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, "Christian, love me more."

5

Jesus calls us: by thy mercies,
Saviour, may we hear thy call,
Give our hearts to thy obedience,
Serve and love thee best of all.

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1852

Second Tune

Melody from a (15th cent), German MS.

1 Je-sus calls us, o'er the tu-mult Of our life's wild rest-less sea;
Day by day his sweet voice soundeth, Say-ing, "Christian, fol-low me;" A-men.

BIRMINGHAM S. M.

J. Stanley, 1713-1786

1 Dear Lord and Mas - ter mine, Thy hap - py serv - ant see; My Conqu'ror, with what joy di - vine Thy cap - tive clings to thee. A-men.

I love thy yoke to wear,
To feel thy gracious bands;
Sweetly restrained by thy care,
And happy in thy hands.

I would not walk alone,
But still with thee, my God;
At every step my blindness own,
And ask of thee the road.

3
No bar would I remove,
No bond would I unbind;
Within the limits of thy love
Full liberty I find.

The weakness I enjoy
That casts me on thy breast;
The conflicts that thy strength employ
Make me divinely blest.

Dear Lord and Master mine,
Still keep thy servant true;
My guardian and my guide divine,
Bring, bring thy pilgrim through.

7
My Conqueror and my King,
Still keep me in thy train;
And with thee thy glad captive bring
When thou return'st to reign.

LUDBOROUGH L. M.

T. R. Matthews, 1826—

1 Where cross the crowded ways of life, Where sound the cries of race and clan, A - bove the noise of self - ish strife, We hear thy voice, O Son of man! A-men.

In haunts of wretchedness and need,
On shadowed thresholds dark with fears,
From paths where hide the lures of greed,
We catch the vision of thy tears.

From tender childhood's helplessness
From woman's grief, man's burdened toil,
From famished souls, from sorrow's stress,
Thy heart has never known recoil.

The cup of water given for thee
Still holds the freshness of thy grace;
Yet long these multitudes to see
The sweet compassion of thy face.

O Master, from the mountain side,
Make haste to heal these hearts of pain.
Among these restless throngs abide,
O tread the city's streets again,

6

Till sons of men shall learn thy love
And follow where thy feet have trod:
Till glorious from thy heaven above
Shall come the city of our God.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE C. M.

G. M. Garrett, 1872

1 From thee all skill and sci-ence flow, All pit - y, care, and love, All calm and cour-age, faith and hope, O pour them from a - bove. A - men.

And part them, Lord, to each and all,
As each and all shall need,
To rise, like incense, each to thee,
In noble thought and deed.

And hasten, Lord, that perfect day
When pain and death shall cease,
And thy just rule shall fill the earth
With health, and light, and peace;

When ever blue the sky shall gleam,
And ever green the sod,
And man's rude work deface no more
The Paradise of God.

MOSCOW (Italian Hymn) 6. 6. 4. 6. 6. 6. 4.

Adapted from F. de Giardini, 1769

1 Christ for the world we sing; The world to Christ we bring with lov - ing zeal; The poor and them that mourn, The faint and o - ver-borne, Sin-sick and sor - row-worn, Whom Christ doth heal. A - men.

Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring
With fervent prayer;
The wayward and the lost,
By restless passions tossed,
Redeemed at countless cost
From dark despair.

Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring
With one accord;
With us the work to share,
With us reproach to dare,
With us the cross to bear,
For Christ our Lord.

Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring
With joyful song;
The new-born souls whose days,
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

2

The Spirit and the Word

Give tongues of fire and hearts of love
To preach the reconciling word;
Give power and unction from above,
Whene'er the joyful sound is heard.

Be darkness, at thy coming, light;
Confusion, order in thy path;
Souls without strength inspire with might;
Bid mercy triumph over wrath.

4

O Spirit of the Lord, prepare
All the round earth her God to meet;
Breathe thou abroad like morning air,
Till hearts of stone begin to beat.

Baptize the nations; far and nigh
The triumphs of the cross record;
The name of Jesus glorify,
Till every kindred call him Lord,

FARRANT C. M.

Richard Farrant, 1530-1585

1 O God of truth, whose liv - ing Word Up - holds whate'er hath breath, Look down on thy cre - a - tion, Lord, En - slaved by sin and death. A-men.

Set up thy standard, Lord, that we,
Who claim a heavenly birth,
May march with thee to smite the lies
That vex thy groaning earth.

We fight for truth, we fight for God,—
Poor slaves of lies and sin!
He who would fight for thee on earth
Must first be true within.

Ah! would we join that blest array,
And follow in the might
Of him, the faithful and the true,
In raiment clean and white!

Then, God of truth for whom we long,
Thou who wilt hear our prayer,
Do thine own battle in our hearts,
And slay the falsehood there.

Still smite; still burn; till naught is left
But God's own truth and love;
Then, Lord, as morning dew come down,
Rest on us from above.

Yea, come: then, tried as in the fire,
From every lie set free,
Thy perfect truth shall dwell in us,
And we shall live in thee.

OLD 120th 6s. 6l.

Melody from Este's Psalter, 1592

I O thou not made with hands, Not throned a - bove the skies, Nor walled with shin - ing walls, Nor framed with stones of price, More bright than gold or gem, God's own Je - ru - sa - lem! A - men.

Thou art where'er the proud
 In humbleness melts down;
 Where self itself yields up;
 Where martyr's win their crown;
 Where faithful souls possess
 Themselves in perfect peace;

3

Where in life's common ways
 With cheerful feet we go;
 Where in his steps we tread,
 Who trod the way of woe;
 Where he is in the heart,
 City of God, thou art.

Not throned above the skies,
 Nor golden-walled afar,
 But where Christ's two or three
 In his name gathered are,
 Be in the midst of them,
 God's own Jerusalem.

EVERTON 8. 7. 81.

Henry Smart, 1867

r Hail the glo-rious gold - en cit - y, Pic-tured by the seers of old!

Ev - er - last - ing light shines o'er it, Won-drous tales of it are told:

On - ly righteous men and wom - en Dwell with-in its gleam - ing wall;

Wrong is ban-ished from its bor-ders, Jus-tice reigns supreme o'er all. A-men.

We are builders of that city;
 All our joys and all our groans
 Help to rear its shining ramparts;
 All our lives are building-stones:
 Whether humble or exalted,
 All are called to task divine;
 All must aid alike to carry
 Forward one sublime design.

And the work that we have builded,
 Oft with bleeding hands and tears,
 And in error and in anguish,
 Will not perish with our years:
 It will last and shine transfigured
 In the final reign of right;
 It will merge into the splendors
 Of the city of the light.

The stir of nations near and far,
 The wakened hearts that beat as one,
 The flow of peace, the ebb of war,
 The passing night, the risen sun!

Be ours the vision, ours the will
 To follow, though the faithless ban,
 The love that triumphs over ill,
 The trust in God and hope for man.

And thou whose tides of purpose bear
 These mortal lives that come and go,
 Give us to feel through toil and prayer
 Thy deep eternal underflow!

ST. CATHARINE 7. 6. 8. 6. 81.

J. M. Bell, 1837—

Not in dumb res - ig - na - tion We lift our hands on high; Not

2

Thy will! It strengthens weakness,
 It bids the strong be just;
 No lip to fawn, no hand to beg,
 No brow to seek the dust.
 Wherever man oppresses man
 Beneath thy liberal sun,
 O Lord be there thine arm made bare,
 Thy righteous will be done!

WALDRONS C. M.

C. E. Miller, 1856—

i Work - man of God, O lose not heart, But learn what

God is like; And in the dark - est bat - tle - field Thou shalt know where to strike. A - men.

Thrice blest is he who can divine,
 Where real right doth lie,
 And dares to take the side that seems
 Wrong to man's blindfold eye.

Then learn to scorn the praise of men,
 And learn to lose with God;
 For Jesus won the world through shame,
 And beckons thee his road.

For right is right, since God is God,
 And right the day must win;
 To doubt would be disloyalty,
 To falter would be sin.

VIGILATE 7. 7. 7. 3.

W. H. Monk, 1868

Christian, seek not yet re - pose, Cast thy dreams of ease a - way;

Thou art in the midst of foes: Watch and pray. A-men.

2 Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation

Principalities and powers
 Mustering their unseen array,
 Wait for thy unguarded hours:
 Watch and pray.

Gird thy heavenly armor on,
 Wear it ever, night and day:
 Ambushed lies the evil one:
 Watch and pray.

4

Hear the victors who o'ercame;
 Still they mark each warriors way;
 All with one sweet voice exclaim,
 "Watch and pray."

5

Hear, above all, hear thy Lord,
 Him thou lovest to obey;
 Hide within thy heart his word,
 "Watch and pray."

6

Watch, as if on that alone
 Hung the issue of the day;
 Pray, that help may be sent down:
 Watch and pray.

FINGAL C. M.

J. S. Anderson, 1865

1 Im - mor - tal love, for - ev - er full, For - ev - er flow - ing free, For - ev - er shared, for - ev - er whole, A nev - er - ebb - ing sea! A - men.

Part I

Our outward lips confess the name
 All other names above;
 Love only knoweth whence it came,
 And comprehendeth love.

But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
 A present help is he;
 And faith has still its Olivet,
 And love its Galilee.

We may not climb the heavenly steps
 To bring the Lord Christ down;
 In vain we search the lowest deeps,
 For him no depths can drown:

The healing of his seamless dress
 Is by our beds of pain;
 We touch him in life's throng and press,
 And we are whole again.

Through him the first fond prayers are said
 Our lips of childhood frame;
 The last low whispers of our dead
 Are burdened with his name.

7

Alone, O love ineffable,
 Thy saving name is given;
 To turn aside from thee is hell,
 To walk with thee is heaven.

CAITHNESS C. M.

Melody In Scottish Psalter, 1635

1 O Lord, and Mas - ter of us all, What - e'er our name or sign, We own thy sway, we hear thy call, We test our lives by thine. A - men.

Part II

Thou judgest us; thy purity
Doth all our lusts condemn;
The love that draws us nearer thee
Is hot with wrath to them;

Our thoughts lie open to thy sight;
And naked to thy glance,
Our secret sins are in the light
Of thy pure countenance.

Yet weak and blinded though we be
Thou dost our service own;
We bring our varying gifts to thee,
And thou rejectest none.

To thee our full humanity,
Its joys and pains belong;
The wrong of man to man on thee
Inflicts a deeper wrong.

Who hates, hates thee; who loves, becomes Therein to thee allied:
All sweet accords of hearts and homes
In thee are multiplied.

Apart from thee all gain is loss,
All labor vainly done;
The solemn shadow of the cross
Is better than the sun.

2
Lead on, O King Eternal,
Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And holiness shall whisper
The sweet amen of peace;
For not with swords loud clashing,
Nor roll of stirring drums,
But deeds of love and mercy
The heavenly kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal:
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
We journey in its light;
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of might.

Groping dim, and bending lowly,
Mortal vision catcheth slowly
Glimpses of the pure and holy;
Now, Lord,
Open thou mine eyes, O Lord!

In the deed that no man knoweth,
Where no praiseful trumpet bloweth,
Where he may not reap who soweth,
There, Lord,
Let my heart serve thee, O Lord!

In the work that no gold payeth,
Where he speedeth best who prayeth,
Doeth most who little sayeth,
There, Lord,
Let me work thy will, O Lord!

In his name, who meek and lowly,
Died to make poor sinners holy,
Stumbling oft, and creeping slowly,
Great Lord,
Guide me by thy truth, O Lord!

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict
In this his glorious day:
Ye that are men now serve him
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own:

Ephesians vi: 10-13

Put on the gospel armor,
Each piece put on with prayer;
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song:
To him that overcometh
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally.

Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

Sure I must fight if I would reign:
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die:
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

WOODCHURCH S. M.

The musical score is written in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time. It consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line. The first system ends with a double bar line, and the second system continues the melody and accompaniment.

The narrow way.—Matt. vii: 13-14.

It is the only road
 Unto the realms of joy;
 But he who seeks that blest abode,
 Must all his powers employ.

Arm—arm thee for the fight!
 Cast useless loads away:
 Watch through the darkest hours of night:
 Toil through the hottest day.

To labor and to love,
 To pardon and endure,
 To lift thy heart to God above,
 And keep thy conscience pure;

5

Be this thy constant aim,
 Thy hope, thy chief delight;
 What matter who should whisper blame,
 Or who should scorn or slight;

6

If but thy God approve,
 And if within thy breast,
 Thou feel the comfort of his love
 The earnest of his rest?

 On whom the Spirit came, [knew,
 Twelve valiant saints, their hope they
 And mocked the cross and flame:

They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
 The lion's gory mane; [feel:
 They bowed their necks the death to
 Who follows in their train?

A noble army, men and boys,
 The matron and the maid,
 Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
 In robes of light arrayed:
 They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
 Through peril, toil, and pain:
 O God, to us may grace be given
 To follow in their train.

I Sur-round-ed by un-num-bered foes, A-gainst my soul the bat-tle goes; Yet though I wea-ry, sore dis-tressed,

I know that I shall reach my rest: I lift my tear-ful

Its sword my spirit will not yield,
 Though flesh may faint upon the field;
 He waves before my fading sight
 The branch of palm, the crown of light:

3

My cloud of battle-dust may dim,
 His veil of splendor curtain him;
 And in the midnight of my fear
 I may not feel him standing near:
 But, as I lift mine eyes above,
 His banner over me is love.

Whate'er it be, 'tis ours to share;
May we, when help is needed, there
Give help as unto thee.

And may thy Holy Spirit move
All those who live, to live in love,
Till thou shalt greet in heaven above
All those who live to thee.

MOREDUN 8. 8. 8. 6.

G. W. Porrance, 1864

1 Shall we grow wea-ry in our watch And murmur at the long de-lay,

Im-pa-tient of our Fa-ther's time, And his ap-point-ed way,— A-men.

When harrassed sore with passion's cry,
Or overcome with sorrow's sleep,
We find it hard within our hearts
The watch of life to keep?

3
O thou, who in the garden's shade
Didst wake thy weary ones again,

Who slumbered at that fearful hour,
Forgetful of thy pain,—

Bend o'er us now, as over them,
And set our sleep-bound spirits free,
Nor leave us slumbering in the watch
Our souls should keep with thee.

J. G. Whittier, 1841: St. 2, Stopford A. Brooke

386 ST. PIRAN 7. 5. 41.

E. J. Hopkins, 1887

1 Thine are all the gifts, O God, Thine the bro-ken bread;

Let the nak-ed feet be shod, And the starv-ing fed. A-men.

Let thy children, by thy grace,
Give as they abound,
Till the poor have breathing-space,
And the lost are found.

Wiser than the miser's hoards
Is the giver's choice;

Sweeter than the song of birds
Is the thankful voice;

4
Welcome smiles on faces sad
As the flowers of spring:
Let the tender hearts be glad
With the joy they bring.

ALMSGIVING 8. 8. 8. 4.

J. B. Dykes, 1873

1 O Lord of heaven and earth and sea, To thee all praise and glo - ry be; How shall we show our love to thee, Who giv - est all? A - men.

The golden sunshine, vernal air,
Sweet flowers and fruits, thy love declare;
Where harvests ripen, thou art there,
Giver of all!

Thou giv'st the Spirit's blessed dower,
Spirit of life, and love, and power,
And dost his sevenfold graces shower
Upon us all.

For peaceful homes, and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe thee thankfulness and praise,
Giver of all!

For souls redeemed, for sins forgiven,
For means of grace and hopes of heaven,
Father, what can to thee be given,
Who givest all?

Thou didst not spare thine only Son,
But gav'st him for a world undone,
And freely with that Blessed One
Thou givest all.

We lose what on ourselves we spend,
We have as treasure without end
Whatever, Lord, to thee we lend,
Who givest all;

8

To thee, from whom we all derive
Our life, our gifts, our power to give:
O may we ever with thee live,
Giver of all!

The Communion of Saints

BOYLSTON S. M.

Lowell Mason, 1832

r Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Chris-tian love: The fel-low-ship of kin-dred minds Is like to that a-bove. A-men.

Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims, are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear,
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way,
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.

From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

PLEYEL'S HYMN 7s. 4l.

Arr. from Ignace Pleyel, 1790

1 Chil-dren of the heaven-ly King, As ye jour-ney, sweet-ly sing;
Sing your Sav-iour's wor-thy praise, Glo-rious in his works and ways. A-men.

We are travelling home to God
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now, and we Soon their happiness shall see.

Shout, ye little flock and blest;
You on Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seat is now prepared,
There's your kingdom and reward.

Lift your eyes, ye sons of light,
Zion's city is in sight;
There our endless home shall be,
There our Lord we soon shall see.

Fear not, brethren; joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

6

Lord, obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

ALL SAINTS OLD 8. 7. 8. 7. 7. 7.

Darmstädter Gesangbuch, 1698 :
Arr. by J. G. C. Störl, 1711

1 Who are these, like stars ap - pear - ing, These be - fore God's throne who stand ?

Each a gold - en crown is wear - ing; Who are all this glo - rious band ?

Al - le - lu - ial hark, they sing, Prais - ing loud their heav - en - ly King. A - men.

Who are these of dazzling brightness,
These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand—
Whence comes all this glorious band ?

Revelation vii: 13-17

These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honor long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng;
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

These like priests have watched and waited,
Offering up to Christ their will,
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night to serve him still:
Now, in God's most holy place
Blest they stand before his face.

RICHMOND C. M.

Revelation vii 13-14

Once they were mourning here below,
 And wet their couch with tears;
 They wrestled hard, as we do now,
 With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3

I ask them whence their victory came;
 They, with united breath,
 Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
 Their triumph to his death.

They marked the footsteps that he trod,
 His zeal inspired their breast;
 And following their incarnate God,
 Possess the promised rest.

Our glorious Leader claims our praise
 For his own pattern given,
 While the long cloud of witnesses
 Show the same path to heaven.

SARUM 10. 10. 10. 4.

Joseph Barnby, 1869

I For all the saints who from their labors rest, Who thee by faith be-fore the world con-fessed, Thy name, O Je-sus, be for-ever blest. Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia! A-men.

The cloud of witnesses

 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
 Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
 Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light. Alleluia!

 O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
 Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
 And win with them the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia!

 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
 We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
 Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine. Alleluia!

 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
 Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
 And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia!

 The golden evening brightens in the west;
 Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
 Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest. Alleluia!

 But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day;
 The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
 The King of Glory passes on his way. Alleluia!

8
 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
 Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
 Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!

Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named.—Ephesians iii: 15

2

One family, we dwell in him,
One Church, above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.

One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of his host hath crossed the flood,
And part is crossing now.

E'en now to their eternal home
There pass some spirits blest,
While others to the margin come,
Waiting their call to rest.

Jesus, be thou our constant guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And bring us safe to heaven.

BINCHESTER C. M.

William Croft, 1678-1727

1 Hap - py are they, they that love God, Whose hearts have Christ confessed; Who by his cross have found their life, And 'neath his yoke their rest. A-men.

Glad is the praise, sweet are the songs,
When they together sing;
And strong the prayers that bow the ear
Of heaven's eternal King.

Christ to their homes giveth his peace,
And makes their loves his own:
But ah, what tares the evil one
Hath in his garden sown.

Sad were our lot, evil this earth,
Did not its sorrows prove
The path whereby the sheep may find
The fold of Jesus' love.

Then shall they know, they that love him,
How all their pain is good;
And death itself cannot unbind
Their happy brotherhood.

In the communion of thy saints
 Is wisdom, safety and delight;
 And when my heart declines and faints,
 It's raised by their heat and light!

As for my friends, they are not lost;
 The several vessels of thy fleet,
 Though parted now, by tempests tost,
 Shall safely in the haven meet.

4

Still we are centred all in thee,
 Members, though distant, of one Head;
 In the same family we be,
 By the same faith and spirit led.

Before thy throne we daily meet
 As joint-petitioners to thee;
 In spirit we each other greet,
 And shall again each other see.

6

The heavenly hosts, world without end,
 Shall be my company above;
 And thou, my best and surest Friend,
 Who shall divide me from thy love?

GADE 8. 7. 81.

From Schumann:
"Norwegian Folk Song"

Through the night of doubt and sor - row On - ward goes the pil - grim band,
Sing - ing songs of ex - pec - ta - tion, Marching to the prom - ised land.
Clear be - fore us through the darkness Gleams and burns the guid - ing light;
Broth - er clasps the hand of broth - er, Stepping fear - less through the night. A - men.

One, the light of God's own presence,
O'er his ransomed people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread:
One, the object of our journey,
One, the faith which never tires,
One, the earnest looking forward,
One, the hope our God inspires.

One, the strain the lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One, the march in God begun:

One, the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the one almighty Father
Reigns in love for evermore.

Onward therefore, pilgrim brothers!
Onward, with the cross our aid!
Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
Till we rest beneath its shade!
Soon shall come the great awaking;
Soon the rending of the tomb;
Then, the scattering of all shadows,
And the end of toil and gloom!

O happy home, where thou art not forgotten
Where joy is overflowing, full and free,
O happy home, where every wounded spirit
Is brought, Physician, Comforter, to thee,

2 Corinthians iii: 18

From glory unto glory! What great things he hath done,
What wonders he hath shown us, what triumphs he hath won!
From glory unto glory! What mighty blessings crown
The lives for which our Lord hath laid his own so freely down!

The fullness of his blessing encompasseth our way;
The fullness of his promises crowns every brightening day;
The fullness of his glory is beaming from above,
While more and more we learn to know the fullness of his love.

And closer yet and closer the golden bonds shall be,
Uniting all who love our Lord in pure sincerity;
And wider yet and wider shall the circling glory glow,
As more and more are taught of God that mighty love to know.

The new year comes; but, Spirit sweet,
Thou goest not away.

But, Lord, thy smile still beams:
Our sins are swelling evermore,
But pardoning grace still streams.

Lord, from this year more service win,
More glory, more delight:
O make its hours less sad with sin,
Its days with thee more bright.

Then we may bless its precious things
If earthly cheer should come,
Or gladsome mount on angel wings
If thou wouldst take us home.

O golden then the hours must be;
The year must needs be sweet;
Yes, Lord, with happy melody
Thine opening grace we greet.

O let our adoration for all that he hath done,
Peal out beyond the stars of God, while voice and life are one;
And let our consecration be real, deep, and true,
O even now our hearts shall bow, and joyful vows renew.

Now onward, ever onward, from strength to strength we go,
While grace for grace abundantly shall from his fullness flow,
To glory's full fruition, from glory's foretaste here,
Until his very presence crown our happiest New Year.

3
For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take his harvest home;
From his field shall in that day
All offences purge away;

Give his angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In his garner evermore.

4
Even so, Lord, quickly come
To thy final harvest-home;
Gather thou thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
There for ever purified,
In thy presence to abide:
Come, with all thine angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest-home.

Henry Alford, 1844

HARVEST 7. 6. 81. With Refrain soft re-fresh-ing rain. All good gifts a-round us Are sent from heav'n above; Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord For all his love. A-men.

i Praise to God, im - mor - tal praise, For the love that crowns our days:

Bounteous source of ev - 'ry joy, Let thy praise our tongues employ. A-men.

Flocks that whiten all the plain;
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain;
Clouds that drop their fattening dews,
Suns that temperate warmth diffuse;

3
All that Spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal Autumn pours
From her rich o'erflowing stores;-

4
These to thee, my God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

5 Habakuk iii: 17-18
Yet, should rising whirlwinds tear
From its stem the ripening ear;
Should the fig-tree's blasted shoot
Drop her green untimely fruit;

6
Should the vine put forth no more,
Nor the olive yield her store;
Though the sickening flocks should fall,
And the herds desert the stall;-

Yet to thee my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise;
And, when every blessing's frown,
Love thee for thyself alone.

Anna L. Barbauld, 1772

He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far;
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey him,
By him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, his children,
He gives our daily bread.

*All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above;*

*Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
For all his love.*

We thank thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food:
No gifts have we to offer,
For all thy love imparts,
But that which thou desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.

VALEDICTION 6. 6. 8. 4.

J. W. Elliott, 1833—

1 With the sweet word of peace We bid our breth - ren go;

Peace, as a riv - er to in - crease, And cease - less flow. A - men.

With the calm word of prayer
 We earnestly commend
 Our brethren to thy watchful care,
 Eternal Friend.

With the dear word of love
 We give our brief farewell:
 Our love below, and thine above,
 With them shall dwell.

With the strong word of faith
 We stay ourselves in thee,
 That thou, O Lord, in life and death
 Their help shalt be.

Then the bright word of hope
 Shall on our parting gleam,
 And tell of joys beyond the scope
 Of earth-born dream.

Farewell! in hope, and love,
 In faith, and peace, and prayer;
 Till he whose home is ours above
 Unite us there.

All this day thy hand has led me,
 And I thank thee for thy care;
 Thou hast clothed me, warmed and fed me,
 Listen to my evening prayer!

Let my sins be all forgiven;
 Bless the friends I love so well;
 Take me, when I die, to heaven,
 Happy there with thee to dwell.

Lord, upon our blindness
Thy pure radiance pour,
For thy loving kindness
Make us love thee more:

And when clouds are drifting
Dark across our sky,
Then, the veil uplifting
Father, be thou nigh.

Death with thee is bright;
Light of light! shine o'er us
On our pilgrim way,
Go thou still before us
To the endless day.

 What must their Creator be!

Lord of all that's fair to see,
 Come, reveal thyself to me;

ASCHAM S. 7. 41.

E. S. Carter, 1845—

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of two systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The lyrics are printed below the notes.

1 Day by day we mag-ni-fy thee, When, as each new day is born,
On our knees at home, we bless thee For the mer-cies of the morn. A-men.

Day by day we magnify thee,
When our hymns in school we raise,
Daily work begun and ended
With the daily voice of praise.

Day by day we magnify thee
In our hymns before we sleep;
Angels hear them, watching by us,
Christ's dear lambs all night to keep.

Day by day we magnify thee,
Not in words of praise alone;
Truthful lips and meek obedience
Show thy glory in thine own.

Day by day we magnify thee,
When for Jesus' sake we try
Every wrong to bear with patience,
Every sin to mortify.

Day by day we magnify thee,
Till our days on earth shall cease,
Till we rest from these our labors,
Waiting for thy day in peace.

 He came down to earth from heaven
 Who is God and Lord of all,
 And his shelter was a stable,
 And his cradle was a stall:
 With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
 Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

 And, through all his wondrous childhood,
 He would honor, and obey,
 Love, and watch the lowly maiden
 In whose gentle arms he lay:
 Christian children all must be Mild, obedient, good as he.

4
 For he is our childhood's pattern,
 Day by day like us he grew,
 He was little, weak and helpless,

Tears and smiles like us he knew:
 And he feelth for our sadness,
 And he shareth in our gladness.

 And our eyes at last shall see him,
 Through his own redeeming love;
 For that Child so dear and gentle
 Is our Lord in heaven above,
 And he leads his children on
 To the place where he is gone.

6
 Not in that poor lowly stable,
 With the oxen standing by,
 We shall see him, but in heaven,
 Set at God's right hand on high;
 When like stars his children crowned
 All in white shall wait around.

TYNEMOUTH S. 6. 61.

From Choron's Chants Chorals

The shep-herds had an an-gel, The wise men had a star; But what have I, a lit-tle child, To guide me home from far, Where glad stars sing to-geth-er And sing-ing an-gels are? A-men.

Lord Jesus is my Guardian,
So I can nothing lack:
The lambs lie in his bosom
Along life's dangerous track;
The wilful lambs that go astray
He bleeding fetches back.

Lord Jesus is my guiding star,
My beacon-light in heaven:
He leads me step by step along
The path of life uneven:
He true light, leads me to that land
Whose day shall be as seven.

Those shepherds through the lonely night
Sat watching by their sheep,
Until they saw the heavenly host
Who neither tire nor sleep,
All singing "Glory, glory"
In festival they keep.

Christ watches me, his little lamb,
Cares for me day and night,
That I may be his own in heaven:
So angels clad in white
Shall sing their "Glory, glory"
For my sake in the height.

VOM HIMMEL HOCH L. M.

Melody attributed to Martin Luther, 1483-1546:
Adapted by J. S. Bach

I From heaven a - bove to earth I come, To bear good news to ev - 'ry home; Glad tid - ings of great joy I bring, Where-of I now will say and sing: A-men.

2
"To you, this night, is born a Child,
Of Mary, chosen mother mild;
This little Child, of lowly birth,
Shall be the joy of all your earth."

3
Now let us all with gladsome cheer,
Follow the shepherds and draw near
To see this wondrous gift of God,
Who hath his only Son bestowed.

Ah, Lord, who hast created all, [small,
How hast thou made thee weak and
That thou must choose thy infant bed
Where ox and ass but lately fed!

Were earth a thousand times as fair,
Beset with gold and jewels rare,
She yet were far too poor to be
A narrow cradle, Lord, for thee.

My heart for very joy doth leap,
My lips no more their silence keep;
I too must sing with joyful tongue
That sweetest ancient cradle song,—

7
"Glory to God in highest heaven,
Who unto man his Son hath given!"
While angels sing with pious mirth
A glad new year to all the earth.

CHRISTMAS MORN 7. 6. 81.

E. J. Hopkins, 1818-1901

1 The wise may bring their learn - ing, The rich may bring their wealth, And some may bring their great - ness, And some bring strength and health; We too, would bring our treas - ures To of - fer to the King; We

• have no wealth or learn - ing: What shall we chil - dren bring? A - men.

We'll bring him hearts that love him;
We'll bring him thankful praise,
And young souls meekly striving
To walk in holy ways:
And these shall be the treasures
We offer to the King,
And these are gifts that even
The poorest child may bring.

We'll bring the little duties
We'll have to do each day;
We'll try our best to please him,
At home, at school, at play:
And better are these treasures
To offer to our King
Than richest gifts without them;
Yet these a child may bring.

J. H. Gower, 1890

1 There is a green hill far a - way, With-out a cit - y wall, Where the dear Lord was cru - ci - fied, Who died to save us all. A-men.

Copyright by John H. Gower

We may not know, we cannot tell,
 What pains he had to bear;
 But we believe it was for us
 He hung and suffered there.

He died that we might be forgiven,
 He died to make us good,
 That we might go at last to heaven,
 Saved by his precious blood.

There was no other good enough
 To pay the price of sin;
 He only could unlock the gate
 Of heaven, and let us in.

5

O dearly, dearly has he loved,
 And we must love him too,
 And trust in his redeeming blood,
 And try his works to do.

SWEET STORY 11. 8. 12. 9.

Traditional English Melody

I think when I read that sweet sto - ry of old, When Je - sus was here a - mong men, How he called lit - tle chil - dren as lambs to his fold, I should like to have been with them then. A - men.

I wish that his hands had been placed on my head,
 That his arm had been thrown around me;
 And that I might have seen his kind look when he said,
 "Let the little ones come unto me."

Yet still to his foetstool in prayer I may go,
 And ask for a share in his love;
 And if I thus earnestly seek him below,
 I shall see him and hear him above:

In that beautiful place he is gone to prepare
 For all that are washed and forgiven,
 And many dear children are gathering there,
 "For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

But thousands and thousands who wander and fall
 Never heard of that heavenly home;
 I should like them to know there is room for them all,
 And that Jesus has bid them to come.

I long for the joy of that glorious time,
 The sweetest, and brightest, and best,
 When the dear little children of every clime
 Shall crowd to his arms and be blest.

4
 O give me Samuel's heart,

Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud.

Yes, on through life's long path,
Still chanting as ye go;
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

Still lift your standard high,
Still march in firm array;
As warriors through the darkness, toil
Till dawns the golden day.

At last the march shall end,
The wearied ones shall rest,
The pilgrims find their Father's house,
Jerusalem the blest.

8

Then on, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks and sing;
Your glorious banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ your King.

Teach us to bear the yoke in youth,
With steadfastness and careful truth;
That, in our time, thy grace may give
The truth whereby the nations live.

Teach us to rule ourselves alway,
Controlled and cleanly night and day;
That we may bring, if need arise,
No maimed or worthless sacrifice.

(Land of our birth, our faith, our pride,
For whose dear sake our fathers died;
O Motherland, we pledge to thee
Head, heart, and hand through the years to be.)

Teach us to look in all our ends
On thee for Judge and not our friends;
That we, with thee, may walk uncowed
By fear or favor of the crowd.

Teach us the strength that cannot seek,
By deed or thought, to hurt the weak;
That, under thee, we may possess
Man's strength to comfort man's distress.

Teach us delight in simple things,
And mirth that has no bitter springs;
Forgiveness free of evil done,
And love to all men 'neath the sun.

Part III

For thóu | only * art | holy || thóu | on-ly | art the | Lord.

Thou only, O Christ, with the | Ho-ly | Ghost || art most high in the | glory * of |
God the | Father. || A-men.

This alternative setting of the Gloria in Excelsis is given because the Old Chant, though venerable, obscures the true form of this beautiful ancient hymn.

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS

Henry Lawes

WE praise | thee O | God || we acknow-ledge | thee to | be the | Lord.

All the earth doth | wor-ship | thee || the | Fa-ther | ev-er- | -lasting.

To thee all An-gels | cry a- | -loud || the Heavens, and | all the | Powers * there- | -in.

To thee Cher-ub-im and | Ser-aph- | -im || con- | -tin-ual- | -ly do | cry,

Ho-ly, | Ho-ly, | Holy || Lord | God of | Sa-ba- | -oth;

Heaven and earth are full of the | Maj-es- | -ty || of | thy * - | glo- * - | -ry.

The glorious com-pan-y | of * the A- | -postles || praise | - * - | - * - | thee.

The goodly fel-low-ship | of the | Prophets || praise | - * - | - * - | thee.

The no-ble | army * of | Martyrs || praise | - * - | - * - | thee.

The holy Church through-out | all the | world || doth | - * ac- | -know-ledge | thee;

The | Fa- * - | -ther || of an | infin-ite | Maj-es- | -ty;

Thine a- | -dor-able, | true || and | on- * - | - * -ly | Son;

Last half of chant

Al-so the | Ho-ly | Ghost || the | Com- * - | -fort- * - | -er.

Thou art the | King of | Glory || O | - * - | - * - | Christ.

Thou art the ev-er- | -last-ing | Son || of | - * the | Fa- * - | -ther,

Canticles and Ancient Hymns

Robert Cooke

When thou tookest upon thee to de-^{o.} -liv-er | man || thou didst humble thyself to be | born * — | of a | Virgin.

When thou hadst overcome the | sharpness * of | death || thou didst open the Kingdom of | Heaven to | all be- | -lievers.

Thou sittest at the right | hand of | God || in the | Glo-ry | of the | Father.

We believe that | thou shalt | come || to | be * — | our * — | Judge.

We therefore pray thee | help thy | servants || whom thou hast redēem-ed | with thy | pre-cious | blood.

Make them to be num-bered | with thy | Saints || in | glo-ry | ev-er- | -lasting.

O Lord, | save thy | people || and | bless thine | her-it- | -age.

Gov- | — * -ern | them || and | lift them | up for- | -ever.

Day | by * — | day || we | mag-ni- | -fy * — | thee;

And we wor-ship | thy * — | name || ev-er | world with- | -out * — | end.

Vouch- | -safe O | Lord || to keep us this | day with- | -out * — | sin.

O Lord, have | mercy * up- | -on us || have | mer- * — | -cy up- | -on us.

O Lord, let thy mer-cy | be up- | -on us || as our | trust * — | is in | thee.

O Lord, in thee | have I | trusted || let me | nev-er | be con- | -founded.

O COME, let us sing | unto * the | Lord || let us heartily rejoice in the | strength of | our sal- | -vation.

Let us come before his pres-ence with | thanks-* — | -giving || And show ourselves |
glad in | him with | psalms.

For the Lord is a | great * — | God || and a gr^eat | King a- | -bove all | gods.

In his hand are all the cor-ners | of the | earth || and the strength of the | hills is | his * — | also.

The sea is his, | and he | made it || and his hands pre- | -pared * the | dry * — | land.

O come, let us worship and | fall * — | down || and kneel be- | -fore the | Lord
our | Maker.

For he is the | Lord our | God || and we are the people of his pasture, and the | sheep of | his * — | hand.

O worship the Lord in the | beauty * of | holiness || let the whole e^arth | stand in | awe of | him.

(Last half of double chant)

For he cometh, for he cometh to | judge the | earth || and with righteousness to judge the world, and the | peo-ple | with his | truth.

Glory be to the Fa-ther, | and * to the | Son || and | to the | Ho-ly | Ghost;

CHRIST our passover is sac-ri- | ficed * for | us || there-fore | let us | keep the | feast,

Not with the old leaven, neither with the leaven of | malice * and | wickedness ||
but with the unleavened bread of sin- | -cer-i- | -ty and | truth.

Christ being raised from the dead | dieth * no | more || death hath no more do- |
-min-ion | o-ver | him.

For in that he died, he died un-to | sin * — | once || but in that he liv-eth, he |
liv-eth | un-to | God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead in-deed | un-to | sin || but alive unto
God through | Je-sus | Christ our | Lord.

Christ is ris-en | from the | dead || and become the first- | -fruits of | them that | slept.

For since by | man came | death || by man came also the res-ur- | -rec-tion | of the |

LORD, let me know mine end, and the num-ber | of my | days || that I may be

Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a | span * — | long || and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee, and verily every man liv-ing is | al-to-
-geth-er | vanity.

For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disqui-et-eth him- | -self in | vain || he heap-
-eth up riches, and cannot tell | who shall | gath-er | them.

And now Lord, what | is my | hope || tru-ly my | hope is | even * in | thee.

Deliver me from all | mine of- | -fences || and make me not a re- | -buke * — | unto * the | foolish.

When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to con-
-sume away, like as it were a moth | fretting * a | garment || ev-ery man |
there-fore | is but | vanity.

Hear my prayer O Lord, and with thine ears con- | -sider * my | calling || hold not thy | peace * — | at my | tears.

For I am a | stranger * with | thee || and a so-journ-er, as | all my | fa-thers | were.

(Last half of double chant)

LORD, thou hast | been our | refuge || from one gen-er- | -a-tion | to an- | -other.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the | world were | made || thou art God from everlast-ing, and | world with- | -out * — | end.

Thou turnest man | to de- | -struction || again thou sayest, Come a- | -gain, ye | children * of | men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are | but as | yesterday || seeing that is past as a |
watch * — | in the | night.

As soon as thou scatterest them they are ev-en | as a | sleep || and fade away |
sudden-ly | like the | grass.

In the morning it is green, and | grow-eth | up || but in the evening it is cut down, |
dri-ed | up, and | withered.

For we consume away in | thy dis- | -pleasure || and are afraid at thy | wrath-ful |
in-dig- | -nation.

Thou hast set our mis- | -deeds be- | -fore thee || and our secret sins in the | light of |
thy * — | countenance.

For when thou art angry, all our | days are | gone || we bring our years to an end,
as it were a | tale * — | that is | told.

Canticles and Ancient Hymns

The days of our age are three-score years and ten, and though men be so strong that they come to | four-score | years || yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soon pass-eth it a- | -way, and | we are | gone.

But who who regardeth the pow-er | of thy | wrath || for even thereafter as a man fear-eth, | so is | thy dis- | -pleasure.

So teach us to | number * our | days || that we may apply our | hearts * — | un-to | wisdom.

Turn thee again O Lord | at the | last || and be | gra-cious | unto * thy | servants.

O satisfy us with thy mercy, and | that * — | soon || so shall we rejoice and be glad all the | days of | our * — | life.

Comfort us again now, after the time that thou hast | pla-gued | us || and for the years where-in | we have | suffered * ad- | -versity.

Shew thy | servants * thy | work || and their | chil-dren | thy * — | glory.

(Last half of double chant)

And the glorious majesty of the Lord our God | be up- | -on us || prosper thou the work of our hands upon us, O pros-per | thou our | han-di- | -work.

Glory be to the Father, | and * to the | Son || and | to the | Ho-ly | Ghost;

NOTE

The selections for responsive reading are from the familiar authorized version of the Psalms. In exceptional instances when the old version is obscure, a few lines from the revised version have been employed.

The general order of the Psalms has been followed, with an occasional departure for the sake of grouping Psalms of similar tone and subject.

With a few exceptions, the Psalms selected are given in their integrity.

Unity of thought rather than uniformity of length has been sought. Incidentally this gives a choice—often desirable—between a moderately long and a quite short selection.

The following selections may be found appropriate for special occasions

Prayers

A General Confession

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father, we have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep; we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts; we have offended against thy holy laws; we have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus, our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy name. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we may show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy name thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

An Evening Collect

LIGHTEN our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Selections from the Psalter

Arranged for Responsive Reading

SELECTION 1

PSALM 1

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season;

His leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM 8

O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him; and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM 19

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

SELECTION 2

PSALM 2

Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying, let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision.

Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM 110

The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning; thou hast the dew of thy youth.

The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up the head.

SELECTION 3

PSALM 12

Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things:

Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us?

For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

The words of the Lord are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

PSALM 13

How long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

I will sing unto the Lord, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

PSALM 14

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the Lord.

There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the Lord is his refuge.

Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion!

When the Lord bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

SELECTION 4

PSALM 16

Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

O my soul, thou hast said unto Jehovah, Thou art my Lord: I have no good beyond thee.

As for the saints that are in the earth, they are the excellent in whom is all my delight.

Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

I will bless the Lord, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

I have set the Lord always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

For thou wilt not leave my soul in the grave; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM 17

Hear the right, O Lord, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings, from the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, by thy sword:

From men by thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure:

They are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

SELECTION 5

PSALM 18

I will love thee, O LORD, my strength. The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;

My God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

The sorrows of death compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

Selections from the Psalter

There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

He bowed the heavens also, and came down; and darkness was under his feet.

And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.

The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.

Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the Lord was my stay.

With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.

For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.

For thou wilt light my candle: the Lord my God will enlighten my darkness.

For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation:

And thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

PSALM 20

The LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee;

Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion; to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent.

Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice; He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.

PSALM 24

We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners; the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.

The earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

Now know I that the Lord saveth his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?

They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright. Save, Lord: let the king hear us when we call.

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

PSALM 15

LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob.

He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

Who is this King of glory?

The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.

He that putteth not out his money

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory?

The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

SELECTION 7

PSALM 22

My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent.

But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

I was cast upon thee from the womb; thou art my God since my mother bare me.

Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help.

Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.

I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

But be not thou far from me, O Lord: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog.

Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.

I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

Ye that fear the Lord, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard.

My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shall live for ever.

All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

For the kingdom is the LORD's: and he is the governor among the nations.

All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul.

A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

SELECTION 8

PSALM 25

Unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.

Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

Shew me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths.

Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.

All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

What man is he that feareth the Lord? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.

The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant.

Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.

Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.

Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.

O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.

* * *

PSALM 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

SELECTION 9

PSALM 26

Judge me, O LORD; for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide.

Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try my reins and my heart.

For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth.

I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.

I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked.

I will wash mine hands in innocency; so will I compass thine altar, O Lord:

That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men:

In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes.

But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I bless the Lord.

PSALM 27

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up.

Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

SELECTION 10

PSALM 28

Unto thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert.

Selections from the Psalter

Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

Blessed be the Lord, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.

The Lord is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

PSALM 30

I will extol thee, O Lord; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

O Lord, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.

Lord, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong:

thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

I cried to thee, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication.

What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be thou my helper.

Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent.

O Lord my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

SELECTION 11

PSALM 31

In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness.

Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.

Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.

Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the Lord.

I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities;

And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.

Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.

I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

But I trusted in thee, O Lord: I said, Thou art my God.

My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.

Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

Blessed be the LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord.

SELECTION 12

PSALM 32

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer.

I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM 33

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.

For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap; he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

The Lord looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.

From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

He fashioneth their hearts alike;
he considereth all their works.

SELECTION 13

PSALM 34

I will bless the LORD at all times:
his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.

I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trust-eth in him.

O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

Depart from evil, and do good;
seek peace and pursue it.

The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

SELECTION 14

PSALM 37

Fret not thyself because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

Selections from the Psalter

For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

For evil doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming.

The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

The Lord knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.

They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

The wicked borroweth and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

For the Lord loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree.

Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

And the Lord shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

SELECTION 15

PSALM 40

I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

Blessed is that man that maketh the Lord his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest.

I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy loving kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me.

Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me: O Lord, make haste to help me.

Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.

Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD be magnified.

But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

PSALM 42

As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy day.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

Yet the Lord will command his loving kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM 43

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation:

O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

For thou art the God of my strength: why dost thou cast me off? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM 46

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved; God shall help her, and that right early.

The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Come behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

PSALM 47

O clap your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

For the Lord most high is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth.

He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved.

God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSALM 48

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind.

As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever.

We have thought of thy loving kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments. Walk about Zion, and go round about her:

Tell the towers thereof. Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death.

SELECTION 18

PSALM 49

Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

My mouth shall speak of wisdom ;
and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

I will incline mine ear to a parable :
I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when iniquity at my heels compasseth me about ?

They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches ; none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him :

For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever : that he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations ; they call their lands after their own names.

Nevertheless man being in honor abideth not : he is like the beasts that perish.

This their way is their folly : yet their posterity approve their sayings.

Like sheep they are laid in the grave ; death shall feed on them ; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning ; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave : for he shall receive me.

Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased ;

For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away : his glory shall not descend after him.

Though while he lived he blessed his soul : and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

He shall go to the generation of his fathers ; they shall never see the light.

Man that is in honour, and under-standeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

SELECTION 19

PSALM 50

The mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence : a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

Gather my saints together unto me ; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself.

Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.

I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High.

And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth?

Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such a one as thyself:

But I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

SELECTION 20

PSALM 51

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness; according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering:

Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

SELECTION 21

PSALM 56

Be merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.

Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High.

What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.

They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.

Shall they escape by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.

Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me.

In God will I praise his word: in the Lord will I praise his word. In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

PSALM 57

Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee:

Yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me.

He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongues a sharp sword.

Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth.

They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves.

My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.

Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.

For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

SELECTION 22

PSALM 61

Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings.

For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations.

He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM 62

Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved.

How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly.

My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us.

Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God.

Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSALM 63

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee,

My flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; to see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

SELECTION 23

PSALM 65

Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:

Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.

The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn;

They shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM 29

Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters.

The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.

The voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness; the Lord shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests:

And in his temple doth everyone say, Glory.

The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.

The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace.

SELECTION 24

PSALM 66

Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands: sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.

Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name.

Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:

Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

Thou broughtest us unto the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows, which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats.

Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:

But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSALM 67

God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us;

That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God;
let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God;
let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase;
and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

SELECTION 25

PSALM 68

Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

God setteth the solitary in families; he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; the earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God:

Even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance when it was weary.

Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it.

Kings of armies did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

Though ye have lain among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.

When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Salmon.

The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan; a high hill as the hill of Bashan.

Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the Lord will dwell in it for ever.

The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels:
the Lord is among them, as in Sinai,
in the holy place.

Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation.

* *

Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord.

To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.

Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.

O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places:

The God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God.

SELECTION 26

PSALM 72

Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.

In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.

There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

Selections from the Psalter

His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him; all nations shall call him blessed.

Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things. And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and Amen.

SELECTION 27

PSALM 73

Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.

But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm.

They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.

Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.

They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the Most High?

Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me;

Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.

Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that play the harlot, departing from thee.

But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works.

SELECTION 28

PSALM 77

I cried unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my hand was stretched out in the night, and slacked not; my soul refused to be comforted.

I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed.

Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?

Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?

Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies?

And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.

I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God?

Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad.

The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.

Selections from the Psalter

Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

SELECTION 29

PSALM 80

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that ledest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubim, shine forth.

Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength, and come and save us.

Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

O Lord God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves.

Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.

She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river.

Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;

And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

It is burned with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.

So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.

Turn us again, O LORD God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

PSALM 82

God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods.

How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked?

Defend the poor and fatherless:
do justice to the afflicted and needy.

Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the Most High.
But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

SELECTION 30

PSALM 84

How amiable are thy tabernacles, O
LORD of hosts!

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the iving God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of thy house.

Passing through the valley of Baca, they make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools.

They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob.

Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM 85

Lord, thou hast been favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people; thou hast covered all their sin.

Thou has taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?

Shew us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.

I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly.

Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.

Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

SELECTION 31

PSALM 86

Bow down thine ear, O LORD, hear me: for I am poor and needy.

Preserve my soul; for I am holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I cry unto thee daily.

Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer: and attend to the voice of my supplications.

In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works.

All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee O Lord; and shall glorify thy name.

For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them.

But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.

Shew me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed:

Because thou, Lord, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

SELECTION 32

PSALM 89

I will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,

Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations.

And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

For who in the heaven can be compared unto the Lord? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the Lord?

God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD in the light of thy countenance.

In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

For the Lord is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our King.

Then thou spakest in vision to thy Holy One, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:

With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him.

The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

Selections from the Psalter

And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.

He shall cry unto me, Thou art my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation.

Also I will make him my first-born, higher than the kings of the earth.

My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

SELECTION 33

PSALM 90

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be four score years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us;

Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

SELECTION 34

PSALM 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; there shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

SELECTION 35

PSALM 92

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High:

To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,

Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound.

For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work; I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

O LORD, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of

Selections from the Psalter

iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

But thou, Lord, art most high for evermore.

For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of a unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

They shall bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM 93

The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself; the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

Thy testimonies are very sure; holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever.

SELECTION 36

PSALM 95

O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

Unto whom I swear in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM 96

O sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.

Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Give unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness; fear before him, all the earth.

Say among the heathen that the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the LORD:

For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

SELECTION 37

PSALM 97

The LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne.

A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.

Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O Lord.

Selections from the Psalter

For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

Ye that love the Lord, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

PSALM 98

O sing unto the LORD a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the Lord, the King.

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together before the Lord; for he cometh to judge the earth:

With righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

PSALM 100

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.

Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

For the Lord is good, his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

SELECTION 38

PSALM 103

Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

Bless the Lord, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the Lord, O my soul.

SELECTION 39

PSALM 104

Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire:

Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

Selections from the Psalter

At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth.

He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.

They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.

By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.

He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man; that he may bring forth food out of the earth;

And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

The trees of the Lord are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;

Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the conies.

He appointed the moon for seasons, the sun knoweth his going down.

Thou makest darkness, and it is night; wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labor until the evening.

O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy riches.

So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

There go the ships: there is that leviathan, whom thou hast made to play therein.

These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.

The glory of the LORD shall endure for ever: the LORD shall rejoice in his works.

He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the Lord.

Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more.

Bless thou the Lord, O my soul. Praise ye the Lord.

SELECTION 40

PSALM 107

O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron; because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High:

Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

Fools, because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

Selections from the Psalter

He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; these see the works of the LORD and his wonders in the deep. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground; a fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings. And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation; and sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the Lord.

SELECTION 41

PSALM III

Praise ye the LORD.

I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

The works of the LORD are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

His work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

He hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

The works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are sure.

They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

He sent redemption unto his people; he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name.

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

PSALM 112

Praise ye the Lord.

Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

His seed shall be mighty upon earth; the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies.

He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

SELECTION 42

PSALM 114

When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language;

Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.

Selections from the Psalter

The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was driven back.

The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.

What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?

Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the God of Jacob;

Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM 115

Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God?

But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:

They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:

They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: He is their help and their shield.

O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD:

He is their help and their shield.

Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD:

He is their help and their shield.

The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great.

The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children. Ye are blessed of the LORD which made heaven and earth.

The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence.

But we will bless the Lord from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the Lord.

PSALM 116

I love the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

Then called I upon the name of the Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful.

The Lord preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.

Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.

I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted: I said in my haste, All men are liars.

What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

O Lord, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.

I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people, In the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM 117

O praise the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord.

SELECTION 44

PSALM 118

O give thanks unto the LORD: for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.

Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

Let them now that fear the Lord say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

I called upon the LORD in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.

The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.

Selections from the Psalter

It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man.

It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes.

All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the Lord will I destroy them.

They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the Lord I will destroy them.

Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

The Lord is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

The right hand of the Lord is exalted: the right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly.

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

The Lord hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD:

This gate of the Lord, into which the righteous shall enter.

I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.

The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.

This is the LORD's doing: it is marvellous in our eyes.

This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord: we have blessed you out of the house of the Lord.

God is the LORD, which hath shewed us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar,

Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:

For his mercy endureth for ever.

PSALM 119—Part I

ALEPH

Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD.

Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways.

Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.

I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

BETH

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Blessed art thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes.

With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

HE

Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end.

Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.

Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.

Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear.

Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness.

SELECTION 46

PSALM 119—PART II

MEM

O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.

I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.

I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.

Selections from the Psalter

I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me.

How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.

I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.

Accept, I beseech thee, the free-will offerings of my mouth, O Lord, and teach me thy judgments.

My soul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law.

The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts.

Thy testimonies have I taken as a heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes alway, even unto the end.

KOPH

I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD: I will keep thy statutes.

I cried unto thee; save me, and I shall keep thy testimonies.

I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in thy word.

Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.

Hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness: O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgment.

They draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.

Thou art near, O LORD, and all thy commandments are truth.

Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them for ever.

SELECTION 47

PSALM 120

In my distress I cried unto the LORD, and he heard me.

Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.

What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

Woe is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!

My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace.

I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.

PSALM 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

PSALM 122

I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together: whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

Because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek thy good.

SELECTION 48

PSALM 123

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM 124

If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, now may Israel say;

If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us: then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:

Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul: then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

Blessed be the Lord, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

PSALM 125

They that trust in the LORD shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.

For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

Do good, O Lord, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

PSALM 126

When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.

The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.

Turn again our captivity, O LORD as the streams in the south.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

SELECTION 49

PSALM 130

Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD. Lord, hear my voice; let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning.

Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

PSALM 131

LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.

Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child.

Let Israel hope in the LORD from henceforth and for ever.

PSALM 132

Lord, remember David, and all his afflictions:

How he sware unto the LORD, and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob;

Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;

I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids,

Until I find out a place for the Lord, a habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood.

We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool.

Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.

Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

For thy servant David's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed.

The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore.

For the Lord hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.

This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.

I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy. There will I make the horn of David to bud:

I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed. His enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

SELECTION 50.

PSALM 133

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard:

Even Aaron's beard that went down to the skirts of his garments;

It is as the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion:

For there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

PSALM 134

Behold, bless ye the Lord, all ye servants of the Lord, which by night stand in the house of the Lord.

Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the LORD.

The Lord that made heaven and earth bless thee out of Zion.

Selections from the Psalter

PSALM 135

Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD; praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.

Ye that stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God, praise the Lord; for the Lord is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

For I know that the Lord is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.

He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasures.

Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast. Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.

Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings; Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan: and he gave their land for a heritage, a heritage unto Israel his people.

Thy name, O LORD, endureth forever; and thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.

For the Lord will judge his people, and he will repent himself concerning his servants.

The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths.

They that make them are like unto them: so is everyone that trusteth in them.

Bless the LORD, O house of Israel: bless the LORD, O house of Aaron. Bless the LORD, O house of Levi: ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD.

Blessed be the Lord out of Zion, which dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise ye the Lord.

SELECTION 51

PSALM 136

O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

O give thanks unto the God of gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.

O give thanks to the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

To him who alone doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.

To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.

To him that stretched out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.

To him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever:

The sun to rule by day: for his mercy endureth forever.

The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever.

To him that smote Egypt in their firstborn: for his mercy endureth for ever:

And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth forever:

With a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm: for his mercy endureth for ever.

To him which divided the Red Sea into parts: for his mercy endureth for ever:

And made Israel to pass through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever.

But overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea: for his mercy endureth for ever.

To him which led his people through the wilderness: for his mercy endureth for ever.

To him which smote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever:

And slew famous Kings: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Sihon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever:

And Og the king of Bashan: for his mercy endureth for ever.

And gave their land for a heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever:

Even a heritage unto Israel his servant: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth for ever:

And hath redeemed us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Who giveth food to all flesh; for his mercy endureth for ever.

O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth forever.

SELECTION 52

PSALM 139

O LORD thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Selections from the Psalter

Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in the grave, behold thou art there.

If I take the wings of the morn- ing, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my moth- er's womb.

I will praise thee; for I am fear- fully and wonderfully made: mar- vellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the low- est parts of the earth.

Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

For they speak against thee wick- edly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee.

I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

SELECTION 53

PSALM 143

Hear my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithful- ness answer me, and in thy right- eousness.

And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.

I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands.

I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land.

Hear me speedily, O LORD: my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.

Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies: I flee unto thee to hide me.

Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

Quicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

PSALM 137

By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept when we remembered Zion.

We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.

If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

* * *

PSALM 138

I will praise thee with my whole heart: before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth; for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.

Though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

Selections from the Psalter

The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

SELECTION 54

PSALM 145

I will extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.

And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness.

They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee.

They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

SELECTION 55

PSALM 146

Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

While I live will I praise the Lord: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:

Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever.

Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry.

The Lord looseth the prisoners: the Lord openeth the eyes of the blind: the Lord raiseth them that are bowed down: the Lord loveth the righteous:

The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

The Lord shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM 147

Praise ye the LORD: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.

The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

He telleth the number of the stars;

he calleth them all by their names.

Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

The Lord lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wool; he scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

Selections from the Psalter

He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes, and his judgments unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord.

SELECTION 56

PSALM 148

Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens; praise him in the heights.

Praise ye him, all his angels; praise ye him, all his hosts.

Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the LORD: for he commanded, and they were created.

He hath also stablished them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

Praise the LORD from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps:

Fire, and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind fulfilling his word:

Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:

Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl:

Kings of the earth, and all people; princes and all judges of the earth:

Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:

Let them praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.

He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM 150

Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts; praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.
